Methodist Society Meets At Church

ELMWOOD (Special) — The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church met Friday afternoon, in the fellowship room of the church. President Blanche Kuehn opened the meeting with devotional reading and prayer. Mrs. Frank Buell acted as secretary in the absence of Mrs. Emily Gonzalez. The pianist, Mrs. Sydney Moore and Mrs. Richard Pratt, led the group in songs.

Devotions were given by Mrs. Ted Hall. The lesson, Home missions in National news, was presented by Mrs. Guy Clements, who had Mrs. Helen Schneider to tell the Society what she learned in her trip to Honolulu recently. She explained the different churches which they visited and told about their services and what she learned about where the money from the Methodist Churches is used by the World Council of Churches.

The various Secretaries gave their separate reports: Mrs. Arlo ratt on Christian Social Relations; Mrs. Gail McDonald, Missionary Education; and she had a collection taken for missions. Mrs. Claude Johnson for Mrs. S. L. Clements, on Status of women; Mrs. Dudley Leavitt suggested a birthday card shower for Mrs. Will Leffer who will celebrate her 95th birthday April 20th. Her address is Greta, Nebr., Mrs. Paul Eveland on Student work; and Mrs. Ted Hall on children's work, telling of the C. S. C. S. meetings. Mrs. V. G. Clements sang at solo on Faith. Mrs. Earl Horton gave a short review of the book, "Three Meetings."

Nominations of the officers made by the nominating committee were written on the black board and accepted at the meeting.

The president announced the district meeting of the W. S. C. S. in Lincoln, April 24. All who desire to go and wish transportation please contact her.

Mrs. G. R. Eveland called attention to the mother-daughter banquet to be held at the church April 29. She also announced a tea at 2 p. m. May 8 at the Bryan Memorial Hospital, and urged members to attend.

Dr. Bert L. Story gave a short talk expressing a desire to confer honor upon members of the Methodist Church who have been members for fifty years or longer, saying several had been members over sixty years.

Closing prayer was voiced by Louise Ward-Stock.

Those at the birthday table were Mrs. Fred Buell, and Mrs. Grace Plybon. The beautiful floral piece which was on the banquet table at the Methodist Conference of the W. S. C. S., was presented to Mrs. Eldon Mendenhall, and she asked the Society to use same at the meeting today and then deliver to the Ebeler Nursing Home. A beautiful spray of yellow flowers was on the president's desk during the meeting, and graced the birthday table afterwards, and then delivered to the Ebeler Home.
