

Knights Of Columbus 75th Anniversary

The Knights of Columbus, world's largest fraternal benefit society of Catholics, observes its diamond jubilee on March 29th. The society was founded in New Haven, Conn., in March 1882, by Father Michael J. McGivney, priest of St. Mary's parish, in New Haven. The first members of the society were parishioners of Father McGivney, and from this little group of devoted men the society has grown into an organization of more than a million men, with four thousand councils of the society in the United States, Canada, Mexico, Cuba, Puerto Rico and the Philippines.

One of the first objectives of the society was for protection of the families of the members that led to the development of the fraternal features, to care for the members for their dependents. Another purpose of the founders was rendering mutual aid to its sick, disabled and needy members.

The Knights of Columbus has had a great part on building educational facilities for the members and for the church that it represents.

During the great wars that the United States has been engaged in, the society has been in the forefront of providing comforts and recreational facilities for the men on the battle fronts and in camps.

A meeting was held May 2, 1919 at the St. John's parochial school in this city with Fr. M. A. Shine presiding. Dr. E. G. Zimmerer of Lincoln, deputy grand knight was present and explained the work of the order and to establish a council here.

Schulhof, Baxter Smith, trustees.

The organization came to Plattsmouth, Sunday, June 8, 1919, when the charter was presented to the local council, designated as Fr. Juan de Padilla Council 1965, this in later years being changed to Mgr. Michael A. Shine, 1066.

The initiation and institution of the chapter was featured by a banquet and following the reception of the class and the toast list included a distinguished list of speakers: Rt. Rev. Charles J. O'Reilly, bishop of Lincoln, Mayor H. A. Schneider, Judge Corcoran, state deputy, a vocal solo by Mrs. Howard Ralya, address by Arthur Mullen, a piano number by Mrs. Walter Freeman.

Law To Permit Taking Of Rough Fishing By Arrow

LINCOLN—Spring is the traditional time for flurries of activity.

But a recent upswing of action by the bowhunters of Nebraska is caused by new legislation rather than the advent of spring—although that could be a helping factor.

According to Glen Foster, chief of the fisheries division of the state game commission, archers will need three things to be able to take advantage of the new law which allows bow and arrow shooting of rough fish—a bow, an arrow and a fishing permit for 1957.

The bill, which passed the 1957 legislature with the emergency clause, has been signed by Gov. Victor Anderson and is now a law. In essence it allows a fisherman to take rough fishing during the open season, April 1 to Dec. 1, by snagging or by bow and arrow, if they have on their person a valid 1957 Nebraska fishing permit.

JOURNALisms

Our little crack in the "Flash" column two weeks ago, "Women have replaced men in most every profession, but we have yet to see a female mail carrier," brought a fast response from one of our good readers at Union.

Byrl Heartlidge, Route 1, Union, enclosed a clipping taken from another newspaper showing a picture of a female mail carrier at Ravena, N. Y., with a story captioned, "Carrier Has No Weight Problems." It said Mrs. Paul Falkner's social circle is expanding, but her waist line isn't. As a woman mailman she walks 12.5 miles per day and is the only woman letter carrier in the State of New York—and we might add, the only one we've ever heard of.

So, we stand corrected as we often do on some of our statements and predictions. We'll be a little more careful in the future and stick to one we are sure of, like frinstance, no woman in our memory has ever become a father. But, on second thought, with some of the things going on in this old world today, we can't be sure this might be in our future.

Congressman Cunningham's "Capitol Corner" received over this desk each week, is becoming a most interesting two pages of pot purri of the Nation's headquarters. The Congressman has definitely taken an economy position, diving into many escapades that are taking a big chunk of we taxpayers money. We'll have to see if we can't find room each week for at least a part of it's comments.

Leading off this week, he says, "I've said before that Congress ought to take a good look at itself when it talks about economy in government." He tells of a third office building being started. "There were 435 members when there was one building, 435 members now there are two buildings, and there will still be only 435 members when the third building is finished—at a cost of over $64 million. Then there is a second Senate office building nearing completion—and on and on.

He tells of a bill being sent his committee "to amend the Veterans' Preference Act of 1944 to define mothers for the purposes of such acts," then adds, "I will look forward to examining the bill in committee to learn why it takes four pages to define mothers." We hope the Congressman will keep us informed—it could be they were trying to define some of the mothers we've got around here.

He shouldn't worry too much. We always like to recall that statement by Charles Kettering the industrialist, who once said, "One of the things we have to be thankful for is that we don't get as much government as we pay for."

It has been the policy of The Journal to pass out favors to local businessmen, if we have any to pass out. We steer clear of numerous leaches who prey on unsuspecting newspaper publishers for free publicity and promotion pieces sent us in truck loads every month. Most are examined closely and placed gently in the "round file."

Some we're very careful of are the pretty insertion orders received calling for advertising space, with the notation, "Upon receipt of ten sheets and invoice, we will remit." These, too, go into file "13." One such, that many gullible publishers fell for during the past week or two, was from the "Sears Direct Sales Co., Inc., St. Louis, Mo.," who accompanied insertion orders with beautiful half-page layouts.

This outfit has taken newspapers for a free ride in Illinois, Minnesota, and several other states—the newspapers run the ads then fail to collect. Right now this outfit is under investigation by Better Business Bureau, and Sears-Roebuck. The Journal just doesn't accept such advertising. Few ever pay, and we don't think it fair to extend credit to these outfits who never pay, then have the intestinal fortitude to present a statement to a local merchant for services rendered when these outfits have tried to cut his throat for free.—RRP.

A rise of $12,000 in employment in February partly offset the sharp decline of January, the Commerce Department announced. The total of 83,190,000 at work was reported as a record for the month.
