Man's God-given right of progress will be emphasized at Christian Science services Sunday.

Scriptural readings in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Probation After Death" will include the following from Isaiah 9:2: "The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light; they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined."
The following selections will be among those read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy (233:1): "Every day makes its demands upon us for higher proofs rather than professions of Christian power. These proofs consist solely in the destruction of sin, sickness, and death by the power of Spirit, as Jesus destroyed them. This is an element of progress, and progress is the law of God, whose law demands of us only what we can certainly fulfill."

Plattsmouth Paper Of Eighty Years

Edward G. Wilson of Lancaster, Pa., has sent the Journal a copy of the Plattsmouth Daily Herald, printed in April 1870, which is the real historic document in its news story as well as typographic make up as compared with the modern type of paper.

The paper was published daily and weekly by H. D. Hathaway, one of the best known of the pioneer newspaper men of this part of the west. His plant was located on the site of the present St. Paul's Church at Fifth and Avenue A. Older residents may recall the building but very few the names of the business houses or those mentioned in the news.

In the advertising section is found Toodle, Hanna & Clark, bankers, dealers in gold and silver coins, exchange, U. S. and other stocks, drafts drawn. This firm later moved to St. Joseph, Mo., where they operated for many years.

The Bonner stables was operated by Buttery & Lazenby, located at Fourth Vine, (Avenue A) where the Sattler Funeral Home now stands.
Burwell Spurlock and R. Baxter Windham were engaged in the real estate business. Both men were very prominent in the history of Nebraska.

R. R. Livingston and J. W. Rawlins were engaged as physicians and surgeons. Dr. Livingston officed opposite the courthouse while Dr. Rawlins was located at 11th and Rock street. In the legal profession

T. M. Marquett, Samuel Maxwell, S. M. Chapman and G. S. Smith were listed.
In the business establishments were noted Clark and Plummer, general store, E. T. Duke was operating a hardware store, Matthews and Donnelly, were also in the hardware and implement business. S. Bloom & Co., and William Stadelman were in the clothing business. Doom Brothers & Co., operated a general store.

George W. Colvin was operating a boarding house, the City Hotel at Main & Third street was offering room and board by the week or day, the Ontario House, 6th and Vine, (now Avenue A) was also offering stable facilities for the patrons that might need them.
