

Louisville Has 329 In School Now

Mrs. Elmore Saltmarsh
Tel. 3011
With a grade school enrollment of 210 and 119 in High School, Louisville school system is in full swing again despite the inconvenience of the burned grade building. The kindergarten and third grades are being housed in the Methodist Church basement, where work is now underway on a new exit of the east.

Twenty-seven boys reported for football practice under direction of Ernest Lee.

On August 30, the Louisville Pep Club held its first meeting with 53 girls joining this year.

Marilyn Koop will be president this year. Vice-president will be Barbara Bourelle; secretary, Janet Wright, treasurer Patty Gess. Myra Reichart will be concession chairman and she will have Judy Herbic and Bonnie McGrew as her assistants.

On October 5, the Pep Club and L. Clubs are combining in plans for a Homecoming celebration and game.

The club plan a busy year with practice for drills at basketball games, a club party, and the general promotion of school spirit.

This year the four cheerleaders will be Margie and Mary Wiesneth, Elizabeth Bogard, and Pauline Workman.

Using as her topic "How Real is the Kingdom to Us," Mrs. Helen Doerman led the worship service for the WSCS on Thursday in the Methodist church parlors.

Mrs. Amelung gave a report of the School of Missions that she had attended in Lincoln.

A report was given on the well attended chicken supper the society and guild had given. The program on "Four Years of Growing Time" was given by Mrs. Bedella Stander and Mrs. Maud Lesan and Mrs. Bernice Pankonin served refreshments.

Miss Jean Wright, student nurse at Immanuel Hospital, and daughter of the P. L. Wrights, had the misfortune of being involved in an accident near Ogallala on Tuesday in which a Judge's wife, who was an occupant of another car, was fatally injured.

Several people from Louisville have been attending the State Fair at Lincoln. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Shyrock and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. E.

W. Saltmarsh and family, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Hutchinson and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Myers and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hennings and family.

Return Home From Trip To West Coast

Mrs. Dudley Leavitt
Tel. 42447

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fleishman returned September 1st from a four week trip to the Pacific Coast, including Victoria, B. C.

They left here by auto on August 3rd and first visited their son, Bruce Fleishman and family at Gillette, Wyo. While there they attended the wedding of Dale Fleishman, a grandson.

They continued on via Yellowstone National Park to Sandy, Ore., where they visited Veri Fleishman and family. While at Sandy they attended a picnic where there were several former Elmwood families.

Veri Fleishman's sister, Wanda Kuehn and her family also live at Sandy, Ore., having moved there around the first of this year.

Their next stop was at Madras, Ore., where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Ray Warren, then the two families motored to Olympia, Wash., and crossed the Puget Sound by Ferry into Victoria, B. C. They returned to Madras, and Mrs. Warren continued with the Fleishman's as far as Craig, Colorado, where all visited with Mrs. Ralph Reeve. This was the first reunion of the three sisters, Mrs. Charles Fleishman, Mrs. Ray Warren, and Mrs. Ralph Reeve, in ten years. They also visited with the four daughters of Mrs. Reeve and their families, three of them live near by or in Craig.

Mrs. Robert Holder, the former Emily Reeve, and her son, Mark, were visiting Mrs. Reeve, and they enjoyed their visit with her, as her home is in Tenn., and not often seen at home.

They continued on to Cheyenne Wyo., where they visited a daughter, and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Taylor, and returned home from there, completing a very pleasant trip as to weather, and with no mishaps.

PRE-SCHOOL PICNIC
The Elmwood PTA sponsored the pre-school picnic this year, held on Tuesday evening, September 4th, at the Community Building. It was to have been held in the Elmwood Park as formerly but owing to the coolness of weather and the threatening skies it was changed at noon that day.

The indoor setting enabled the arrangement of special tables for the school board and the teachers and their families. There were about 175 attended. It was reported, and four serving lines formed for all to participate in the picnic meal.

At the conclusion of the dinner, Ted Hall, president of the PTA introduced the school board Howard Pool, chairman, other members Dwight Clements, Will Hansen, Dr. Glen Knosp and Myrl Miller.

The teachers were then introduced, Clarence Soucheck, superintendent, Mrs. Ruth Godbey, principal; Mrs. Eleanor Adee; Mrs. Robert Ebers; Dald Vandeford, Coach; and Mrs. Jess Stock constituted the High School staff. The kindergarten teacher, Mrs. Virginia Peining was not present; others introduced were Mrs. Dorris Parriott, second and third grade teacher; Mrs. Bessie Soucheck, third and fourth; Mrs. Ruth Cline, fifth and sixth, and Mrs. Alta Burd, seventh and eighth grades.

As each teacher was introduced at the Public Address system, Bud Clements interviewed them, and they also gave their response. This created much merriment. The Fairview 4-H "Old Maid Rhythmettes" sang one of the songs they sang at the Share the Fun Contest "Open up Your Heart," which they dedicated to Bud Clements.

This welcome to the returning teachers and to the new teachers was a decided improvement this year, as all were able to see and hear the teachers. Also had an opportunity to talk to them personally. Many parents and their families as well as other interested citizens were in attendance. The efforts of Sanford Clements as Chairman of the hospitality committee was well rewarded in the enjoyment furnished to all, and the welcome given.

STATE FAIR AWARDS
Marilyn Mendenhall received a purple ribbon on her Pendleton plain tailored outfit, modeled in the Style Revue at the Nebraska State Fair, held in Lincoln, September 1st to 7th. She had received a purple ribbon on this outfit at the Cass County Fair, which entitled her to enter the State Fair Revue.

Other awards received by members of the Fairview Farmerette 4-H Club were as follows: Jolene Spohn received a purple ribbon on her frozen food meal; blue ribbon on three varieties of vegetables and red
