Bible Comment Faith, Good Works Must Go Hand in Hand

In the Epistle of James, there is a profound plea for plain, honest, practical Christian living. There ought to really be a great deal more of it in the Church and in all relationship of Christians with the world. We have had no right, even in our thought, to separate faith and works. Faith is primary and basic, but faith and works go together, and until we relate faith to character and conduct we do not come to understand what Christian faith is. James, like Paul, emphasizes the fact that God is the source of all goodness. From Him comes every good and perfect gift, and with Him there is no variability or shadow of turning. His love and His grace are abiding, and every man who in faith accepts the obligations of the Christian life will find the power of God with him to help him. We cannot too strongly stress this concise definition of religion, found in the Epistle of James: "Pure religion and undefiled before our God and Father is this, to visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep one-self unspotted from the world."

It is this sort of religion which distinguished the early disciples. Paul believed in it just as much as James, but the world is still run largely on the basis of self-interest and not always "enlightened" self-interest. True Christianity represents something deeper and brighter. It has produced humanitarian organizations and movements which lift mankind to motives of mutual aid. This, not self-interest, is the hope of the world's future.

Plans Set To Honor New Pastor

By Mrs. L. G. Todd
Tel. 244
UNION (Special) — The Woman's Society of Christian Service met at the home of Mrs. Eunice Balfour with Miss Lenna Barber as assistant hostess Thursday afternoon. Twenty-five ladies were present. Mrs. George Comer and Linda Nobles were guests. Mrs. Ruth Stine, the newly elected president, presided over the meeting and conducted the business of the afternoon. Mrs. Todd led the devotions using the topic "The World and

Our Home Community." The world was compared to a wagon wheel—at the center is the hub, to which are attached the spokes and holding the spokes together is the rim. The hub represents our homes and community concerns. The spokes are the social and economic sanctions of our experience. The rim might be our world in which all communities and all the ways of doing things, are bound together. Eunice Balfour read an interesting article on Flag Day. Miss Iva Mougey, who had recently attended the annual conference of the Methodist Church as a Lay Member, gave a report of many interesting proceedings of the conference. The president appointed Mrs. Con Walkins to serve on the bazaar committee with Mrs. Lee Faris. Blooming plants had been sent to two members who are ill—Mrs. Verl Ackley and Mrs. Francis Carneal. Mrs. Balfour presented a gift in behalf of the WSCS to Miss Lenna Barber who will be moving to Nebraska City soon. We are sorry to lose Miss Barber, but wish her well in her new home.

ATOM-POWERED NAVY
Rep. James T. Patterson (R., Conn.) recently predicted that the United States fleet would be an atomic-powered one "within the next fifteen years." Legislation pending in Congress would authorize construction of the first nuclear surface warship — a cruiser designed to fire guided missiles. The Navy already has atomic-powered submarines.
