

Dutch Club In Louisville Discusses Tour

The Dutch Academy Club held its March meeting at the home of Mrs. Verle Vogler near Springfield, on Wednesday afternoon, March 29. Ten members and one visitor were present.

Meeting was opened by reciting the Nebraska Home Extension Club Creed. It was voted to give a donation to the Red Cross. Plans for the April tour were discussed.

Mrs. Orrel Edgerton and Mrs. Arnold Hell presented the lesson, "Let Others Help You With Oven Ready Biscuits and Rolls" which was quite interesting. The April meeting will be replaced by the club tour to Omaha on April 16.

Mrs. Vogler served a lunch at the close of the meeting.

Seven Little Homemakers

The Seven Little Homemakers 4-H Club met at the home of assistant leader, Mrs. Marvin Peterreit, March 18. All members were present. Roll call was answered with the kind of cake liked best. The club discussed sewing and judged sample skirts and blouses, Angel food cake and sponge cake made by the girls placing them as purple, blue, red or white. After the business meeting a delicious lunch was served.

W. S. C. S.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church met Thursday, March 28, in the church parlors. Mrs. Henrietta Alfrey, president, opened the meeting. Mrs. Emille Schwalm then gave the devotions with song, prayer and Scripture reading from Luke. Reports of various committees were given.

Mrs. Mary Amelang read an interesting letter from Mrs. N. B. Calloway, wife of a former pastor. She wrote of her visit in Alaska with her daughter, Jean, who is teaching at Anchorage.

The annual conference of the W. S. C. S. was announced to be held the 9, 10 and 11 of April in Lincoln.

The lesson was given by Mrs. Anna Stiffler on Paul's Letters to the local churches. As a variation, all took part in the discussion. After joining in the Lord's Prayer, hostesses Mrs. Muriel Webster and Mrs. Daisy McNealy served refreshments.

The next meeting will be on April 11. The hostesses will be Mrs. Emille Schwalm and Mrs. Patti Murray.
