

Highlights of the Cass County Fair

MISS ELMWOOD. Sharon Abrams, 17, attended Murdock High School and is a member of the Methodist Church. Her school activities included: Cheerleader, two years; County Government, placed 1st in speech contest at Omaha, Junior Play and various musical groups.

MISS LOUISVILLE. Kathryn Nessen, 17, attended Louisville High School and is a member of the Methodist Church. Her school activities were: Pep Club, Cheerleader, Class Plays, Student Council, Annual Staff, Dictaphone Efficiency Award, and Honor Roll.

MISS CASS COUNTY OF 1956. Yvonne Domingo, 16, attended Weeping Water High School and was a member of the Congregational Church. Her school activities included: Pep Club, Dramatic Club, Cheerleaders, Attendant to Football Queen, Glee Club and Triple Trio. She was Miss Weeping Water before becoming Miss Cass County.

MISS UNION. Nola Keene, 18, attended Union High School and is a member of the Methodist Church. Her school activities were: volleyball, Pep Club, and Chorus.

MISS MURDOCK. Mary Ann Gakemeier, 18, attended Murdock High School and is a member of the Trinity Lutheran Church. Her school activities included: class officer, Cheerleader, Girls Glee Club, Chorus, Band, volleyball, and Pep Club officer.

CARROLL SCHMIDT IS DEMONSTRATING HIS SKILL AT THE TRACTOR RODEO.

AN UNIDENTIFIED BOY IS MAKING A LONG STRETCH TO REACH JAKE, THE STEER ON EXHIBITION AT THE FAIR.

THE GRAND CHAMPION Steer, belonging to Lauren Todd of Murray, is shown at the right. Lauren was not available at the time this picture was taken.

HUNTER INGWERSON, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Ingwerson, is shown with his Grand Champion Hereford. Hunter also had the Reserved Champion Steer.

MISS NEHAWKA. Kay Ward, 18, attended Nehawka High School and is a member of the Christian Church. Her school activities included: F. H. A. President, 1956; Pep Club, Annual Editor, Valedictorian, and Chorus.

MISS PLATTSOUTH is Sharon Harbaugh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tine Harbaugh of Plattsouth. A 17 year old senior who is drum majorette of the Plattsouth High School Band and teaches baton twirling to a class of 65 girls. During the school year Sharon is in chorus, girls quartet, dramatics, has been a member of the Student Council 4 years and was chosen for All State for 1955-56. Last year she was page editor of the school paper and this year is editor of the 1957 year book. This summer she was councilor at a V. F. W. Youth Camp and is a swimming instructor. Miss Harbaugh was Yuletide Princess for two years and Prom Queen Attendant. This year she has been chosen cheer leader, and vice-president of the sophomore class and president of the Spanish class. Sharon is also an active church and choir member and youth fellowship.

THE SYRACUSE BAND STEPPING OUT AT THE CASS COUNTY GRAND PARADE.

A DUCKLING IS SHOWN RIDING PIGGYBACK ON THIS MUSCOVY HEN WHICH BELONGS TO RICKY COOPER.

