Franz Joseph Knecht Funeral Held Friday at Marcy Chapel

SOUTH BEND (Special)—Funeral services for Franz Joseph Knecht, 73, who passed away June 13th at a Lincoln Hospital were held Friday at the Marcy Chapel, Father Max Kors, of St. Lukes Episcopal Church, Plattsmouth officiated.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Carsten sang, "Beyond the Sunset" and "Lay My Head Beneath a Rose," accompanied by Mrs. Henry Smith. Bearers were Vernon Dill, John Gakemeier, John Grady, Glen Theissen, Bernard Dill and Jess Fidler. Burial was in the St. John's Cemetery near Nehawka.

Mr. Knecht was born in Germany, May 4, 1883. At the age of 21 he journeyed to the United States and in 1906 he came to live in South Bend. Joe had received his schooling in Germany but was pleased to attend the school in Sarpy County to learn to read, write and speak the English language, then took a business course at Omaha.

He was first employed on the farm of Bernard Knecht, father of Mrs. Oscar Dill, and later became associated with Emil Stutzenreger in the store at South Bend. In 1926 he purchased the store and has been the proprietor since that time.

On Sept. 3, 1937, he was united in marriage to Mrs. Lottie Rosencrans, formerly of Plattsmouth. They have lived in South Bend till his passing. After attending college and serving in the armed forces his step son, William Rosencrans, assisted in the store. The ensuing years brought a deep and devoted friendship. In the past few years Bill has assumed the responsibility of the store which gave Mr. Knecht the opportunity to visit his home land in 1949.

In his retirement and last few weeks of illness his absence was noted but his presence was always felt at the store.

He was interred at St. John's Cemetery with Masonic rites by Pomegranite Lodge No. 110 of Ashland in charge.

He leaves to mourn his passing his wife, Lottie, son, William and family and Mrs. Oscar Dill of South Bend, other relatives and a host of friends.
