Legion Auxiliary Hears Girls' Stater At Regular Meeting

By Bertha Caddy
Reporter
EAGLE — American Legion Auxiliary No. 197 met Monday, August 13, at Legion Home. President, Lerma Doeden called the meeting to order and the colors were advanced by Bertha Smith.

Chaplain Bertha Caddy read the prayer of thanks for the past year. Nora Ketelhut accompanied on the piano while "America" was sung. Joyce Westfall, girls' stater, gave a report which was very interesting.

Lerma Doeden closed the meeting. Elsie Althouse got the door prize.

Nora Ketelhut and Belle May served a delicious lunch with Legionnaires joining the meeting.

The next meeting is September 3 with Phyllis May and Ida Muenchau as hostesses.

Wisconsin Couple Pays Court Fines

A Wisconsin husband and wife "team" collaborated recently to gain a six months suspended driver's license and a total of $133 in court fines and costs. They are Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. McGuire who were tentatively residing in Plattsmouth until recently. Mr. McGuire was employed in construction work in Nehawka.

The fines occurred when Mr. McGuire apparently intoxicated, was stopped by a state patrolman near Murray. Mrs. McGuire refused to leave the car and uttered certain abusive terms directed at the patrolman.

They were brought into Cass County Court where Mr. McGuire pleaded not guilty to a charge of drunken driving and Mrs. McGuire pleaded not guilty to charges of intoxication and resisting and officer.

They later changed their pleas to guilty.

Other court cases: Stanley D. Brammer of Fountain, Colo., speeding, $16 fine, $4 costs.

Nonie Lashley of Belle Fourche, S. D., excessive height, $10 fine, $4 costs.

Clarence E. Nugent of Omaha speeding, $10 fine, $4 costs.

Gary A. Jacobson of Omaha, passing on curve, $10 fine, $4 costs.

Richard A. Johnson of Lincoln, speeding, $25 fine, $4 costs.

Harold L. White of Council Bluffs, Iowa, speeding with truck, $15 fine, $4 costs.
