FHA Officers Are Installed For New Year

WEeping WATER (Special) The Plattsmouth chapter of the F. H. A. initiated and formally installed officers of the Weeping Water F. H. A. Monday afternoon in the school auditorium.

The candlelight ceremony was conducted by Plattsmouth president, Sharon Rame. The table was covered with a white cloth. In the center was a large arrangement of red roses, flower of the organization.

A lighted red candle, also in the center, represented the flame of Home Economics. Four white candles on each side were lighted from the center candle as Plattsmouth officers gave each of the eight purposes of the F. H. A.

Officers installed were: Myrna Van Horn, president; Marlene Noble, vice-president; Mary Ellen Schroeder, minutes secretary; Toni Lee Low, correspondence secretary; Juanita Nichols, treasurer; Velda Lee and Karen Eidenmiller, historians; Rae Rhodes and Karen Mathers, news reporters; Leola Harter, parliamentarian, and Linda Parson, librarian.

Following the installation of each officer Miss Rame pinned a red ribbon each to signify her membership.

Weeping Water Chapter mothers are: Mrs. Ed Van Horn, Mrs. Frank Mitchess and Mrs. Martha Rhodes, and the honor- Arnold Schliefer.

Miss Van Horn gave a short talk after which everyone present enjoyed a tea in the home-making room. The lunch was prepared by the home-making class.

Room decorations were by Homemaking II class. On display were Christmas packages, wrapped by Homemaking I class during their gift wrapping unit.
 During the tea a red rose was given to each member of the Weeping Water and Plattsmouth chapters by Miss Van Horn. Miss Van Nostrand, Plattsmouth homemaking teacher and F. H. A. advisor and Mrs. Maynard Rame, Plattsmouth chapter, also received roses.
