MURDOCK (Special) — Four Square Extension Club met recently at the home of Mrs. A. J. Tool with Mrs. Lupardus presiding.

The regular order of business was followed, by the reading of the verses of Jaun D. Howard, by Mrs. Pearl Wendt.

The song of the month, "Home Sweet Home" was sung in unison followed by the history of the composer of the music and the lyrics.

Roll call was responded to by members giving some interesting versions of their childhood May basket times. The club lesson for this part of the year having been concluded, the time was devoted to the topic of music, past and present.

A very interesting paper was presented by the music leader, Mrs. Lela Wendt. The members were favored by a vocal duet by Mrs. Edna Rikli and Mrs. Carl Schlahoff, "Dear to the Heart of the Shepherd," also a classic instrumental duet by Mrs. Alfred Bornemeier and daughter, Laurel.

The social hour was spent in conversation, climaxed by a most refreshing lunch served by the hostess, Mrs. Tool. No definite plan was made for the June meeting at this time.
