

Louisville, Nehawka Attend Weeping Water Drama Clinic

Mrs. Lewis Baker
Phone 182
The Weeping Water school was proud to be host Tuesday, March 19, to Louisville and Nehawka students who, along with Weeping Water students, participated in a Drama Clinic.

Donald Aisen, assistant professor of Speech at the University of Nebraska, served as critic. This affair, being a clinic and not a contest, no awards were made.

The District contest will be held at Peru on Friday, March 29.

Weeping Water will present its one-act play "Leprechaun" which was given an excellent rating. Other entries to appear at the district from Weeping Water will be, Yvonne Domingo giving oral interpretation of phase literature; Joe Smith, interpretative public address; Susan Wood, poetry reading; and Gary McDonald, radio and television news commentary.

Mrs. Clarence Schmadeke was hostess Wednesday afternoon to the M. A. O. Extension Club.

Mrs. Ed Van Horn, president, opened the meeting, by leading the group in the Nebraska Ex-showed how to go about doing some fancy stitches. They will each bring to the April meeting an article which they will decorate.

Births
A3-C and Mrs. Roger Lühring announce the birth of a son, Raymond Roger, born March 16, at Offutt A. F. B. Hospital near Omaha. He weighed 7 pounds and 10 ounces at birth.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lühring of Weeping Water are paternal grandparents, and Mrs. David Sjogren of Louisville is the maternal grandmother.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Patton are the parents of a baby girl, Cindy Sue, born Wednesday, March 20, Lincoln. Cindy weighs 9 pounds and 12 ounces. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Walter Patton of Weeping Water, maternal grandparents are Mrs. Mary Nannen of Weeping Water and Merrill Nannen of Omaha.

Named Delegate
Thirty-nine members, 5 visitors and 14 children attended the Tuesday, March 12 meeting of the W. S. C. S. which was held in the Methodist Church parlors. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. George Smith.

Communications were read, and dates of coming meetings noted. Mrs. Smith was elected as delegate to the Nebraska Conference of the W. S. C. S. to be held in Lincoln, April 9, 11 at the St. Paul Methodist Church.

Mrs. Stella Worman was presented with a life membership gift in the W. S. C. S. The organization voted to confer this honor upon Mrs. Worman for her many years as a member and worker of the W. S. C. S. and when the organization was known as the Ladies Aid. The money for this gift will go for a state missionary project.

One feature of the program of the state meeting in Lincoln will be the recognition of membership gifts conferred by various churches and organizations in Nebraska. These membership gifts range from children to adults.

Mrs. Lucille Krall of Nebraska City, district superintendent of Children's Works, demonstrated a lesson on Phillipine Islands. Fourteen children of the Weeping Water school were her pupils.

Mrs. Renos Anderson was in charge of the birthday table, which was decorated with green streamers and shamrocks as were all the tables suggestive of St. Patrick's Day. Seated at the birthday table were Mrs. Elvira Bussell, Mrs. Tom Colbert, Mrs. Sam Hughes and Mrs. Francis Thoren.

The hostesses served a delicious lunch.
Birthday Luncheon
The Christian Women's Fellowship met Thursday afternoon in the Church parlors for the quarterly 1 o'clock birthday luncheon. The Junior Circle was in charge of the serving and tables.

Mrs. Stanley Schroeder and Mrs. William Kleeme decorated the tables in green streamers and placed umbrella nut cups at each plate. Mrs. David Baxter baked the birthday cake, with Mrs. Dan Kearns bringing a second.

Seated at the honored table was Mrs. Ed Van Horn, Mrs. Baxter, Mrs. Kearns, Mrs. Charles Freeman and Susan Schwartz, daughter of the minister.

Mrs. Van Horn conducted the business meeting which opened with the C.W.F. prayer. Roll call was answered by "Things I Can Learn From the Bible." Mrs. Kleeme was in charge of the worship service. The scripture Eth. 5-2 was read. The group sang "O Master Let Me Walk With Thee", and "Take Time To Be Holy." This was closed with the offering and a prayer.

The Bible quiz on Joshua was prepared by Mrs. Stanley Schroeder and presented by Mrs. Lynn Rothe.

The lesson "A Golden Anniversary" was presented in play form. The following cast, Mrs. David Baxter, Mrs. LeRoy Zesarian, Mrs. Maurice Hammons, Mrs. Fred Linville, Mrs. Grace Freeman, Mrs. Don Kearns, Mrs. Lynn Rothe, Mrs. Charles Freeman, portrayed a Sunday School class celebrating their 50th year together.

Mrs. Leon Band, service director, gave a talk on "How the Training of Our Missionaries is Changing."

The following were appointed to the nominating committee: Mrs. Charles Freeman, Mrs. William Kleeme and Mrs. Henry Knaup.

The meeting closed with a prayer.

Ruth Circle
Thirteen members attended the meeting of the Ruth Circle of the Methodist Church last Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Alvin Groesser gave the lesson, using one of the Women of the Bible as her subject. Mrs. Cloyd Boydston was in charge of the devotions. The members were asked by the pre-Sunday School age group teacher if they would bring any toys they could for this class.

During the meeting of April, the election of officers will be held. Mrs. Frances Thoren and Mrs. Wilson Bickford served as hostesses.

Baby Son

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Fitzpatrick of Weeping Water announce the birth of a son, Dennis Frederick, born Friday, March 22, at St. Mary's Hospital in Nebraska City. He weighed in at 7 pounds, 5 ounces.

Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Art Fitzpatrick of Weeping Water, and the maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Hartley of St. Joseph, Mo.

Tuesday morning a group of friends and neighbors of Mrs. Ray Freeman's completely surprised her, by stopping in for a birthday "coffee."

They were Mrs. Lewis Baker, Mrs. Dick Bickford, Mrs. Larry Milhulka, Mrs. Marvin Wade, Mrs. Lloyd Barkhurst, Mrs. Gene Bruns, Mrs. Clarence King, Mrs. Farley Amick and her sister, Mrs. Thelma Hielg, and son of Louisville.

All those present were accompanied by their children. The group presented Mrs. Freeman with a gift.

Mrs. Freeman's birthday was also celebrated on Sunday when she and her husband were guests at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Holscher, of Cook. Other members of the Holscher family were also present.

On Monday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Freeman and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Freeman and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Freeman were supper guests of Mrs. Ed Freeman. Both Mrs. Ray Freeman and Mrs. Charles Freeman were celebrating birthdays.

Opportunity Club

The Opportunity Club met March 19, with Mrs. L. E. Lane, with Mrs. Herbert Petersen as co-hostess.

The song of the month was sung under the leadership of Mrs. S. H. Harmon.

Mrs. Frank Cook, vice president, conducted the business meeting in the absence of the president.

The lesson on huck weaving was given and several members displayed beautifully decorated towels done in this work.

The group was pleased to welcome Mrs. E. A. Michelsen Sr., as a new member of the club.

Twenty members and four guests, Mrs. Michelsen, Mrs. Jewell Cole, Mrs. Lloyd Lane and Mrs. Fred Ward enjoyed a lovely lunch served with St. Patrick's decorations, by the hostesses.

The next meeting will be with

Mrs. E. E. Lorensen. The lesson will be baking rolls and biscuits. Mrs. R. L. Keckler will be co-hostess.

Reports on Dinner

The March meeting of the Congregational Woman's Association was held in the Church parlors, with approximately 30 members present.

Mrs. Arthur Jones opened the business meeting by reading a poem sent to the president, Mrs. Stanley Wood, from the association president, Mrs. Thompson of Wahoo.

Mrs. Oscar Domingo activity chairman, gave a report of the smorgasboard and thanked everyone for their help and patronage.

Mrs. E. J. Bender, program chairman announced the topic for the day as being "Mission U. S. A."

Mrs. Clarence Norris led the devotional period, followed by a report by Mrs. Homer Jameson of the work of the various boards of the church: home, foreign, social action, christian service and the conferences.

She stressed the emphasis and need the church places on its own local parish problems and on to reach out with all Christians together around the world. She pointed out many problems in the United States that make it a mission field. Many interesting thoughts were brought out, such as the work in recreation areas for delinquents, crime, alcoholism, race relations and minority groups, to name a few.

The tea table was centered with a beautiful house plant Mrs. Ralph Keckler poured and Mrs. E. K. Bauman served the refreshments.

Serving as hostesses were: Mrs. Bill Newham, Mrs. E. G. Sterkley, Mrs. H. C. Wilkinson, Mrs. Knud Jensen, Mrs. Adam Cook, Mrs. C. H. Gibson, Mrs. Ralph Keckler, Mrs. Emily Olive and Miss Fern Davis.

Livestock, Farm Machinery Sale To Be Held Friday

A variety of items will be offered for sale at public auction at 9:30 a. m. Friday, March 29, at the Hart Construction Co., farm located about 5 and 3/4 miles southeast of Union.

The sale will be handled by auctioneers Young and Lacey with the Nehawka Bank serving as clerk. Lunch will be served on the grounds.

The sale will offer 79 head of livestock, a four gaited buckskin saddle horse, 1 goat, 16 shoats, 8 sows and 53 pigs, in addition to many items of farm machinery and equipment.

The United States, France and Britain have rejected a Soviet proposal for a four-power declaration on the Middle East that would have barred military alliances, foreign bases and arms shipments.

Eagles Meet Hit By Blizzard Sunday At Nebraska City

The district meeting of the Eagles held Sunday at Nebraska City was one of the victims of the blizzard of 1957, which they will long remember, especially those from out of the city.

Some of the attendants were forced to remain until over Monday, among these the grand worthy president, as well as other officers from over the state who had come to extend their greetings to the head of the order.

Plattsmouth has a large delegation who were forced by the storm to remain over, some driving to Union, where they were able to catch the Monday afternoon Eagle and reach home.

Those from here were District Chairman Jack O'Donnell and wife, Charles Janacek, local aerie president and Mrs. Janacek, local Auxiliary president, Mrs. Viasia Land, Mrs. Helen Jordan, Grant Traubaug, William O'Donnell and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Cole, Mrs. Lillian Renner, Carl Egenberger, Robert Gall, Henry Krejci, Mr. and Mrs. Anton Lahoda, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lahoda of Omaha.

America's traffic death toll could be reduced by cutting down the horsepower of its automobile engines, according to an eight-year study of auto accidents by two Nebraska physicians.
