

Miss Marilyn Anne Leonard, Former Cass Co. Girl, Married

Mrs. Peter R. Richards

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lawrence Leonard gave their daughter, Marilyn Anne, in marriage to Peter R. Richards, August 1, at an impressive ceremony in Calvary Presbyterian Church in Riverside, Calif.

The Reverend Harold Hart-sough solemnized the young couple's vows in the presence of 300 guests.

Hand-clipped chantilly lace and tulle fashioned the bride's gown which she wore over a lace petticoat her paternal grandmother had worn at her wedding. She also held her grandmother's lace handkerchief with her white Bible on which a white orchid had been arranged. The tulle yoke of her lace bodice was finished with a Peter Pan collar of lace and the lace extended in four points to form an overskirt for the billowing tulle skirt. The floor length gown was made over bridal satin. Appliqued flowers from the lace pattern adorned the sweetheart headpiece which held her illusion veil.

Her twin, Muriel Leonard, was her honor attendant. Donna Galloway, cousin of the bride, and Linda Neal were bridesmaids. All three wore identical gowns of shell pink crystaletta, and picture hats.

Ellen Kaye Born and Barbara Galloway wore white crystaletta dresses, accented in pink, as they lighted the candles before the 8 o'clock nuptials.

Wayne Leonard, brother of the bride, was one of the four ushers.

The bridegroom, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Richards, of Knoxville, Tenn., had asked, E. E. McIntosh to be his best man.

Chinese lantern lighted the garden at the home of the bride's parents, 3209 Locust Street, where the wedding guests later gathered for the reception.

The bride's grandfather, A. W. Leonard, and her uncle, Ray Leonard, from Murray and her great aunt, Mrs. Margaret Mas-on of Paola, Kans., attended the wedding.

The newlyweds left amid a shower of rice to spend their honeymoon at Catalina Island. After September 1st, they will make their home at 3165 Blossom Street, Riverside.

Both young people are graduates of Plytechnic High School and will be sophomores at Riverside College this year. The bride as an education major and the bridegroom as a business major. They plan to complete their educations at UCLA.

The bride will be well remembered here in Cass County, having lived on a farm west of Murray with her parents.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. William Hendrickson of Council Bluffs, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. R. Schwedinger of Omaha; Mr. M. Price and Mr. and Mrs. and Mrs. Rasmus Jensen and daughter, Levent Kans.; Mrs. Ever Bangarrd, Lincoln, Kans.; and immediate relatives of Plattsmouth.

Reade Family Tour Coast-Daughter Flew To Germany

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reade and son, Robert, have returned home from an extensive trip spent in the East.

The Reade family were accompanied to the coast by their daughter, Alice, son-in-law and grandchildren, Lieutenant and Mrs. Carl Olson, Michael Robert and Debra Ann. Lt. Olson and his family flew to Frankfurt Germany, August 27 where he will be stationed near Frankfurt with the 8th Division Artillery.

Upon the departure of the Olson family the Reade's continued their sight seeing trip, which included Valley Forge; a cruise to Manhattan Island; Empire State Building; the Wall Street area; Times Square and the United Nations Building in New York.

They visited the Arlington Cemetery where they saw the changing of guards; Mount Vernon and many other interesting spots in Philadelphia and Washington, D. C.

Enroute home they made a stop at Columbus, Ohio, where they visited the old State Blind School, a place given to the state by Mrs. Reade's great grandfather. He had been a bricklayer and built the building. However, a new school has been built in the suburban area, and the old school is no longer in use.

Mrs. Reade teaches at the Nebraska School for the Deaf at Omaha, which proves that a natural instinct for helping the disabled has been handed down through the generation.

Pink-Meisinger Nuptials Were Solemnized At Catholic Church

Mrs. Merle Dean Meisinger

—Chriswiser-Constable Studio

St. John's Catholic Church of Plattsmouth was the scene of a beautiful wedding on Saturday, August 25, when Miss Joan Marguerite Pink, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Troop, and Merle Dean Meisinger, son of Mrs. Dorothy Meisinger, all of Plattsmouth, were married in a double ring ceremony.

The 9:30 morning ceremony was performed by Rt. Rev. Monsignor Pruzdzik. The altar of the church was decorated with bouquets of white and pink gladioli.

Sister Annaleta was organist during the ceremony.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her stepfather, George Troop, who gave her in marriage. She wore a gown of chantilly lace and tulle over satin. The snug bodice featured a high collar of lace scallops and long fitted sleeves which came to a point over the hand. Inset bands of lace were featured in a full skirt which ended in a whisper train. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a lace covered cap. She carried a prayer book covered with white gladioli and lilies of the valley.

Miss Beverly Meisinger, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. She wore a floor length gown of shrimp lace and tulle and a matching tiara. Pink gladioli made up her colonial bouquet.

Stewart Gray of Plattsmouth served as best man.

Ushers were Lowell Holmes of Omaha and Albert Johnson of Plattsmouth.

The bride's mother wore a sage gray taffeta dress with white accessories and a white gladioli corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at St. John's Hall with Mrs.

Dedication Sunday Of New School

Monsignor Rev. Joseph Pruzdzik, pastor of St. John's church, read a letter from Bishop Louis B. Kucera, of the Lincoln diocese, extending congratulations to the people of Plattsmouth on their attainment of their new school and for the spirit that had inspired them in their work.

Monsignor Pruzdzik, also, addressed the large group with an inspiring message for their great efforts and for the carrying on of the work in the future.

Following the processional back to the rectory, Monsignor O'Brien gave the Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament at the St. John's Church.

The afternoon was closed with tours of the new school building by friends of St. John's, with members of the church organizations assisting, pointing out the many modern features that make this one of the finest parochial schools in this part of the west.

Among members of the clergy attending were: Msgr. Francis O'Brien, Lincoln; Msgr. Thomas Kelly, Lincoln; Msgr. Joseph Tupey, Plattsmouth; Msgr. Henry Ingelhorst, Nebraska City; Msgr. Walter Potocki, Nebraska City; Msgr. George Agius, D. D. JC, Plattsmouth; Msgr. J. Murray, Lincoln; Msgr. Adam Schmidt, Osceola; Father C. E. Smith, Nebraska City; Father Clarence Stern, Ashland; Rev. R. B. Schmidt, Nebraska City; Rev. Father D. Gavent, Palmyra; Father Joseph Herber, Nebraska City; Father Daniel D. Kelly, Lincoln; Father John Kelly, Lincoln; Father John S. Lescaenc, Lincoln; Father Richard Steinman, Nebraska City; and Father E. C. McFadden, Syracuse.
