Miss Lila Oehlerking Married, Honeymoon in Denver, Colorado

ELMWOOD (Special)—The altar and the chancel of the St. Paul Evangelical United Brethren Church, Elmwood, was decorated with pedestal baskets of blue daisies, with gladioli and green ferns for the wedding of Miss Lila Oehlerking, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Oehlerking, Elmwood, to Raymond Kuhlengel, Syracuse, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Kuhlengel, Dunbar. The 8 o'clock service was solemnized in the presence of 250 guests, by the Rev. J. H. Oehlerking, Archer, the bride's uncle, assisted by the Rev. T. H. Kampman, pastor, Elmwood.

Miss Joan Backemeyer, Elmwood, played the wedding music, and accompanied Clark Marshall, Avoca, the soloist.

The bride wore a gown of her own design, floor length, long sleeves, fitted bodice of lace and iridescent sequins, styled with a standing V-shaped collar. The rest of the gown which featured a bouffante skirt, long torso, was of antique taffeta, floor length. Her finger tip veil of French illusion was held in place with a cap, made of lace and sequins as the dress. She ble was covered with a linen tablecloth which belonged to the bride's great-grandmother.

Mrs. Eldon Mendenhall, Elmwood, cut the four-tier cake; Mrs. John Riekers, Otoe, served the ice cream; Mrs. Ezra Luetchens, Wabash, served the punch. Dining room hostess, Mrs. Loren Schwahinger, Princeton, assisted by Miss Marilyn Miller, Murdock; Miss Eunice Oehlerking, Wabash, and Miss Sandra Lamb, Blair. Misses Carolyn Spohn, Jolene Spohn, and Jean Bornemeier, Elmwood, assisted in the serving. Assisting in the kitchen were Mrs. Joe Kunz, Mrs. Chester Bornemeier, Mrs. Howard Vogt, Mrs. Lester Rosenow, Mrs. Vernon Bornemeier, Elmwood, and Mrs. Wm. Vogt of Unadilla.

In charge of the guest book was Miss Margaret Vogt, Wabash. Miss Ardyth Oehlerking, Wabash, and Miss Sharon Frendenburgh, Elmwood, helped with the gifts.

After a honeymoon to Denver, Colo., the couple will be at home June 25, on a farm near Syracuse.

The bride wore for traveling an embroidered linen duster over a black sheath dress. Her accessories were black. She wore an aqua hat, gloves and a yellow rose corsage.

The bride attended Nebraska Wesleyan University, and has been on the faculty of Bellevue Public Schools.

The bridegroom has been farming near Syracuse.

Secretary of Defense Wilson deplored as a "most unfortunate business" the intensified interservice rivalries that were afflicting the armed forces.

Bible School At Christ Lutheran Church Terminates

Vacation bible school at Christ Lutheran Church closed June 8th after convening the past two weeks.

Fifty-five students were enrolled. The theme for study was "Companions for Christ." Crafts were included with the studies. Teachers were Mrs. Forrest Engelkemeier, Mrs. Gerald Meisinger, Mrs. DeLoss Bond and Dr. A. Lentz. Mrs. Glen Kraeger was assistant teacher. Helpers were Misses Janet Friedrich, Dorothy Stoehr and Janette Albert.

Certificates of merit and perfect attendance awards of tiny crosses were given the closing day. The group was treated to ice cream bars.

Avoca Girl Married At Lutheran Church

AVOCA (Special)—Miss Darlene Carlson, Lincoln, became the bride of Warren H. Hagel-Pitt of Syracuse in a ceremony at First Lutheran Church of Avoca Friday, June 8. Rev. Alvin Zeilinger read the lines before an altar lighted with white candelabra and appointed with bouquets of white gladioli and blue iris.

The bride appeared in a gown of white imported lace fashioned in a colonial mode. Shallow scallops of the lace edged the rounded neckline and long tapered sleeves completed the sculptured bodice. Her illusion veil trimmed with lace was held by a lace tiara. She carried a white Bible marked with a lavender orchid and showered with Stephanotis.

The attendants were Mrs. Duane Sinn, Alexandria, sister of the bride, matron of honor; Miss Anna Mae Emshoff, Avoca, and bridesmaids Miss Mary Jane Dickman, Avoca, Miss Shirley Mueller, Syracuse, were gowned in identical frocks of pastel blue lace.

Miss Susan Carlson and Miss Marcia Conradi, cousins of the bride, were flower girls. Lighting the tapers were Sharon Ludwig and Betty Heiser.

Jack Bassler was best man and ushering were Duane Carlson, Duane Sinn and Bill Thoman.

At the organ was Miss Kathlene Leifers, Avoca, accompanying soloist Gary Danke of Syracuse.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Carlson, Syracuse. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Irene Hagel-Pitt. The bride is a granddaughter of Mrs. Henry Ludwig.

The couple will make their home in Lincoln where they are both employed.

"Mission In Song" Was The Lesson At Church Meeting

Women's missionary society of Christ Evangelical Lutheran Church met at the home of Mrs. Fred Wehrbein June 13.

Mrs. John Hild presented the lesson on "Missions in Song" by Margaret C. Gold. She was assisted by Mrs. Glen Kraeger at the piano.

The business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Joseph Puls, president. Gifts amounting to $2,134.69 were received by Tabitha Home at the shower given for the Home at the spring conference at Omaha. Quarterly thank offering was observed along with the monthly offering. Offerings chairman Mrs. Forrest Engelkemeier, was in charge.

Visitors were Mrs. August Keil, Mrs. Gerold Keil, Dennis and Rodney and Philip Meisinger.

The July meeting will be held at the church parlors with Mrs. John Fusselman presenting the lesson on "Wings, Wheels, and Bows" by Katherine Dietterle Benion.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Couple Honors Son And Nephew At Picnic Supper

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hild were hosts to a family and friend gathering at their home Wednesday evening.

The occasion honored their son, Lieut. Gary Hild who is home on leave from Ft. Sill, Oklahoma and their nephew, Tom Livingston who is home from Texas A and M College. The honorees will leave for Ft. Sill Friday where Lieut. Hild will resume his regular duties and Tom will train for ROTC Junior Summer Camp in Field Artillery until Aug. 3rd.

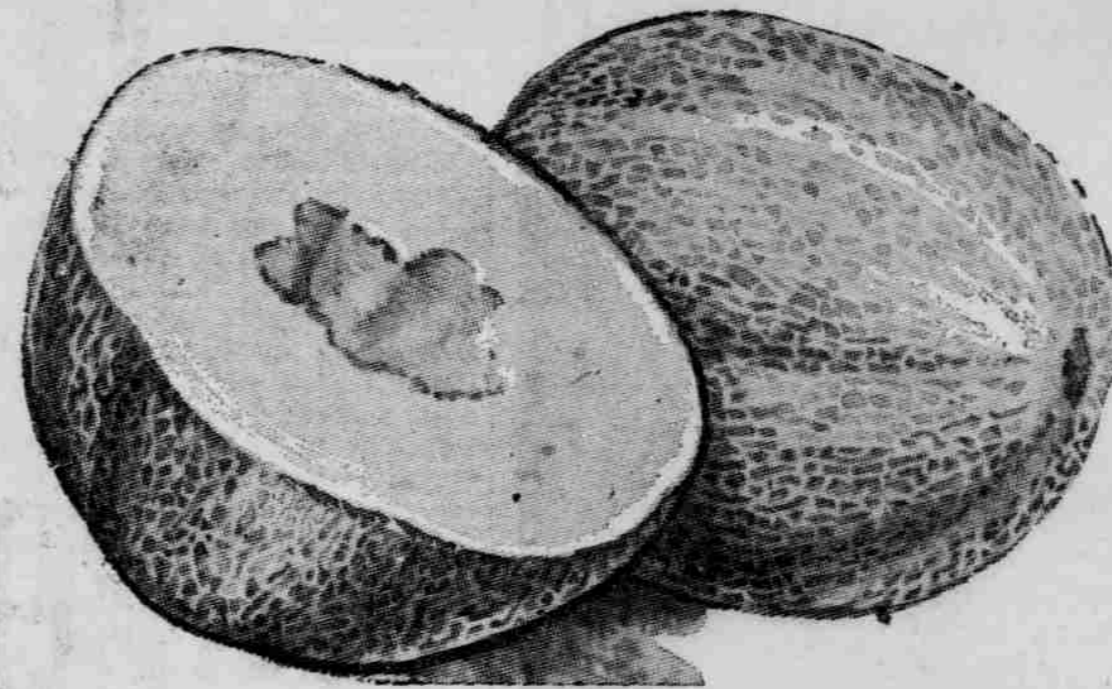

Tom will return to his college after ROTC Training where he will study with a fellow student and prepare for a debate that is scheduled for Aug. 27, 28 and 29th in Calif.

Thirty guests enjoyed the picnic supper that was held on the Hild lawn. The evening was spent visiting.
