Proceeds Of Fun Night Boosts PTA Fund At Columbian

Give them a spiritual heritage was the theme of the Columbian Parent-Teachers Association meeting.

The meeting opened with a flag salute.
Fun Night which was held Nov. 17 brought in a gross of $225 making it a successful event of the year.

Mrs. D. K. Rhoden was appointed paper drive chairman.

A calling committee was also named.

The executive committee's proposed budget was approved which included one honorary state life membership that goes into a fund for teachers.

The meeting adjourned and Miss George led the group in song in her usual intimated fashion. She also favored the group with a solo, "Our Town."

Mrs. Green, program chairman, spoke on book week and vice for children.

Reverend Delap of the Presbyterian Church showed a film "As The Twig Is Bent", which proved enjoyable to the group.

A horn of plenty centered the serving table where cup cakes, coffee and hot chocolate were served by the morning Kinder-stressed our free library sergarten mothers.

Baby sitters offering their services during the business meeting were Garalyn Ruse, Bonnie Way and Ruth Horn.
