

First Services Held Sunday In New Building

About 50 members and friends of the Plattsmouth Community Church were present at a dedication service Easter Sunday afternoon in the church's newly remodeled place of worship at 516 Main Street. Among the guests were T. H. Polock, owner of the building, and his daughter, Mrs. Alice Perry.

Included in the ceremony were brief talks by various heads of departments of the Community Church, followed by a short message and dedicatory prayer by the pastor, Rev. George Smith. David and Lois Ashby of Omaha conducted the musical portion of the program.

Christian friends from other churches have stated their desire to encourage the work which this interdenominational mission on Plattsmouth's Main Street has set out to accomplish on behalf of the city.

The Community Church group has been meeting for over two years in the Lions Civic Auditorium, and during the past two months have labored diligently to remodel these new quarters to continue their work.

Here's a Spring Trick... Pretty, Too

Tricks and treats may seem a bit out of season, but you'll agree the balmy days of spring call for new ideas in the kitchen. Here's one... real magic and a family treat.

Because of its intrigue and simplicity, the whole family will gather 'round to whip up their own MACARONI PATTIES. All that's needed is a can of macaroni with cheese sauce... better make it several cans, for the hungrier members may want a whole can apiece!

Reach for the cereal or crackers, because these patties are coated with crushed crumbs. Now... heat up a can of spaghetti sauce with mushrooms. This is the topping. The main course is well on its way to being complete!

A vegetable salad and fruit dessert make this a meal... pretty and tasty, too. Go to it for easy 'n' good eating!

Macaroni Patties

1 can (1 1/2 quarts) macaroni with cheese sauce

1/2 cup fine dry bread crumbs; or 1/2 cup corn flakes, crushed; or 1/2 cup finely crushed cheese crackers

3 tablespoons butter or margarine

1 can (10 1/2 ounces) spaghetti sauce with mushrooms

Open both ends of the can. Push out the macaroni (using one lid as a "pusher") about 1 inch; carefully cut off a slice, using a saw-like motion. Cut another slice in the same way until there are 4 slices. Carefully coat slices with bread crumbs. Brown in melted butter in skillet over medium heat about 5 minutes on each side. The patties should be turned carefully only once. Heat sauce and serve over patties. Makes 4 servings.

TOMATO JUICE HITS THE SPOT

A colorful and nutritious beverage is THE thing to have close at hand always. Be certain your pantry shelves have a complete stock of bright red tomato juice. Then it can be chilled down for a long cool accompaniment to snacks or lunches. Or better still, heat it up for a warming cup of cheer. Today or anytime.
