Miss Dorothy Lee Piper and Mr. Russell Menges Married

Miss Dorothy Lee Piper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Piper and Mr. Russell Menges, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Menges, of Plattsmouth and Mrs. Russell Paine of Omaha, were married Saturday July 14 by the Reverend Roy P. Morris, of the Murray Presbyterian Church.

The wedding music was played by Mrs. Charles Spangler of Murray.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a street length white lace dress and hat, with all white accessories. She carried a colonial bouquet of white gladioli and lily of the valley.

Her bridesmaid, Miss Wanda Little, wore a light blue street length dress with harmonizing accessories. Her corsage was white carnations with lily of the valley.

The bride's mother and the bridegroom's mother wore white carnation corsages with lily of the valley.

The bridegroom and his best man, Mr. Wayne Elders, were attired in blue suits.

Mrs. Wayne Elders was in charge of the guest book and the gifts.

A reception following the ceremony was held at the home of the bride's parents in Plattsmouth.

Miss Wanda Little and Miss Sharon Kneer cut the wedding cake and Mrs. Eleanor Ham served the ice cream. Mrs. Clarence Akeson poured coffee.

After a trip to the Lake of the Ozarks, the couple will live in Plattsmouth. They are employed in Omaha.

Elna Bomberg Is Recent Bride Of Mr. Hodge: To Live in Omaha

Miss Elna Bomberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tinas Bomberg, and Merlyn Hodge, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Hodge, were married July 15 at the Presbyterian Church in Plattsmouth.

Reverend Keith Delap officiated at the double ring ceremony at two o'clock in the presence of close friends and relatives.

Baskets of pink and white gladioli banked the church altar.

Mrs. George Jacobs, organist, accompanied Mrs. Richard Dykmann, soloist, offering the "Wedding Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, appeared in all white, wearing a street length eyelet pique dress, princess style; a small hat, mitt gloves and she carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations and lily of the valley. Pearls, the gift of the bridegroom, was her only jewelry.

Miss Pat Bailey, the maid of honor, wore a pink dress, styled as that of the bride, a pink hat and matching accessories. She wore a pink carnation corsage.

William McCormick, best man was attired in a blue business suit, as was the bridegroom.

Mrs. Bomberg chose a blue linen dress with white accessories for her daughter's wedding. Her corsage was blue carnations and lily of the valley. The bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue dress with white accessories. She wore a corsage of pink carnations and lily of the valley.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, where pink and white gladioli decorated the receiving room.

A four tiered cake, baked by Mrs. Harry Porter, aunt of the bride, centered the pink satin with net overlaid decorated serving table. Mrs. LeRoy Meisinger served the ice cream; Mrs. Chester Lagerstrom poured coffee and Mrs. Ivar Bomberg cut the cake.

After a wedding trip to Iowa and Minnesota they are at home at 129 South 41st Street, Omaha.

The couple graduated from the Plattsmouth High School.

Orville Gold of Kansas City, Mo., visited his brother, Plattsmouth's Mayor Bruce Gold, Thursday.

Mynard Club To Have Picnic August 14th

The Mynard Community Club members will hold their annual picnic August 14.

The first picnic was held 28 years ago, the year the club was organized, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Myron Wiles, west of Mynard. At this gathering it was voted to have a picnic the following year, but receive paying guests.

That year the picnic was held in the grove of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Spangler, south of Plattsmouth, where their son, Richard, now resides. The Plattsmouth Ad Club attended as paying guests. From this time on the picnic was looked forward to by those wanting "their fill" of a great variety of foods to choose from served with the kind of hospitality special to summertime and country living.

On August 26, 1952 the members held the picnic at the Mynard Community Hall celebrating their 25th year. More than 250 guests were served.

A special invitation is always extended to the Plattsmouth Rotary Club, but everyone is welcome.

Christ Lutheran Married Couples Form Church Club

A married couples club was organized at the Christ Lutheran Church and selected the name of "Mr. and Mrs. Club."

The following couples were elected officers:

President Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Hennings; vice president Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hild; secretary and treasurer Mr. and Mrs. Tom Meisinger; program committee Mr. and Mrs. Bob Gay and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hild.

Other members include Dr. and Mrs. Lentz; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bond; Mr. and Mrs. John Fusselman; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Puls; and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Parkening.

The meetings will be held the third Sunday of each month at 8 o'clock. This includes a devotional period, program and social hour followed by refreshments.

The last meeting was held Sunday at Garfield Park in Plattsmouth where a picnic and weiner roast was enjoyed. Fourteen members were present by answering the roll by naming a book of the Bible. The constitution was presented, which had been written by the officers.

Devotions on the 96th Psalm were given and a movie pertaining to the Psalm. It was a safety film titled "The Years of Our Lives."

Miss Marilyn Louise Miller and Myron E. Oehlerking Married

Mr. and Mrs. Myron E. Oehlerking

Miss Marilyn Louise Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer D. Miller, of Murdock and Mr. Myron E. Oehlerking, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin A. Oehlerking, of Wabash were married July 19 at the Evangelical United Brethren Church at Murdock.

Reverend Richard A. Heim performed the eight in the evening ceremony before the church altar that was banked with large baskets of gladioli and majestic daisies and a flurry of candelabrum, in the presence of 300 guests.

Mrs. Donald Boom of Naperville, Ill., organist, accompanied the soloist Roger Withee of Le Mars, Iowa.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, entered the church gown in chantilly lace and tulle spread over satin. Tulle banding edged with hand clipped lace scallops accented the decollete portrait, and the long sleeves smoothed to bridal points over the wrists. The elongated lace bodice dramatized the skirt of tulle froth fashioned into alternating tiers of petite pleats and lace bands which fanned into a peacock train repeating the ruffled motif. A lace ruffled shell held her silk illusion veiling and she carried a white orchid on a white Bible.

The maid of honor was Miss Rosalyn Miller of Murdock, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were the Misses Eunice Oehlerking and Ardyth Oehlerking, both of Murdock and Mrs. Walter Zobel of Le Mars, Iowa. The bride's attendants wore identical waltz length gowns in white lace over heavenly blue taffeta. The gowns featured scooped necklines falling over the shoulders and the full skirts fell from a wide cummerbund of taffeta which ended in a wide sash at the back. They wore matching picture hats and carried cascade bouquets of blue daisies.

The flower girl, JoAnn Luetchens of Wabash and the ring bearer, Janette Schroeder of Kearney wore identical blue nylon tulle over taffeta dresses and matching picture hats.

Mr. Marvin Oehlerking of Wabash was best man for his brother's marriage. Groomsmen were Elmer H. Miller of Murdock, Walter Oehlerking, Jr., of Elmwood and John Westphal of Aurelia, Iowa. Ushers were Verle Rieckman of Murdock and Eldon Oehlerking of Alvo.

A reception following the ceremony was held in the church parlors. Assisting were Mrs. Ray Veach, Ella Delaney of Lincoln; W. M. Meierjürgen, Janet Kupke, Mrs. Carl Meierjürgen, Mrs. August Rieke, Mrs. Lee Rikli of Murdock; Mrs. Donald Fredenburg of Elmwood; Mrs. Wayne Swartz of Ashland; Beverly Buttermore of Le Mars, Iowa; Elizabeth Herman of Palmyra and Jeanine Schliefert of Wabash.

The Misses Maxine Miller of Murdock, Jo Ann Backemeier of Elmwood and Mary Swartz of Climbing Hill, Iowa, took care of the gifts.

The bride is a graduate of Westmar College, Le Mars, Iowa. The bridegroom is attending the same college after service in the Armed Forces.

After a trip to the Black Hills and Yellowstone Park the couple will be at home after the first of August in Le Mars, Iowa.
