Alvin L. Todd, Cass Pioneer, Is Dead At 85

Alvin L. Todd, 85, member of one of the territorial families of Cass County, died early Tuesday morning at Bryan Memorial Hospital, Lincoln.

Mr. Todd, a resident of Greenwood, had been at the hospital for a week being taken there following an accident at his home, that resulted in a fractured hip.

Mr. Todd was born west of Plattsouth on March 22, 1871, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Todd, settlers here in territorial days. He spent his youth in this vicinity, being engaged in farming for the greater part of his lifetime.

He was one of the best known residents of the territory northwest of this city where his farming interests were located. In 1920 he moved west to the vicinity of Greenwood, where he has since resided and continued his farming activities as long as his health permitted.

Surviving are one son, Chester Todd, Greenwood; one daughter, Mrs. Emil Meisinger of Greenwood; seven granddaughters and one grandson; one brother, Russell Todd, of South Gate, Calif.

Funeral services were held this (Thursday) afternoon at 1:30 at the Marcy funeral chapel at Ashland. The service at the chapel were conducted by Rev. Buckley, pastor of the First Methodist church.

The body was brought to Plattsouth for interment at Oak Hill cemetery in the family plot.
