

Eagle Polio Clinic Attracts Many Persons For Injections

EAGLE (Special)—The Community Club met on Wednesday evening. The serving committee was Mr. and Mrs. Ray Reynolds and Mr. and Mrs. George Althouse.

The election of officers was the highlight of the business meeting, electing Melvin Adonis, President. Mrs. Doyle Gump, Secretary and board of directors, John Ronhoo and Sherman Henriksen.

The club sponsored the polio clinic on last Tuesday morning assisted by Dr. Glen Knosp, of Elmwood, doctor in charge, and Mmes Lester Donlan, Orville Schmieding, Ward Hansen of Eagle (registered nurses) and Mrs. Ralph Dreamer of Alvo, also an R. N.

The typists assisting were Verna Habel, Annabelle Trumble, Marion Gump, and Elnora Erskine. Others assisting were Anna Root, Olive Westlake, Ula Westlake, Lucille Westlake, Berdena Adams, Annabelle Althouse, Sherman and Aletha Henriksen. The next clinic will be Feb. 19 with the same nominal sum, 40 cents, children and $1.40, adults.

The number of persons receiving the shots were designated as follows: 256 were given which included 65 children and 125 adults for first shot, two children and three adults for second shots, thirty-three children and three adults for third shot.

One child was given the booster or fourth shot having been given the shots in Lancaster County previously, therefore, classed in the Pioneer group, or in the experimental stage of vaccine. The Eagle community club is very happy and pleased with the successful response and for the help.

Eagle Folks Attend Lincoln Wedding Fete

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Underwood were dinner guests of Mrs. Underwood's sister and husband Mr. and Mrs. William Pruessing at Lincoln, Sunday honoring the guests 31st wedding anniversary. On Thursday evening, they were supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Orin Lanning, for the observance of Jan. 25th, 1926.

Mrs. O. E. Underwood and Mrs. Orin Lanning were guests of Mrs. William Pruessing at the latter's circle of Methodist Women's Society of Christian Service meeting at Lincoln Wednesday afternoon. At that time they were privileged to see Mrs. Walter Jackson, who belongs to the same circle as Mrs. Pruessing. Mrs. Jackson is the Rev. Jackson's wife, former pastor and residents of Eagle.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold French, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Scattergood of Eagle, attended the Flock Owners Education meeting at the Hill Hatchery at Lincoln on Monday. The guests were served turkey sandwiches baked beans, coffee and dessert.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Muenchau are the proud parents of a baby boy, 6 pounds and 7 ounces, born Tuesday, Jan. 22 at the Lincoln General Hospital. Both mother and baby are doing fine, to remain at the hospital until the end of next week.

Mrs. Carrie Schmidt who is visiting in California writes home, "She's really having a wonderful time." At the present she's at her son's, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Beach home at Sacramento. She has visited the Raymond Beach family and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Borgman, previously in northern California.

Paula French observed a belated birthday gala on last Saturday evening when her little classmate and friend, Terry Albright, of Walton was an overnight guest and also same date for ninth birthday. They attended the Eagle vs Walton game on Saturday evening.

Jeanine and Jenelle Muenchau daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Muenchau, spent last weekend at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Meyers at Staplehurst.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Page spent last weekend at Nebraska City visiting Mrs. Page's sister-in-law, Mrs. Rosa Ruge. Mr. Page returned home on Sunday evening, but Mrs. Page remained a few days for dental attention at that city, returning home Tuesday.

The Eagle Methodist Church trustees met at church Wednesday evening and plans were made to begin repair on the church assembly room and vestibule Monday, Jan. 29. Everyone is urged to participate in the repair.

All folks were interested in getting the work done, before farm work begins.

To make the work lighter for all, more helpers are needed. Call the pastor 86 or C. G. Anderson 8303 if care to assist and join the group to complete the undertaking of this project. Rev. Hackman and family, who has been pastor of the Immanuel Lutheran Church, moved to Seward on Monday where he will be an instructor in the parochial school at that city. The pastor's sister from Chappell, assisted in the moving, having spent several days at the Hackman home.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Schmieding of Gresham, visited their son, Superintendent and Mrs. Orville Schmieding on Friday evening. Miss Norma Jean Schmieding (Nebraska Wesleyan student) visited at the brother's home on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kennedy of Grand Island and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wade and family of Lincoln enjoyed a visit and dinner at the home of Mrs. Kennedy's parents, and Mrs. Wade's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Smith Sunday.

Word from the Fred Muenchau's visiting in California. They're enjoying themselves at LaMesa and San Diego and plan to go to their son, Master Sergeant and Mrs. Eugene Muenchau and family up near Los Angeles in February. They plan to return home about April 1.

Michael Heavey, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Heavey of Lincoln, spent a few days at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wulf last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Valjean Stall and son, Genie were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Kotas at Davenport Sunday honoring the birthday of Mrs. Stall, occurring on Jan. 23.

Mrs. Kotas was a classmate and sorority sister of Mrs. Stall while attending the University of Nebraska.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. Stall was happily surprised and also reminded of her birthday when Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Oelerking and family of Alvo, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Reinke and son of Elmwood and Mr. and Mrs. Kenney Stickney of near Unadilla brought homemade ice cream and cake and spent the evening playing cards.

On Wednesday, Mrs. Valjean Stall substituted teaching at Murdock Schools in 5th and 6th grades. She enjoyed the day very much, having taught the same pupils in grades 3 and 4 prior to her marriage a couple of years ago. Mrs. Charles Backemeyer (Janice Miller) of Elmwood also substituted the same day in 3rd and 4th grades having also taught in Murdock prior to marriage.

The Eagle Methodist family night and fellowship hour will be Sunday evening, Feb. 3, at 6:30. A basket supper followed by a special entertainment from the Goodwill Industries, with films and personnel. Plan to be present.

The Eagle Methodist Church is sponsoring a special entertainment the proceeds to be used for church repairs. The barber-shop quartette chorus from Lincoln and the Eagle Home quartette which also participates with the chorus for its special occasions. Further details in next issue.

Father-Son Banquet Held In Elmwood

ELMWOOD (Special) — The father and sons banquet of the St. Paul E. U. B. Church, given in church parlors, Wednesday, Jan. 24, had as the theme "Pala" which was carried out in their decorations. A little booklet with a pocket in front, containing a man's handkerchief, colors of booklet black and pink. This was the favor.

Toastmaster was Keith Borne-meier who presented the speaker of the evening, Charles Marshall, who gave his talk the title of Transfer; which gave many illustrations how the father transfers his ideas to his son for his guidance and education in Life.

Junior Oehlerking gave the toast to dads; and Lester Rose-nov the toast to sons. The St. Paul E. U. B. quartette sang a number. A trumpet trio from Murdock played "My Papa" Members were Dick Rueter, Rolland Stock and Melvin Leut-chens.

Gerald Frodenburg gave a reading: "The Boy and his Dog." Awards were given to the oldest great-grandfather present, which was won by August Borne-meier. Two awards to youngest sons; and Sanford Clements was awarded prize as being father of most sons, four sons.

Ninety-six dinners were served, and all enjoyed the fine ham dinner, which included baked beans, mashed potatoes and gravy, moulded jello salad, hot rolls, cherry pie and coffee.
