Vacation Trip Ends
Abruptly: Father
Rushed To Hospital

Mrs. Cynthia Dawson, Mrs. Daisy Richards and two children and Charles Dill began a vacation Monday bound for Lexington to visit relatives there.

The trip ended too soon. Near Eagle, Mr. Dill, father of Mrs. Richards, took ill and was rushed to the Methodist Hospital in Omaha. After observation it was learned he had suffered a paralytic stroke.

Mr. Dill remains in the hospital and is in room 449.

Top Banking
Position Goes
To Mr. Nielsen

DES MOINES — Orville V. Nielsen of Plattsmouth who has been associated with the Stock Yards National Bank in Omaha for the last eighteen months as a Field Representative in the Correspondent Bank Division, has accepted a new position. He will be vice president of Bankers Service Company of Des Moines, assuming his new duties August 1.

Prior to joining the Stock Yards National Bank, Nielsen was associated with the Plattsmouth State Bank of Plattsmouth for nine years—six years as Assistant Cashier and three years as Cashier. He is a graduate of the University of Nebraska (1934), taught school for nine years and operated a retail store for two years before engaging in the banking business.

The Bankers Service Company specializes in negotiating the sale of banks. Henry H. Byers, president of the company, has had more than thirty years experience in that field. He states that Mr. Nielsen will travel in Western Iowa, Nebraska and adjoining states and otherwise assist in handling the company's steadily expanding business. Their 1956 bank sales in Nebraska total $550,700 and include three banks with combined assets exceeding $7,500,000.

The Nielsen's plan to remain in Plattsmouth for the time being as Mr. Nielsen's territory will be in this vicinity.

He is presently superintendent of schools at Gower, Mo.

District Governor
Visits Rotarians
In City on Tuesday

Fred Preston, Fairbury, Rotary district governor, was a guest of Plattsmouth Rotary Club at the regular noon-day luncheon Tuesday.

Making his annual visits of inspection of district Rotary Clubs, Gov. Preston gave the local organization an excellent rating on attendance and service to the community, and commended many local Rotarians for their individual willingness to contribute their time and effort to Plattsmouth and surrounding area.

He also outlined his attendance at International Rotary Convention held at Lake Placid, N. Y., where over 750 Rotarians from 56 countries congregated in their annual meeting. This meeting, he reported, and similar meetings held over the world, do more to cement better international relations than most all other efforts combined.

He also reviewed the national convention held at Philadelphia, where more than 10,000 Rotarians and their wives met for three days.

Mr. Preston met briefly prior to the meeting with President Clem Woster, followed by an afternoon session with Rotary officers and committee heads outlining a district program for 1956-57.

$38,835 Suit Filed
Here By Ernest Read

A $38,835 damage suit was filed in district court this week by Ernest Read of Cass County against Silas Kincaid of Mound City, Mo.

Read charges that on January 25, 1956, he was riding in a car driven by Kincaid when the vehicle turned off the road and crashed into a telephone pole.

Read stated Kincaid was intoxicated at the time.

Read added he was injured to such an extent he lost considerable earnings in lost work time and also had heavy medical expenses.
