IDLE WORKERS
As of June 16th, the number of jobless workers drawing Federal-state unemployment compensation declined to a 1956 low of 1,193,200. The total was still higher than for the same week a year ago when 1,139,400 workers were drawing jobless pay.
These figures do not take into account the thousands of steel workers now idle because of the current strike.

Legal Notices
Every government official or board that handles public money should publish at regular intervals an accounting of it showing where and how each dollar is spent. The Journal holds this to be a fundamental principle of democratic government.
