

Oak Leaf Extension Club Elects Officers

The October meeting of the Oak Leaf Extension Club took place at the home of Mrs. Gardner Hamilton with ten members in attendance.

The meeting was opened by all reading the club creed and club collect and giving the pledge to the flag.

For the music period "Coming Through the Rye" was sung in unison.

New officers were elected with the results as follows: President, Mrs. Wayne Dash-er; vice president, Mrs. Frank Nickles; secretary, Mrs. Earl Payton, and treasurer Mrs. Clarence Akeson.

The lesson "preparing furniture for refinishing", was presented.

Lunch was served by the hostesses.

Ray Story Home Scene Of A Pre-Dinner Gathering

A pre-dinner gathering to the Lions Regional meeting of Region 1 of District 38B Tuesday evening was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Story with Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Johnson, assistant hosts.

Those attending were District Governor Neil Sutton and wife of Blair, Mr. and Mrs. Ford Bates of Omaha, Deputy district governor, Mr. and Mrs. Barney Fuller of Centerville, Ia., international director of Lions International and principal speaker for the meeting dinner, Harry Anderson, Omaha, zone 2 chairman and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Schorer of Omaha.

Also J. Emory Nelson of Blair, Mr. and Mrs. John Savage of Omaha, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Krejci of Glenwood, Ia., they with Mr. Story are international counselors.

And Mr. and Mrs. Fred Feldhausen, local president and Cecil Karr, zone 1 chairman.

Journal Want Ads Pay

Rouse Family Will Live In Colorado

Lieutenant and Mrs. Boyd Rouse and son, Bradley Howard, are visiting in Cozad with Mr. Rouse' parents, after spending ten days with Mr. and Mrs. Herman Meisinger at Mynard.

Mr. Rouse has just completed a tour of duty with the Air Force, stationed in Germany.

Mr. and Mrs. Meisinger, parents of Mrs. Rouse, will join the family at Cozad this weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Rouse and son are leaving Monday for Fort Carson, Colo., for his new assignment.

Birthday Party For David Uher

A birthday party was held Saturday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Uher in honor of David Uher's 10th birthday.

The afternoon was spent in playing games and refreshments were served after which the gifts were opened.

Those present were David Uher, John Burch, Louie Eaton, Donnie Lebens, Jim Brink, Jim Bieri, Terry Altschaffl, Tommy Ahrens, Alan Holubeck, John Chuda, Larry Brink and Christine Uher.

Kerns Families Moving To Texas

Breakfast guests Wednesday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Nielsen were Mrs. George Kerns, Mr. and Mrs. Charles V. Kerns and daughter, Tallie Rose.

The Kerns families were enroute from Omaha with their trailer to Bay Town, Texas, where Charles is employed with a construction company.

Mrs. George Kerns will join her husband who is also employed with the same construction company in the south land.

A Classified Ad in The Journal costs as little as 35 cents

New Plymouth Hardtop

The 1957 Plymouth Sport Coupe (hardtop) has a low silhouette, long wheelbase, more powerful Fury 301 engine and revolutionary new Torsion-Aire ride—said to be the most important advancement in automotive design since the introduction of independent front suspensions. Car pictured here is the Belvedere with Sportone trim.

Naomi Circle, WSCS With Mrs. Muncie

Naomi Circle Womens Society Christian Service of the Methodist church met with Mrs. M. Muncie on Thursday afternoon, Mrs. J. E. Wiles was co-hostess.

Mrs. W. L. Heinrich, chairman, opened the meeting by welcoming 15 members and two guests, Mrs. E. S. DeSpain, and Mrs. J. T. Marshall of Greenwood, guest of Mrs. David Rutherford.

Mrs. Lee Eastridge had the devotions in keeping with the Worship Service for the Week of Prayer and Self denial October 25-31. Announcement was made of the Quiet Hour which will be observed by the Society on October 25th at 1:30 p. m., at the church, this worship program is under leadership of Mrs. Fred Fischer, Spiritual Life Secretary for the W. S. C. S.

The lesson was given by Mrs. Darwin Hoover, on Indonesia and the Philippines, taken from the study book "The Church in Southeast Asia." Mrs. H. F. Cecil and Mrs. Rutherford assisted her in the presentation while all joined in the Litany. Mrs. Frank Lillie was appointed secretary pro-tem.

Reports of department secretaries were given. Mrs. J. B. Cook for Christian Social Relations spoke on the World Community Day meeting scheduled for November 2 at the Presbyterian Church in Murray, at which time bundles of clothing for overseas relief will be readied for shipment.

Business items included trip to Crowell Memorial Home at Blair on October 23; final preparation for serving of OES Grand Officers dinner on November 1 and the chicken pie supper and bazaar on November 7 at the church. Opening of bazaar was set for 2 p. m. and chicken pie supper serving to start at five o'clock. Announcement was made that the general WSCS meeting would follow the dinner on November 1 at which time the Gleaners circle is hostess.

Meeting closed with Lord's prayer in unison.

Mrs. J. B. Cook, program chairman, read some poetry and for the games period asked riddles and led in a quiz with Mrs. Fred Bourck the winner. Hostesses Mrs. Muncie and Mrs. Wiles served refreshments.

Next meeting will be with Mrs. Lee Eastridge on November 15.

Friends Honor Bride To Be With A Kitchen Shower

Miss Barbara Bole of Bellevue, fiancée of Harold Wagner, Plattsmouth, was honored at a kitchen shower Tuesday evening.

The party assembled at the home of Mrs. Keith Lugsch with Mrs. Harold Gaines assisting.

The honoree received many useful gifts.

The evening was concluded with a lunch served by the hostesses.

Local Ladies Visit At Crowell Home

Tuesday a group of the ladies from the First Methodist Church of this city drove to Blair where they visited at the Crowell Memorial Home for the aged. This Home is maintained by the Methodist Church of Nebraska.

Members of the visiting party had arranged a delightful program that was much enjoyed, and further pleasure added when the visitors and members of the Home group joined in the singing of old songs and hymns.

Mrs. J. B. Cook made a painting of the home surrounding as part of the entertainment and made a present of the painting to the home.

A fine luncheon was enjoyed a part of which was furnished by the Plattsmouth group.

Those attending from this city were Mrs. Daisy Sherwood, Miss Grace Perry, Mrs. H. B. Perry, and grandchildren, Mrs. J. Howard Davis, Mrs. Catherine Wiles, Mrs. R. B. Keller, Mrs. David Rutherford, Mrs. William Heinrich, Mrs. James Cook and Mrs. R. B. Hayes.

'Children Need Action,' Speaker Tells Audience At PTA Meeting

The parents and teachers in attendance at the Columbian PTA meeting were well informed on the subject "Children Need Action" Tuesday evening.

Gene Zimmerman, Omaha, Field Executive of the Covered Wagon Council of the south district gave an interesting talk on the cub scouting program.

He stressed that Cub Scouting is a family program and parents are the vital link. "Without the parents behind a program, cubbing will not work", Mr. Zimmerman stated.

Mrs. J. Howard Davis, vice president of the board of directors of the Omaha Council of Camp Fire Girls, also regional representative, presented an account of her experience with the Blue Birds. She stated seven

Kids Invited To Hallowe'en Night Party

All children of grade school age of the Plattsmouth community are invited to participate in a community Hallowe'en party the evening of Wednesday Oct. 31 sponsored by the Modern Woodmen of America and the Leperet Wolever Veterans of Foreign Wars and Auxiliary.

The announcement was made by A. C. McLean, past commander of the V. F. W. and general chairman of the party arrangements. McLean said the party will start at 6:30 p. m. at the store building recently occupied by the Hiatt Furniture Co.

All children will line up for the costume parade down Main Street while the costumes will be judged and ribbons and prizes awarded to the best costumes.

Following the costume parade and judging, games will be played at the Hiatt building which promises fun for all. Refreshments will be served and the party will end at 8 p. m.

At 8:30 there will be a drawing of names from the Witches pot which will contain the names of all attending the party. Each of the first five children called and found at home will receive one of the prizes on display at the gas company.

Prizes include a flash bulb camera, a girls train case, and other items. All grade school children are urged to see the prizes in the gas company window and to get their costumes ready for the gala event.

Parents are urged to bring their children to this community affair and to view the costume parade down Main Street.

Clem Woster, local representative of the Modern Woodmen of America Company, stated that Modern Woodmen of America is sponsoring similar costume parties in hundreds of communities in the United States as a part of its program for furthering the general welfare of the youth of the nation, and in conformity with its policy of contributing to local community progress.

City Librarian To Attend State Association Meef

The annual convention of the Nebraska State Library Association will be held in Lincoln, Thursday and Friday October 2-3, with the Lincoln hotel as headquarters for the meeting.

Miss Verna Leonard, city librarian will attend the convention.

Miss Mildred Bachelder, a member of the children's department of the Omaha public library will speak at the afternoon session, Thursday.

Miss Sarah Wallace, Administrative Assistant in charge of public relations and research of the Minneapolis, Minn., public library will be the speaker at the banquet Thursday evening. She is well known for her book "Patrons Are People."

Other speakers will be: Dr. Stuart Baile of the University of Denver, and Mrs. Gretchen Schenk, Summerdale, Ala.

Frank Lorenz Dies At Home In Des Moines

Funeral services for Frank E. Lorenz were held Wednesday at St. Augustine Church, Des Moines, Iowa, of which church he had been a member.

He was born in 1886 at Wilbur, Nebraska, and for several years was a resident of Plattsmouth. He has spent the greater part of his lifetime in Iowa, being a resident of Sheldon, Iowa, for three years, but for the past thirty-eight years has resided at Des Moines. He has been engaged in the real estate business in the Iowa city for the past twenty years.

He was a member of the Roman Catholic Church and of the Dowling Club in that city.

He has been ill for the past two weeks at the Mercy hospital in Des Moines.

Survivors are the widow, Anna Des Moines; two sons, Anthony of Iowa City and Frank R. of Rocky River, Ohio. Lieutenant Edward J. Lorenz preceded him in death in 1944. Two brothers also survived his passing, Emil of Plattsmouth and Joseph of Crete, also seven grandchildren.

Attending the funeral from Plattsmouth were Mr. and Mrs. John Hobscheidt and son, Frank, Mrs. James Worsham, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Lorenz.

Funeral Of Aged Lady Held At Avoca

Funeral services were held today (Thursday) at the Congregational church at Avoca (or Cora Bell Tower, 85, who died on Sunday at the home of a daughter at Wabash.

Services were conducted by Rev. A. E. Aeschbacher, pastor of the church. Burial was at the Avoca cemetery. The Hobson funeral home of Weeping Water had charge of the services.

Survivors are four daughters, Mrs. Albert Thiel, Wabash; Mrs. W. E. Heir, Elmwood; Mrs. William Freeman and Mrs. Myrtle Loveless, Los Angeles; a brother, Alfred of Council Bluffs and a sister, Mrs. R. Smoots, of Palisade.

Senior Class At Weeping Water Selects Play Cast

The senior class of Weeping Water High School has chosen their class play which will be given the evenings of November 19th and 20th at the school auditorium. Truman Lytle will coach the play and has selected the following cast for the "Accidental Hero". This is a clever three act farce within a farce "Accidental Hero".

The cast: Jerry-Ticket chairman, who fancies himself as an artist, Warren Johnson; Jim-inclined to boss, assigned as Prompter, Charles Murphy; Bob-short and jolly, he plays "Little Brother"; Dale Nielsen; Joe-Assistant Stage Manager, likes girls, Jack Friesel; Jean-a practical girl, assistant with tickets, Doris Baier; Kitty-who has to contend with her father's whims, Evelyn Wiles; Kathryn-afraid to act, but a reliable Property Manager, Kathryn Plumkett; Gertrude, too sophisticated for the part of "scrub woman"; Yvonne Domingo; Peggy-sport enthusiast, doubtful of her "Grandmother" role, Jean Domingo.

And Marilyn- quite a talker, should do the "Gossipy Neighbor", Mary Nichols; Eugene-efficient Stage Manager, with Harold on his hands, Bob Colbert; Harold-all-too-faithful bell ringer and Electrician, Gerald Terry; Helen-reporter for the school Bugle, Henrietta Wade; John-dreamer and inventor, the unwilling "Star", John Tyler-Miss Smith- young, attractive, and very serious "Coach", Roberta Knaup; Mr. Wheat-school principal, with "Grease-paint" longings, Bob Anderson.

Also Mr. Change- newspaper reporter with the "Coach" on his mind, Raymond Jensen; Mrs. Johnson-mother and ardent admirer of Gertrude, Lois Hauschild; Mrs. Witt and Mrs. Gabbzealous P. T. A. members, Nomi Compton and Sarah Lorenzen; Jonesy and Smithy-happy furniture haulers, Kenneth Lauritzen and Kenneth Hauschild and Mr. Snell-Kitty's father, stern candidate for the School Board, Jim Colbert.

Cass County Salon 8 & 40 Meeting

Cass County Salon No. 441 Eight and Forty, held their regular Marche, Monday evening in the lounge of the 40&8 club rooms. Chapeau Elsie McClinton presiding.

Child Welfare Chairman Helen Vroman read a letter from Philip Hautz, secretary of the National Jewish hospital in Denver, thanking the salon for their check, that provided meat, vegetables and fruit to all the TB patients for one day.

Mrs. Vroman will send treats to the children in the Kearney T B hospital for Hallowe'en. The unit will make yard dolls to be sent to patients in both hospitals for Christmas.

Cass county TB Seal Chairman Mary Gobelmann announced the files are being brought up to date and the members will meet at her home to stuff envelopes for mailing.

Partnership Chairman Mollie Gobelmann read three letters of recommendation on names presented for membership, these ladies will be invited to membership in the salon.

The salon moved to send $25 to the national hospital toward a bed fund, each year a bed is given by the salon's of the state.

A standing vote of thanks was given Sophia Wolever for her work on the year books.

At the close of the meeting, games were played with prizes going to Ethel Strabel, Elva Inman, Sophia Wolever, Marguerite Streeter, Vera Wurga, Mary Nelson, Alpha Muncie, Helen Vroman and Mollie Gobelmann.

Hallowe'en decorations were used on the tables, refreshments were served by Mrs. McClintock and Mrs. Schiber.

Cass County's Greatest Newspaper The Plattsmouth Journal

Cass County Republican Banquet

MURDOCK GYM.
Thursday, Nov. 1st 1956 - 7:15 P. M.

$1.50 Per Plate

Marriage Licenses Issued 5 Couples By County Court

Five marriage licenses were issued by Cass County Court during the past week, records disclose.

Duane Eugene Hofker, 24, Weeping Water and Clarissa Irene Storer, 29, Nebraska City, were issued a license October 17 and married the same day by County Judge Raymond J. Case. Witnesses were Mrs. Greedus Hofker and Mrs. Estella Rutherford.

Larry Leroy Wade, 19, Weeping Water, to Donna Lee Doebble, 19, Elmwood, issued October 19. They were married October 20 by Rev. James P. Hennessy, Manley. Witnesses were Dudley D. and Shara Doebble.

Leo Phillips, 21, and Elaine Kirchner, 16, both of Omaha, were issued a license and married by Judge Case on October 19. Milo McDowell and Miss Thelma Kruger were witnesses. Wilmer Adolph Jensen, 33, Lincoln, and Carole Regina Shoshan, 19, were issued a license October 19.

Joe Allen Baker, 21, Tom, Okla., and Lel Mae Heard, 20, Omaha, were issued a license October 20.

Lutheran Reformation Festival On Sunday

A Reformation rally will be held at the Civic Auditorium Music Hall in Omaha on Sunday October 28, at 10:30 a. m. This Rally will be sponsored by 21 Churches affiliated with the Lutheran Church-Mo. Synod in the Omaha area.

The guest speaker for this occasion is the Rev. Alfred Sauer, Ph.D. of Concordia Seminary, St. Louis, Mo. Dr. Sauer is professor of Hebrew and Old Testament Interpretation.

Music will be presented by a 100 voice childrens choir under the direction of Mr. Eugene Kruse of St. Pauls Lutheran School, Omaha.

live in a cloud of fragrance

new Houbigant Chantilly SPRAY MIST $3.25 plus tax

"the perfect way to apply fragrance..."

— just press the button and you will be surrounded with the unforgettable, long lasting fragrance of Chantilly. Spray Mist gives you the maximum in fragrance value for only $3.25 plus tax.

CASS DRUG
WALGREEN AGENCY
Phone 289

ask the girl who wears one

Car Coats

are wonderful

Girls who lead active lives, who know good fashion and appreciate practical styling are the girls who buy and wear car coats.

And they buy them here for most quality, value.

Corduroy car coat, revved up with pretty details, quilted lining. As seen in "Seventeen" $12.99

Toggle fastened all-wool car coat with hood to wear up or down. Pile Lined. $24.75

O'CONNELL'S
EVERYDAY LOW PRICES

THE SPIRIT OF HALLOWEEN

Plastic Pumpkins
With Flashlight Bulb and Battery.

TWO SIZES 59c & 79c
PAPER MACHE LANTERNS 25c & 59c

MASKS Gauze Masks 10c
Domino Masks, 5c - 10c - 25c
Rubber Masks 10c - 25c - 39c - & 47c

COSTUMES $1.19 - $2.19 - $2.98

HALLOWE'EN WHISKERS 49c	HALLOWE'EN WIGS 69c & 98c
WITCH HATS 25c	PARTY HATS 25c to 69c

BLOW-OUTS, NOISEMAKERS, CUT-OUTS, NUT CUPS, TABLE DECORATIONS

GET IN THE HALLOWE'EN SPIRIT AT 5c-10c STIBALS $1.00&up

All Your Clothes will Look and Feel "Store-New"

With Our Exclusive Sta-Nu PROCESS

STA*NU is the nationally advertised dry cleaner's process that replaces vital textile finishing agents. Fabrics look newer, feel softer... colors sparkle with new life. What's more, STA*NU helps your garments resist wrinkling and soiling.

You'll be amazed at the difference!

Sta-Nu COSTS YOU NOTHING EXTRA!

LUGSCH CLEANERS
AND LAUNDERERS

429 Main Phone 230