By Mrs. Elmore Saltmarsh
Tel. 3011

LOUISVILLE (Special) — Under the able direction of Mrs. Ervin Albert, Louisville Red Cross safety chairman, 84 boys and girls of the town and surrounding communities have received swimming instructions at the state lakes during the past week.

Clark Marshal of Avoca was the chief instructor and was assisted by Mrs. Albert and Miss Ann Marquardt of Avoca, Miss Mary Ann Wiesneth, Miss Merna Reichart and Miss Janice Slemson and Jack White, all of Louisville.

Of those taking the course, nine beginners passed, eight intermediates, five swimmers, five advanced swimmers, one junior life saving, and two senior life saving.

Members of the Volunteer Fire Department constructed the diving board for the swimmers use.

Immanuel Lutheran Bible School Closes With Program

LOUISVILLE (Special) — With an enrollment of 82 children, Bible School closed June 22 after being in session the preceding two weeks.

Using as their theme "Gods Children Pray," films, songs and art work all brought about a better understanding of prayer and prayer consciousness.

Pastor R. H. Nagler was supervisor with the following teaching staff:
Mrs. Lenora Ragoss, Mrs. Verla Schliefert, Mrs. Louella Katerzim, Mrs. Alma Hill, Mrs. Mamie Group, Miss Geraldine Schliefert. — Substitutes: Mrs. Francis Schliefert, and Mrs. Lela Wendt. Assistants: Mrs. Joyce Gaebel, Mrs. Phyllis Brunkow, Miss Letha Brunkow, Mrs. Marie Stohlman, Miss Julie Johnson and Duane Arends.

On Friday, a picnic was held with the staff and the many mothers who had seen that a lunch was served each day.

Sunday the entire school and their teachers gave a program of songs accompanied by Miss Jeannine Schliefert at the organ.

Pupils from three years of age through seniors participated.

11 From This City Attend the Summer Courses at Omaha U

Special To The Journal
OMAHA—Eleven Plattsmouth residents are attending first term summer sessions at the University of Omaha. The second five-week session begins Monday, July 16.
