

MI-NI-MA-CHICK
The Mi-Ni-Ma-Chick Camp Fire girls met at the Murray School Monday evening for a party in honor of Camp Fire's 47th Birthday.

Instead of games, the girls gave one hour of service by assisting Mr. Campbell. Some girls swept floors, others dusted and straightened bookshelves and washed blackboards.

Each girl furnished some part of the refreshments. The Birthday cake was baked by Marlene Johnson.

Leaders of this group are Mrs. Mildred Stones and Mrs. Leon Gansemer.

Tidy Blue Birds

The Tidy Blue Birds met at the home of Donna Porter Tuesday after school hours.

Following the business meeting, songs were sung in unison. Mrs. Porter took moving pictures of our group and we also made monkey puppets, under the direction of our leader, Mrs. Robert Hirz.

We are wearing our Blue Bird uniforms this week in observance of Camp Fire Week Birthday. Sunday our group attended the Presbyterian Church in unison.

Mrs. Porter served cupcakes decorated with Blue Birds.

The next meeting will be at the home of Karen Pritchard. Joyce Weistead Scribe

Playful Blue Birds

The Playful Blue Birds met at the home of Mary Helen Svoboda March 13. We played a relay game and learned a new dance.

We put together our scrapbook which we will have on display in the Camp Fire window. We were told about observing Camp Fire Week, and planned activities for this week.

We cut out green shamrocks as favors, and then Mrs. Svoboda served us refreshments, followed by our Blue Bird Wish. Nanette Nelson Scribe

Tanda Group

The Tanda Camp Fire girls held a meeting March 7th in Central School. We potted plants for shut-ins.

Catherine Svoboda entertained with a truth test and a word game, and also treated the group to Brownies.

OFFICERS ELECTED

The O-Ki-Ci-Ya-Pi Camp Fire Group recently had a ceremonial at the home of Patty Wohlfarth, with installation of officers. The officers installed were:

President, Linda Martin; vice president, Patty Wohlfarth; secretary, Norma Martin; treasurer, Shirley Foster and reporter, Patty Foster.

Mrs. Schanot purchased the felt jackets for the Wood Gatherers.

Plans were made to go to both churches in Murray, and put a display in the Murray Hardware window, during this Camp Fire Girl Week.

SUNNY BLUE BIRDS

March 11th we held our meeting at the home of our leader, Mrs. Don Steppat. We made St. Patrick's tray cards to be distributed to Riverview and Hillcrest Rest Homes.

In the election of officers the following were elected: President, Kathy Wondra; vice president, Peggy Wagers; secretary, Nancy Keil and scribe, Linda Kay Ballinger.

Sunday in observance of Camp Fire Birthday Week we wore our Blue Bird attire to church. The girls attending Christ Lutheran Church as a group were Nancy Keil, Jo Non Biggestaff, Marlene Buchholz, Jeri Lynn Payton, Kathy Wondra, Bonnie Weistead and Donna Steppat with Mrs. Charles Wondra and Mrs. Don Steppat supervising the group.

Linda Gonsolly, Kathy Eggart, Peggy Wagers and Linda Kay Ballinger went to their respective churches.

In celebration of Camp Fire Birthday Week, Mrs. Franz Peteret baked us a cake with decorations of Blue Birds. We served this cake while attending a birthday party for Kathy Wondra.

Pharmacists Honor Emil J. Weyrich Tuesday

Tuesday the Nebraska Pharmaceutical association in session at Lincoln, honored some twelve pharmacists of the state for service in the profession for fifty years or over, as well as election of officers.

Among the veterans to be cited for the long years of service was Emil J. Weyrich of Plattsmouth, who was licensed in the state in 1899, to practice his profession.

Mr. Weyrich has spent his years in the profession in Plattsmouth, first as clerk at the Gering Drug store and later with Joseph F. Hadraba, establishing the firm of Weyrich & Hadraba, which they operated until disposing of the store to John and Victor Schreiner.

Fifteen members were present Sunday for a meeting of the "Mr. and Mrs." Club at the Christ Lutheran Church.

The session opened with hymn singing and members answered roll call by naming their favorite couple. The meeting closed with a prayer followed by a film.

Refreshments were served by Ernest and Joy Bond. The next meeting will be held in April.

C. C. Wescott Honored At Church Affair

Sunday the members of the congregation of the First Methodist Church joined in an open house, honoring Charles Clifford Wescott, who is soon to leave Plattsmouth for the east, where he expects to be with his daughter, Miss Alice Louise Wescott at Baltimore, Md., and his son, Dr. Mason E. Wescott, at New Brunswick, N. J., who is instructor at Rutgers University.

E. A. Ernst, representing the laity of the church, presided in the informal program and reception from 2 to 4 in the afternoon. During the hours of the afternoon members of the church and old friends called to shower Mr. Wescott with well wishes.

Mr. Wescott was presented with a plaque from the church bearing the inscription, "Presented to C. C. Wescott by the First Methodist Church of Plattsmouth in recognition of his untiring efforts in church and Sunday School for the past sixty-four years."

The presentation was made by Don C. York, one of the veterans in the church affairs, a close friend of Mr. Wescott.

The honoree, Mr. Wescott, gave a very interesting informal talk on the past years in the church, the pastors who have served in the city, of the old church located for many years on South 6th street.

Mrs. Katherine Wiles, for the Women's Society for Christian Service, had charge of the refreshments served during the afternoon.

Mrs. W. L. Heinrich active in the women's branch of the church work, had charge of the guest book. This was presented to Mr. Wescott at the close, a memory of the old associates in the church work that he can long treasure.

GET SCISSORS AND FOLD SOME PAPER - You'd have to be pretty good to come up with a string of paper dolls as fetching as those pictured in the surf at Daytona Beach, Fla. They may look like figures cut from paper, but closer inspection reveals that the pretty Cypress Gardens Aquamolds are real, living dolls.
