Methodist Church News Notes

ELMWOOD (Special) — Dr. Bert L. Story, pastor of the Church, returned to his pulpit Sunday after five weeks absence using only a cane.

His recovery from the automobile accident has been very satisfactory.

Last Sunday he was in church but a guest minister, Dr. Manual Singh preached. Dr. Story was then using crutches. He presented the women members who attended church with a Hawaiian orchid on June 3rd, Sunday after five weeks absence using only a cane.

Sunday was Student Recognition Day, and Dr. Story had Thomas Godbey, who graduated from Nebraska Wesleyan University the past week, give a talk about the college work at Wesleyan. His survey was very clear and he also told of the opportunities for students mentally, socially and spiritually. Mr. Godbey was a major in chemistry. Dr. Story also gave recognition to other college students.

Announcement was made of the awarding of the Marie L. Story Wesleyan scholarship to Joyce Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Myrl Miller, who is a member of the church. This scholarship is to be given each year to some student of the church who qualifies for the Nebraska Wesleyan University requirements.

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Reid entertained the Rev. and Mrs. N. F. Horn and Mrs. Rhoda Earnest for supper Thursday evening.

Ahlene Fitch reports selling her property on East D Street to Mrs. Margaret Laughlin who has been renting it.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Fleishman attended the wedding of their granddaughter, Sharon Fleishman, to Melvin Todd, Jr., of Union at the Methodist Church, Plattsmouth, Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Miller underwent major surgery at the Bryan Memorial Hospital Friday. She is reported as improving very satisfactorily.

Mrs. G. R. Eveland entertained for dinner Monday Mrs. Blanche Kuehn, daughters and their families. Those present were Mrs. Ted Schroeder and family of Decatur, Ill., Mary Ann Cates and children, Mrs. Ruben Stock and family of Murdock and Mrs. Frank Gustin.

Mrs. Minnie Stege had the misfortune to have a leg broken. Both bones were broken and she was taken to Bryan Hospital to have the bones set. She will remain there for a while. She was standing near a pick up truck driven by Lyman Cromwell when he started to back up. He did not know she was there as she was on the right hand side of truck.

Mrs. Addie Howe had the misfortune to break her wrist recently. She has it in a cast. In spite of the handicap she left for the West Coast Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Peterson drove her to Lincoln to take the train from there.

The 36th annual reunion of the Rueter family was held at Antelope Park in Lincoln Sunday with a basket dinner. It also included some Bornemeier and Kunz families. Some 100 attended.

Breaks His Foot

Norman Bornemeier had the misfortune to break two bones in his foot on Saturday and is wearing a cast. He is getting around on crutches, driving his truck and taking care of business.

Mrs. Bertha Fitch and Ahlene spent the weekend at their cabin at lake park, South Bend.

Henry Bornemeier recently underwent surgery in Chicago where his brother Dr. Walter Bornemeier was the attending physician. He is getting along fine and is expected home within a few days.

youth, beauty, Chevrolet, action!

The new Bel Air Convertible—one of 20 sassy-styled new Chevrolets.

Want to take the wheel of one of America's few great road cars? Want to send pleasant little tingles up and down your spine? Then hustle on in and try out a new Chevrolet V8!

Now showing—the happiest "double feature" of the year! One part is bold, new Motoramic styling. The other is record-breaking V8 action. Hollywood has a heap of words that describe it: colossal, stupendous, magnificent. We'll settle for just the name—Chevrolet.

Because once you've driven this sweet-handling showboat, the adjectives will take care of themselves. Horsepower that ranges up to 225 makes hills flatter and saves precious seconds for safer passing. And the way this Chevrolet wheels around tight turns would gladden the heart of a dyed-in-the-wool sports car fan.

Stop in sometime soon and highway-test this new Chevrolet.
