

Elmwood Has Hallowe'en For UNICEF

Mrs. Ted Hall, Mrs. Lester Rosenow and Mrs. Skyle Miller, Jr., all Sunday School Jr. Superintendents; also their Sunday School teachers and helpers appreciate the co-operation of the parents, and the generous response of the Elmwood people in making this part a success.

The collection will be sent to UBICEF, the United Nations Children's Fund, to help ward off the ghosts of hunger, disease and suffering for all the children of the world. Every cent given is at least matched and many times doubled by the country receiving aid.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Bornemeier for Sunday dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Merle R. Buell, Ken and Mark; Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Holscher, Nancy and Chris, all of Syracuse.

Mrs. Buell is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Bornemeier. In the afternoon, the Buells and Holscher attended the open house at the Lincoln Air Force Base, while Mr. and Mrs. Bornemeier and their grandson, Mark called on Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Hardaway in their new home in Elmwood.

Mrs. Melvin Miller entertained a few of her neighbors at a coffee hour, Saturday, honoring Mrs. Paul Brown who has been visiting in Elmwood for the past week. Her home is in Arlington, Va.
