American Legion Auxiliary Holds Annual Spring Luncheon

UNION (Special)—The Annual Spring, one o'clock luncheon, given by the ladies of the American Legion Auxiliary, was held at the Legion Hall Tuesday afternoon.

The long artistically decorated tables had sections of a musical staff with ivy and other attractive plants, dotted here and there. A three-course luncheon was served by the members of the Auxiliary. At each guests place, there was a gift of perfume.

After the luncheon, the ladies presented a "Hit Parade" program which kept the guests in "stitches." Jane Roddy presided at the microphone and announced each number. Mary Wolph sang the theme song. The musicians in stunning costumes, were Phyllis Ackley, Snare drum, Margery Meredith, clarinet; Velma Brown, trombone; Gretchen Everett, washboard; Kathryn Harrah, violin; Betty Hoback, coffee pot; whistlers, on various instruments, were Margery Crook, Mary Pearsley, Elsie Frans, Myrtle Whitted and Gladys Weston.

Esther Ann Kendall played banjo and her imitation as Elvis Preley was entertaining from start to finish. A quartet, Helen Wolfe, Ruth Ruby, Gretchen Everett and Marion Clark also entertained.

Among the extra song numbers, Erma Baker was a hit indeed as she appeared with her "extra pounds" and sang, "She's Too Fat For Me." The No. 1 song was "Love Me Tender" by Esther Kendall.

The lady coming the longest distance, Mrs. Webber, from California, and Mrs. Eva Becker, the eldest guest, received a gift.

Gold star mothers present were Mrs. Louis Crunk and Mrs. Gladys Slinker.

A number of door prizes of potted plants were given. Mrs. Lola Murdock was presented with a gift for her faithful service in helping to make this luncheon a success.

The same show will be presented to the public at a little later date in May, by special request.

Ladies Aid Reports Good Attendance

The members of the Ladies Aid of the Christ Lutheran road held their April meeting, Tuesday, April 23. Due to the big March show, no March meeting was held.

Hostesses were Mrs. A. B. Lentz and Mrs. Philip Hennings. A good attendance is recorded, with many visitors.

Our church ladies, as one group, out of 100 congregations, are invited to Midland College, Fremont, to attend a May day luncheon May 7. All interested to attend, please contact Mrs. August Simonson by April 29, to have reservations available.

An open parcel, Food and Food Sale were also held with many plants, and "good things" on displays.

Devotions were read by Mrs. Joanne Scholting. She chose a topic from Mark the 16th chapter.

Carol Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Davis played two numbers on the piano accordion. For the closing of the program, we enjoyed Joanne Scholting's song, "The House We Live In" accompanying herself.

Refreshments were served.

110 Attend Sunrise Service At Horning

Easter Sunday morning, the United Youth movement sponsored a sunrise service for the youth of the Methodist, St. Paul Evangelical and Reformed, Presbyterian, Mynard Evangelical United Brethren, and Murray Presbyterian youth fellowship. It was held at the Horning Cemetery at 5:30 a. m.

On the east end of the cemetery was erected a rugged cross and there under the cross the youth held their service.

The service began with a brass band playing "Christ the Lord Is Risen." The singing was led by Miss Beverly George, grade school music teacher. There were 110 youth and sponsors attending the service.

Following the service the youth had their breakfast at the Mynard Evangelical United Brethren Church basement. The men of the five different churches prepared the breakfast which consisted of tomato juice, eggs, toast, sausage, rolls and coffee.
