

Cass County Salon 8 et 40 Meets With Mrs. Don Warga

Cass County Salon No. 441, Eight and Forty held their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Don Warga, Coronado Apartments Monday evening. Chapeau Mrs. John Schutz presided over the business meeting. Child Welfare Chairman, Mrs. E. O. Vroman, read the letter from Phillip Houtz, director of the National Jewish Hospital, thanking the Salon for the $10 sent the Hospital at Christmas time. Also a letter from Catherine Minor, rehabilitation director of the Kearney Tuberculosis Hospital, telling of the Hospital's Christmas party and thanking the Salon members for the gifts sent to each of the children at that time.

Death Of Mrs. Thelma Marie Johnson At Omaha

Mrs. Thelma Marie Johnson, 45, of Palmer, Neb., mother of Albert L. Johnson of this city, died Thursday, Jan. 31, at Omaha, where she has been under treatment. The body was brought here to the Sattler Funeral Home and later taken to Palmer, for funeral services held today.

The deceased lady was born June 8, 1911, at St. Paul. She was married on Sept. 1, 1928, at Norton, Kans., to Albert C. Johnson, who with eight children and her mother, Mrs. Ethel Robinson, Omaha, survive her passing. The deceased lady was quite active in the VFW Auxiliary while at Palmer. At the time of her death, she was owner of a cafe at Palmer.

Cass Theatre

Plattsmouth
Last Times Mon. & Tues.
Feb. 4-5
IN HER ARMS... HE BECAME A MAN!
Tea and Sympathy
CINEMASCOPE METROCOLOR
Deborah Kerr • John Kerr
with the stars who created the original stage success that run 91 weeks on Broadway!
This is entertainment plus.

Wed. & Thurs., Feb. 6 & 7
James Cagney and Barbara Stanwyck in
"THESE WILDER YEARS"
One of the most dramatic pictures for a long time — will hold you spellbound!
Also Cartoon & Novelty

The Salon voted to send $10 to the Jewish Hospital for a memorial party, in memory of the Salon's Eighth Anniversary. Mrs. Vroman will send valentines to the hospitals for Valentine Day.

A letter from the Department Chapeau issued a call to all partners to attend the mid-winter Marche to be held at the Pathfinder Hotel in North Platte, Friday, Feb. 15. The meeting will begin at 9 a. m., with the banquet to be held at 6:30.

Five dollars was voted to be sent to the March of Dimes Drive Fund.

Following the business meeting, Mrs. Mollie Gobelman conducted the games. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Robert Cappel, Mrs. E. O. Vroman, Mrs. Richard Streeter, Mrs. John Schutz, Mrs. Mary Nelson, Mrs. W. D. Fitzpatrick and Mrs. Albert Inman.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Don Warga assisted by Mrs. Mollie Gobelman. Attending the meeting from Louisville were Mrs. Inman, Mrs. Fitzpatrick and Mrs. Streeter.

Cass Countians Receive Degrees From University

Two Cass County residents were among the 296 University of Nebraska students granted degrees at traditional mid-year commencement exercises Saturday morning in Lincoln.

Marion E. Tritsch received the degree of bachelor of science in agriculture while Marilyn J. Lutz receiving the degree of bachelor of science in education.

Mother Of Mrs. Guy Hughson Is Critically Ill

Mrs. Laura McLain, mother of Mrs. Guy Hughson, both of Plattsmouth, has been in the St. Elizabeth Hospital since Wednesday evening as a result of a stroke which damaged the left side of her brain and her complete right side.

She has had trouble breathing and is being given oxygen through the veins. She has been and is in a semi-conscious and is in a very critical condition. She had her 80th birthday last September.

REAL ESTATE LOANS!

5 1/2 Percent Interest Charge Reduced for Each Monthly Payment
Plattsmouth Loan & Building Ass'n.

REFEREE'S S-A-L-E

FEBRUARY 16, 1957
2:00 P. M.

At Greenwood, Nebraska 5 Room House with 2 Big Lots

Containing about 1/2 City Block, Garage, Shed, and Fruit Cellar. Known as Lots 11 and 18 in West Greenwood Addition and the Village of Greenwood, Nebraska also.

1 large vacant lot with a 200 foot front on Highway 6. An ideal business location. Known as Lot 559 in the Village of Greenwood, Nebraska.

TERMS: 15% on day of sale, balance on confirmation. Abstract showing merchantable title furnished.

Francis M. Casey W. L. Dwyer
ATTORNEY REFEREE

Talk of the Town

By Margaret Dingman — Phone 241

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Elsemann were Wednesday evening supper guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. August Wendt in Murdock.

Ernest Elliott is in Columbus today attending a managers' meeting in the interest of Consumers Public Power.

Herman Zierott of Murdock and daughter, Mrs. Ted Stratton, of Greenwood were Plattsmouth shoppers and attending after business matters Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rains and children of Weeping Water were in Plattsmouth Saturday, shopping and visiting. The Rains family moved to a farm near Weeping Water in mid-January.

Missed by his many friends on Main Street the past week was Frank Smith, who has been confined to his room with the flu, at the Nellie Shea residence where he makes his home.

Warren Steinbach of Alamogordo, New Mexico, is visiting in this city with his many friends.

Harold Zierott and family of Murdock were Plattsmouth shoppers Thursday, and while in the city stopped at the Journal office and renewed their subscription.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Tiekotter had as visitors, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Beverage of Mountain Home, Idaho. Mrs. Tiekotter is a sister of Mr. Beverage.

Mrs. Raymond Henry and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Smithson departed for Seadrift, Tex., to join Raymond Henry who is employed in that city.

Mrs. Orville Nielsen spent Wednesday and Thursday in Aurora. Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Nielsen were guests at the Rotary banquet at the country club. The Nielsen family will move to Aurora following the school term, having purchased a business and home in that city.

Mrs. Joe Zastera is visiting this week with her daughter, Mrs. Fred J. Rutt, Jr., in Hastings.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gregg have returned home from California where they visited at Santa Rosa and Los Angeles.

Friday evening supper guests at the Donald Miller home were Larry Buck and Jolene Seivers of Yutan.

Larry Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Smith is confined at home with the flu.

Mr. and Mrs. John O'Hare and daughters have moved into their home in Hillcrest Addition. The family are former residents of this city having resided in Weston the past two years.

Mrs. Helen Woolcott and Mrs. Helen Smith entertained at Sunday dinner for Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Almgren and five children of Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. James E. Warga of Valley View took their 18 year old daughter Maybelle to the Omaha Air Port, Friday afternoon where she left for a vacation in Hawaii on the United Air Lines. She will make a tour of the different islands and places of interest and will also visit her sister, Marilyn, who has resided there for two years.

Trust an Expert's Eye for Watch Repairs

Our skilled and experienced craftsmen will quickly restore your watch to precision time-keeping at modest cost.

Grove Jewelry
505 Main Dial 228

Mr. and Mrs. Les Anderson of Omaha were Saturday and Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Gorton and family.

Mr. and Mrs. John Koop and family and Mr. Harold Peterson and son of Omaha were visitors at the home of Mrs. Glen Valley Sunday.

Mrs. William Nelson has returned home from Lincoln General Hospital where she has been a patient for the past five days taking treatments.

Dr. Burdette, father of Mrs. Ken Weaver, and friend of Centralia, Kans., were visitors at the Ken Weaver home Sunday. Other callers included Mr. and Mrs. John Bill Burdette and family, also of Centralia, Kans.

Carol Dreamer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dreamer, entered St. Catherine's Hospital Sunday evening for surgery.

Wayne Kinney of Alvo was a Plattsmouth business caller Friday.

The picnic of Nebraskans will be held in Bixby Park, Long Beach, Calif., Saturday, Feb. 23. Many former residents of Nebraska enjoy reunion with acquaintances of their younger years in the Cornhusker State. Registration is by counties. Lunches for sale at the park.

Mrs. Earl Shanoltz was admitted to St. Joseph Hospital in Omaha, Sunday for observation.

Miss Helen Neddereip, Central School Principal, visited over the weekend with her parents in Brock.

Sunday dinner guests at the Donald Miller home were Mr. and Mrs. John Miller and Joyce and H. A. Miller of Ashland.

Friends Pay Tributes At Muncie Rite

ELMWOOD (Special) Funeral services were held at the St. Paul Evangelical United Brethren Church, Elmwood, Wednesday, January 30 at 2 p. m. for Lillie Margaret Muenchau. The Rev. T. H. Kampman officiating. Mrs. V. G. (Bud) Clements was soloist with Mrs. Norman Bornemeier, as accompanist. "End of a Perfect Day," and "In the Garden" were the numbers Mrs. Clements sang. Lillie Margaret Muenchau was the daughter of Frederick and Lydia Muenchau, born at Eagle, May 17, 1902, and passed away in Plattsmouth Jan. 28, 1957, at the Masonic Home, where she has been employed since 1952. Her entire life was lived in Cass County. She was baptized in infancy and later joined the St. Paul Evangelical United Brethren Church, Elmwood, and has remained a faithful and devoted member. She was Past Worthy Matron of Ideal Chapter, No. 181 O. E. S. Elmwood. Past Noble Grand of Elmwood Rebekah Lodge; was a member of the Plattsmouth Woman's Club where she served as president. She served as manager and bookkeeper of the Farmer's Co-op Oil Association Elmwood and also bookkeeper for Farmer's Union Elevator of Elmwood, serving in these capacities simultaneously for 23 years. One of her greatest joys in life was in helping others, and she will be greatly missed by all who knew her. She was a devoted daughter, and cared for her parents during their lives, and the same devotion she shared with her brothers. Four brothers survive: William; Fred and Bert of Eagle and Ben of Alvo as well as 22 nieces and nephews and other relatives. Pallbearers were: Edward Muenchau, Keith Muenchau, Orville Muenchau, Muri Muenchau, Morris Muenchau and Harvey Smith. Burial was in Elmwood Cemetery, Clements Mortuary was in charge of service. Many friends paid their last tribute of respect to a loyal friend, and many relatives also paid their tributes to her. Many beautiful floral pieces were expressions of their devotion to her.

Joanne Keeley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Keeley of 508 So. 10th, Plattsmouth, will be among 55 freshmen who will receive their caps at the annual capping ceremony of the Creighton Memorial St. Joseph's Hospital School of Nursing. Exercises will be held Feb. 3, in Our Lady of Victory auditorium at 2:00 p. m. Guest speaker for the occasion will be Rt. Rev. Dan E. Cooper, Presentation Church, Bellwood. The students will receive their caps from Sister Mary Louis, O. S. F. director of nursing. Miss Donna Wright, class sponsor, will present the students. The "Big Sister" of each student will light the candle of the Nightingale Lamp for her "Little Sister." As a group, the freshmen students will take the Nightingale pledge. The freshmen students will begin now to realize their ambition by gaining experience on the nursing divisions of the hospital and by applying the knowledge they learn in their classes at Creighton University and in the School of Nursing. Creighton Memorial St. Joseph Hospital School of Nursing is approved by the Nebraska State Board of Nursing and has full accreditation by the National Accrediting Service of the National League for Nursing. This school offers a three year program in nursing education.

F. I. C. A. TAX Beginning January 1, the rate of contributions for employees and employers to Federal Social Security was raised from 2 per cent to 2 1/4 per cent. This tax, of course, applies only to the first $4,200 of salary or wages earned. For self-employed persons, the Social Security tax moves up from 3 per cent to three and three-eighths per cent. The increased tax will go into a special fund to finance disability benefits recently authorized by Congress.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Davis and sons were Sunday dinner guests of Mrs. Davis' mother, Mrs. W. G. Johnson in Omaha.

Look in the CLASSIFIED First!

Ag Expert Set To Speak In Louisville

Don Wildrich
Tel. 2511

Guest speaker at the Louisville Methodist Church on Feb. 12, at 7:30 p. m. will be Rev. Ulysses S. Gray. He is an agriculture specialist and missionary of the Methodist Church in Liberia Africa. Mr. Gray is on a year's furlough, from mission service and since going to Africa in 1948 has been stationed at Gbarga.

Mr. Gray works among two groups, one called "civilized group" because of their American heritage and the other the "tribal groups" who have clung to old customs and traditions.

The Junior Womens Club sponsored the Mothers March on polo drive Thursday evening, Jan. 31, from 7 to 9 p. m. Anyone who wanted to contribute could put their porch light on and a lady from the Junior Womens Club would stop for it.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Jackson and little daughter, Jean Ann are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Jackson. Mr. Jackson is in the air force and has been stationed at the air base in Denver, Colo. He has a month's leave and then he and his wife and daughter are being transferred to the air force base in Labrador. They will be in Labrador for two years. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Gauer and daughters Nancy and Linda, who have been living on a farm northeast of Louisville, moved to the home they recently purchased. It is the former Carl Burch house.

Ten young people were initiated into the junior division of the local chapter of the Music Masters Society on Tuesday evening. Officers of the junior club are Sandra Doty, president; Beverly Bouelle, secretary; Susan Worthman, historian; and Connie Meisinger, treasurer.

After the instructions in aims or purposes of the society, the candidates were presented with the Tri-M-Key membership emblem and the membership cards. Mr. Schaumburg, chapter sponsor, closed the ceremony by officially recognizing each member, offering his congratulations upon their acceptance into the Society. Initiates included Terry Janusz, Bob Kahland, Jeanine Hub-

Louie Redden Dies At 31 On West Coast

Mrs. George Eledge of this city received a message Saturday evening telling of the death of a brother, Louie Redden, 31, former resident of Plattsmouth and Murray. He was son of Mr. and Mrs. John Redden, Sr., of Omaha, former residents of the Murray community.

Mr. Redden and family formerly resided in Omaha until recently when they moved to the west coast.

The body is being shipped to Omaha where funeral services will be held Friday at the John A. Gentleman Mortuary.

MEAT PRICE RISE

The Agriculture Department has predicted that consumers will pay higher prices for meat this year since total meat production is expected to be less than in 1956, particularly pork. Retail prices on choice beef will stay above 1956 levels throughout the winter and spring and are likely to climb again in the fall, but at a slower rate.

Twice-a-Day Service Plattsmouth to Omaha

Also Bellevue Offutt Field and La-Platte
Plattsmouth Transfer
Plattsmouth 5255
Omaha HA 6733

The Cash you need - Now
Consolidate Bills Pay Taxes
Buy Fuel - Clothing MONEY FOR ALL YOUR WINTER NEEDS
PHONE -- WRITE -- STOP IN American Loan Plan
530 Main Phone 3213
Opposite Soennichsens

bell, Linda Gauer, Nancy Johnson, Janice Siemsen, Judy Hell, Lyle Stohmann, John Stohmann and Judy Funkhouser.

The Modern Music Masters is a national honor society. The selection of the students for membership is strictly on merit basis. Ability and scholarship in both music and academic subjects, cooperation with teachers and fellow students, leadership and service are basic requirements. Louisville now has both a junior and senior chapter in the school.

Parents and friends were guests of the initiation. The seventh grade is publishing a paper called the "Lions Cubs". It is edited by the students under the direction of their teacher, Wendell Graham. The cover was illustrated by Steven Given and featured basketball players. Topics were class news; a column called "Caught in the Act." "Sports

Lites"; Laugh Time and an editorial on Marvels of Every Day Life."

The staff includes Nancy Johnson, editor; Elayne Heard, social editor; Terry Meisinger, sports editor; Judy Dobbs, news editor; Larry Reed, joke editor and Steven Given, artist.

A miscellaneous bridal shower was given for Mrs. Richard Larson at the Methodist Church parlors, Monday evening Jan. 28. The evening was spent playing games.

Mrs. Larson received many beautiful gifts. A delicious lunch was served by the hostesses at the close.

SATTLER
Funeral Home
Dial 3123

If You Like SAVING MONEY You'll Love SHOPPING HERE

Wholesun Frozen
Orange Juice
6 oz. Cans $1.00

Valu
PINK SALMON Pound Can 49¢
Kitchen Charm WAX PAPER 100 Ft. Roll 15¢
Adults Size — Jersey GLOVES 4 Pairs 89¢
Libby's CATSUP 14 oz. Bottle 17¢

Fresh Picnic
PORK ROAST
Pound 25c Hocks Removed

Valu
TOMATOES No. 303 Can 10¢
Maxwell House Instant COFFEE 6 oz. Jar $1.39
Hy Klas TOMATO JUICE 46 oz. Can 23¢
Hy Klas PINEAPPLE JUICE 46 oz. Can 23¢

Campbell's
SOUP
Vegetable Beef Or Chicken Noodle No. 1 Can 15c

Libby's GRAPEFRUIT JUICE 46 oz. Can 23¢
Swanee Cleaning TISSUE 400 Count Pkg. 15¢
Fresh Crisp CARROTS 2 Pkgs. 15¢
California Navel ORANGES Each 2¢
Vista Pak Saltines CRACKERS Pound Box 19¢

RUBACK'S Super Market