

Reports Top WSCS Meet In Elmwood

ELMWOOD (Special) — The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church, Elmwood, met Thursday, March 14, in the Fellowship Room of the church, in spite of the weather—a cold snowy day—there were 32 present to enjoy and take part in the meeting.

President, Mrs. Blanche Kuehn, opened the meeting with the voicing of a prayer, after which Miss Sharon Abrams sang a solo "Just for Today," accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Sydney Moore.

Secretary, Mrs. Emily Gonzales, read the minutes of the last meeting, also the last executive meeting; and correspondance, Treasurer, Mrs. Emmett Cook, gave her report on finances.

Reports of various committees were given. Mrs. Gail McDonally, secretary on mission education, reported on activities in Korean missions. She said it was possible that Korea may be the first evangelical christian nation in Asia, the next 10 years will tell the story.

Mrs. Frank Buell, courtesy chairman, made her report on sick cards, and gifts sent as well as flowers for funerals.

The devotions were given by Mrs. Eric Charling, with the singing of "Rock of Ages," "Does Jesus Care," and "The Old Rugged Cross."

The lesson: The church and the mental health was ably given by Mrs. Bert Reber. She told us mental health was the problem of today; and one out of each 12 children born this year, will be, at some time in their lives, entered in a mental hospital, as a patient. She emphasized the need of prayer personally as well as others, as a christian basis for a cheerful mental attitude.

Current literature was given by Mrs. Earl Horton, as she reviewed the book "The Prophets," by Sherman Ash.

Mrs. Swain Nielsen, secretary of youth work, reported on United Youth Fellowship, also on new plan for Sunday School classes of the Methodist Church being held by youth, no open meeting with other classes.

Mrs. Ted Hall, secretary of children's work, told of having used two film strips in the Children's Society Christian Service, one from the childhood of Jesus, and the other the Life of Jesus. She said on the second showing, questions were asked of children, to determine how much they had remembered of the story, as told by the narrator, Mrs. Earl Horton, when films were first shown. She reported also she plans to have a film on the Resurrection, just before Easter.

Mrs. Nielsen again announced the opening of the classes on the Understanding Series Christian Education, which began March 14 at Elmwood High School. Registration over 100 made so far.

The Lenten offering amounted to $10 it was reported.

Methodist Church service meeting in Lincoln District to be held in Lincoln, April 9-10-11, was announced by President Kuehn. Also March 24, is to be the fourth quarterly conference of the church, with Dr. L. E. Davis, district superintendent preaching that morning at the church, and a basket dinner in the fellowship room at noon.

Mrs. Ted Hall was the only member present who had a birthday in March. Hostesses committee: Miss Alma Clements, chairman; Mrs. Myrl Miller, Mrs. Elmer Hall; Mrs. Ray Parsell; Mrs. C. A. Bronn; Mrs. Ruth Abrams; Mrs. Jay Stanton, and Mrs. Boyd Clements.

Eagle Club Holds Ballot For Officers

Mr. John Fischer Phone 7304

Camp Creek Club members battled the storm on last Thursday afternoon and motored to the home of Mrs. Ted Wilson, five miles east of Elmwood. Mrs. Wilson retained her membership with the club following her move last spring.

All present had a very fine time. During the business meeting conducted by the president, Mrs. William Malone, the club moved and seconded to again contribute $2 to the diabetic camp fund.

A report was given from the recent state report of the many facilities needed and being provided for youngsters.

Mrs. Wenzel gave a book report on "The Eye-Seeing Dog," taken from the January Reader's Digest. Mrs. Wilson served a delicious chicken salad with hot rolls and coffee following the close of the meeting.

Next meeting will be April 11. Camp Creek Club was one of the honor clubs mentioned at Weeping Water and received the gift for its achievements.

O. S. C. Club members met at the home of Mrs. Orin Lanning on last Thursday afternoon with 16 members present. Two visitors, Mmes. Walter Jacobmeier and John Vickers, were present.

During the business meeting, the election of officers was held. Results were: Mrs. Edward Albrecht, president; Mrs. Dale Stall, vice president; Mrs. George Wagner, secretary; and Mrs. Herbert Stoll, treasurer.

Following the business meeting the ladies enjoyed playing cards. Mrs. Henry Umland winning the high score during the afternoon.

A delicious lunch was served by the hostess. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Everett Morton.

Mr. Merl Lanning of Tulsa, Okla., visited his mother, Mrs. Mary Lanning, last weekend.

Mrs. Floyd Althouse was called to Lincoln one day last week and also the previous week, as substitute teacher at Huntington School, in the fourth and fifth grades.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Muench and family of Sioux City, Ia., visited at his parent's home the Mr. and Mrs. William Muench's, last Sunday.

Mrs. Lucy Seeman and Mrs. Clyde West attended the 60th wedding anniversary open house at the Elmwood Methodist Church Sunday afternoon, honoring Rev. and Mrs. W. O. Harrell. The pastor performed the wedding ceremony for the Wests while he was pastor at Eagle, 43 years ago.

The American Legion birthday party was held at the Legion March 15, with a 7 o'clock dinner.

The evening was spent playing cards. Ralph Ransford won high score for men and Mrs. Billy Ketelhut won high score for the women.

The regular meeting of the Legion and Auxiliary will be the first Monday evening of each month. The next meeting will be April 1.

Ticklers

By George

"Here's the best buy in the store. The former owner worked nights and slept all day."

Mr. Alvin Henriksen and sister, Lena Henriksen, drove to Tecumseh last Monday, after receiving word their brother-in-law, Mr. Walter Schmiegelow, had passed away at the Syracuse Hospital on Sunday afternoon. Funeral services were held on Wednesday afternoon at Tecumseh. Those attending the funeral services for Mr. Schmiegelow, from Eagle, Alvo and Lincoln were Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Henriksen and daughter, Mrs. Richard Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Henriksen of Lincoln, Alvo and Lena Henriksen of Eagle. Mrs. Minnie Petersen and Minnie Johnson of Alvo.

Several members and church-school teachers attended the School on last Thursday evening conducted at the Elmwood High School on last Thursday evening and plans to also attend the next two Thursday evenings of March.

All denominations were represented from surrounding communities in cooperation with the Nebraska Council of churches for furthering Christian growth. Instructors were from University of Nebraska and Nebraska Wesleyan and directors of Religious Education and Leadership training.

Those attending last week were Rev. and Mrs. Don Christensen, Faye and Lois Erskine, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Muench, Mrs. John Fischer, Glenda Wall, Mrs. Jesse Westlake and Mrs. Clinton Westlake.

It is hoped more folks will take advantage of the privilege of the Christian School at Elmwood. The last meeting will be Thursday evening March 28. If interested call the Eagle pastor, 66, or inquire of anyone of the folks who attended previously.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Umland Sunday evening attended the "parents pot-luck supper" at the Fraternity House, where their son, Lowell, is affiliated while attending Nebraska Wesleyan University.

Mr. David McKay is reported to be improving slowly after having been hospitalized for several days at Lincoln.

Mrs. Irvin Stall was reminded of her birthday on Sunday, when she and daughter, Mona, were dinner guests at her son's home, the Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Stall and family, near Eagle. In the evening, daughters and families of Lincoln were present at her home, including: Mr. and Mrs. Edward Krumm and son, Roger, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Hardnock and family, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Meyers and son, Jimmy, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Stall, Miss Vesta Stall and Miss Marlene Eley. The latter's parents, were unable to be present due to Mr. Eley being ill. Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hardnock of California called for a birthday respect gesture.

Mrs. Grover Palmer now of Elmwood, accompanied Mrs. Wellington Dennis and family to Eagle Saturday afternoon and visited friends and called at the Methodist Church during the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. H.D. Fischer visited Mrs. Fischer's cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Salberg, at Louisville last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Fischer enjoyed a visit at her brother's home in Milford recently, observing the latter's birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Root and family attended a family get-together and dinner at Mrs. Root's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Knaup, at Murdock, Sunday.

Mrs. Root's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Chestnut, of Oklahoma, were present, having visited the relatives of Nebraska. They were enroute to Woodsill, Ill., to attend the wedding ceremony of their son, Donald at that city.

The Junior High young folks or Intermediate class of Eagle Methodist Church school enjoyed an Educational tour on Saturday afternoon at Lincoln. The group left Eagle at 12:30 p. m.

with its teacher, Mrs. John Fischer, who drove her car.

Mrs. Ralph Beach also drove their station wagon. Twenty girls and boys met on time, and made the first stop at the Hinky Dinky store, to enjoy their treats. (Hot French fries, fish sticks, and tartar sauce, pop ice cream and each was given a balloon).

Next stop was the Jewish Synagogue, where the Rabbi Hamburger told us about the church and its interesting scrolls, archways, (choir and organ located in the upper balcony back of the sanctuary).

The scrolls were unwrapped and the group shown how to read with the hand pointer.

A memorial with lights name of the members who have died) to signify the everlasting life. The light is lighted on the birthday of the member. Mr. and Mrs. William Gold and the Simms families were two, known locally.

The tour then stopped at the First Plymouth Congregational, St. Mary's Cathedral, and Christian Science, near St. Paul Methodist. At this church shown the guests rooms and reading rooms which had all white walls. In looking over the pipe organ the group walked through narrow passage ways to the top or attic of the church. There the guide took the tour out on to the roof top for a view of the city of Lincoln.

Mrs. William Trumble received a letter from her cousin, Mrs. Forest Hardnock, in Minneapolis, that Patricia's surgery at Mayo Clinic, was planned for Tuesday. They had been invited to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Smith near there. Mrs. Smith was the former Golda Klyver, and a niece of Mrs. Arthur Klyver, neighbor of the Hardnocks. They were pleased to be able to talk with homefolks.

Mr. and Mrs. William Trumble visited their former neighbor and friend, Mrs. William Horn, at the Rest Haven Nursing Home at Weeping Water, Sunday afternoon. The Trumbles have made frequent trips to see Mrs. Horn since her convalescing there, several years ago.

Friends who wish to write to Mr. and Mrs. Forest Hardnock their address—501 Walnut St. N. E. Minneapolis, Minn.

Mrs. Bertha Caddy arrived in Lincoln via plane from Chicago on Saturday and for the present is remaining at the home of her daughter, and family, the Mr. and Mrs. Dick Schrader's.

Mrs. Caddy has been visiting her daughter and family, the Lester Robertson's at Indianapolis, Ind., several months, and suffered a stroke while there, recovering quite satisfactorily.

The Indiana folks took Mrs. Caddy to Chicago to board the plane in order to make the trip much easier and without any change of planes until arrival at Lincoln. Her further plans of retiring at her Eagle home are not known. She was quite anxious to return to Nebraska after being gone longer than she had planned.

The Senior M. Y. F. had a "Come-as-you-are" St. Patrick's party during its fellowship meeting Sunday evening.

Merry Milkers Have Meeting

The Murdock Merry Milkers met at the home of Howard Pool March 11 at 8 p. m.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Wayne Leachens. The discussion topic, the different breeds of cattle, proved interesting.

Later in the evening we judged dairy cattle in the Hoard's Dairyman Dairy Judging Contest and later compared them with our father's judging sheets.

Lunch was served by our hostess, Mrs. Pool.

Elmwood 4-H Club Holds Oral Quiz On Cuts Of Meats

ELMWOOD (Special) — West Side Rooters 4-H Club met at the home of Onnalee Kunz Friday March 15, and were pleased to have Mr. Schmiedeke, Cass County agricultural agent, in attendance. He presented John Mendenhall a trophy for his high ranking on judging swine at Fremont.

The club held a quiz on the different cuts of meat, beef and swine.

Donald Fredenburg and Morris Mendenhall, our dads, each received pins as leaders of 4-H for two years. All members of the club last year received a certificate for completing the year's work.

Mrs. Harlan Kunz and Mrs. Myrl Miller served a lunch and Clayton Miller and Theron Bornemeier led in the games.

Next club meeting will be at Donald Hollenbeck's.

Fredine Engelking News Reporter

Tiny bacteria, that change nitrogen from the soil so plants can use it, depend upon minerals for their livelihood just as larger forms of life. The bacteria can't operate without minerals like iron, molybdenum, calcium, and phosphorus, say bacteriologists at the University of Wisconsin.

Subscribe To The Journal Now!

DISPERSION AUCTION Improved 240 Acres & Personal Property Saturday, March 30, 11 a.m.

Very well located improved 240 acre Cass County farm 2 miles South of Elmwood then 1/2 West on U. S. Hwy 34. Personal property sale starts at 11 a. m., and land about 2 p. m.; land lies gently rolling with 200 acres cultivated and balance pasture; farm is terraced; 70 acres alfalfa; 15 acres wheat goes to purchaser; land well farmed and in a high state of cultivation; good fencing and two good wells; 5 room modern house; concrete-steel-frame 10,000 bu. elevator with Heist cup elevator with combination truck & wagon moyer; barn and other buildings; feed lot with wind break; schools and churches close; IMMEDIATE POSSESSION!

Land is clear so if in need of terms contact your loan man; Deed signed and in escrow.

LAND POSITIVELY SELLS TO HIGHEST BIDDER WITHOUT RESERVATION!!!

2 JD 'A' tractors; '56 JD 2 row picker; '56 JD 40 ft. elevator; '55 JD side delivery rake; '55 JD go-dig; '53 JD 2-14 in plow on rubber; JD 7 ft mower; JD lister with rotary moldboard; 2 JD cultivators; JD 3 section harrow; JD 15 ft. disc; JD 14 inch hammer mill; '55 AC combine; Colby rubber tired wagon, new; Forney electric welder; '49 IHC K-5 truck with grain and stock bed; many other pieces; 100 to 125 tons mostly baled alfalfa; 150 bales wheat straw; Speed Queen washer and other household items.

WRITE - WIRE - CALL Auctioneers for complete sale bill on land and personal property!!!

NOLAN HOTTLE, OWNER
FORKE BROS. & FICKE
The Auctioneers
321 Sharp Bldg. Lincoln, Nebraska Phone 2-1045
AUCTION LEADERSHIP SINCE 1921

ARTHRITIS, RHEUMATISM, NEURITIS Sufferers Now Offered Amazing Relief From Agonizing Pains

Revolutionary new medical discovery called AR-PAN-EX works through bloodstream where it can do the most good, fastest. Even most stubborn cases have gotten blessed relief from torturing misery. See us today about guaranteed AR-PAN-EX tablets.

Schreiner Rexall Drug

Where is it...IN NEBRASKA?

Toadstool Park is a field of gigantic stone mushrooms made by erosion of soft clay from under beds of sandstone. You'll find these strange formations along State Highway 2, 20 miles northwest of Crawford.

Beer Belongs...in good company at home or away. Its friendly sparkle...its downright good taste, make beer Nebraska's favorite beverage of moderation.

NEBRASKA DIVISION United States Brewers Foundation
710 First Nat'l Bank Bldg., Lincoln

P-U-B-L-I-C S-A-L-E

240 ACRES - Cass County

Miscellaneous Personal Property

SAT., MARCH 23, 1957

AT 1:00 P. M.

PLACE E. M. Ruby farm, 4 miles north and 3 1/2 miles east of Weeping Water or 7 1/4 miles west and 1 mile north of Murray.

2 Improved Tracts
W 1/2 SE 1/4 Sec. 9-11-12 NW 1/4 Sec. 10-11-12
Subject to pipeline agreement

TERMS 15% down day of sale, balance payable on delivery of deed as provided in E. M. Ruby will. Abstracts furnished for examination. Land available for 1957 crops.

Personal Property

Brooder house	Hand sprayer	Poultry equipment
8' x 14' building	15 sheets aluminum roofing	Oil barrels
Infra Red brooder	Mixed lumber	Scrap iron
Antique house buggy	Approximately 125 posts	1956 alfalfa seed
Electric Separator	4-10 ft. cressoted posts	Baled alfalfa & straw
Manure Spreader	Wire	Other numerous articles
Side delivery rake	Miscellaneous Tools

Terms on Personal Property: Cash Day of Sale

Edward M. Ruby Estate

Floyd Ruby, Shenandoah, Ia. SEE Bernard Ruby, Nebraska City
Thelma Cooper, Weeping Water OR Virgil Ruby, Nehawka
H. C. Elliott, Weeping Water

You can't buy a bigger station wagon anywhere...at any price!

Yet, this smooth-riding Plymouth Suburban is still in the low-price 3

There isn't a single station wagon built that's bigger than the new Plymouth.

We're not just talking about the low-price 3, though Plymouth has the biggest in the lowest-price range. We mean all station wagons... low-price, medium-price, right on up to the so-called "big" luxury wagons. You can't buy bigger than Plymouth no matter how much you spend!

So why spend more—and settle for less? Especially when Plymouth offers you the magic smoothness of velvety Torsion-Aire Ride... Push-Button Driving... Total-Contact Brakes... Flight-Sweep Styling... and the power-for-safety of up to 290 hp. Drive a Suburban today!

New Observation Seat. Available in all 9-passenger Suburban models. Folds flush into floor for extra cargo space.

Hidden luggage compartment. Almost 10 cubic feet of locked space for safe, out-of-sight storage of luggage and valuables. On 6-passenger models.

THEY DON'T COME ANY BIGGER THAN Plymouth SUBURBANS

Don't miss Plymouth's two great TV programs: Lawrence Welk's "Top Tunes and New Talent" and "The Ray Anthony Show." See TV section for time and station.