

Relatives Of Eagle People Struck By Milford Tornado

Mrs. John Fischer
Tel. 7394

Eagle folks were quite concerned for Milford folks, last Thursday evening, during the tornado warning and disastrous results. Following the storm, Mrs. H. D. Fischer's eldest sister, Mrs. Emma Crabill was injured, but her home was damaged considerably. Her other sister and husband who live at Milford, were visiting back east at the time, but their home was left undamaged. Mr. Anderson's dents visiting University of Nebraska and when they returned to Milford found his rooming house completely damaged. His picture also appeared with the other fellows and the house in the World-Herald.

Mrs. Howard Rudolph and infant daughter, Sheryl Lee, returned home from the hospital Friday.

Mrs. Nita Wilson of Lincoln called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Fischer on Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Wilson is enjoying a vacation from the office, where she has been employed 35 years.

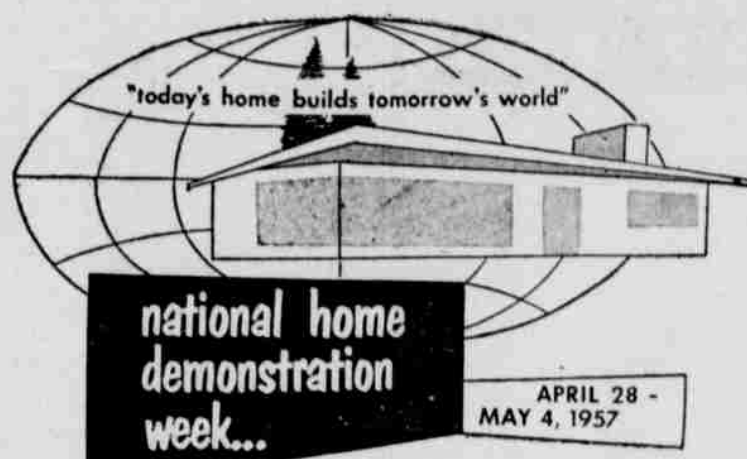

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wulf and the latter's sister, Mrs. Emma Wulf of Chicago, Ill., visited a niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. William Ryans at Gate Center, Kans., Wednesday and Thursday.

The above folks also visited Mr. and Mrs. Donald Wulf and daughter at Ralston, before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Muenchau were Plattsmouth visitors Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Kirchoff and Mr. Kirchoff's brother, Mr. and Mrs. George Kirchoff and family of Weeping Water, journeyed to Minden, Sunday and visited the Pioneer Village during the day.

The Senior Methodist Youth Fellowship members, pastor and wife, attended the District Rally at the Wymore Methodist Church Sunday afternoon and evening. They were privileged to choose one group from the groups on various vocations and attend the business and social fellowship hour.

LINCOLN — National Home Demonstration Week, April 28 - May 4, is a time for Nebraska's 34,000 Home Extension club members to join millions of American homemakers in reviewing the past year's achievements.

President Eisenhower telegraphed greetings to women participating in the 12th observance of the week.

He said, "As you learn new homemaking practices, and share your skills with your neighbors, you help build better homes and communities across the land. And by demonstrating the latest findings of home economics research in America, you show homemakers of other countries the standard of generous living made possible through a democratic way of life."

The theme used for the 12th observance of the week is "Today's Home Builds Tomorrow's World."

Home Extension clubs in Nebraska will observe the week in various ways, with annual teas and achievement days predominating.

Mrs. Anna Kitzel of Alvo called at Mrs. Anna Fifer's home, Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Fischer assisted with the needs of relatives and friends Friday and Saturday at Milford. Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Anderson also went to Milford and spent the day with relatives and friends and also called at the Seward Hospital, to visit Mrs. Anderson's brother, Avin Stolz, who was injured by the tornado, Thursday evening. They also report the destructive sights of the farm homes, equipment, windmills, stock, trees and brush piled up against the standing trees and buildings, similar to a flood destruction.

Fred Root, who underwent surgery several weeks ago, has been convalescing at the home of his daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Moore, 950 Furnas St., Lincoln, before returning to his home, southeast of Eagle.

Mr. and Mrs. O.E. Underwood visited at the Hobart Hansen home at Wabash Sunday. They enjoyed an afternoon of fishing.

On Saturday evening, Mrs. Hardaway of Wabash, Mrs. Alva Reid of Elmwood and Mrs. H. D. Fischer spent the evening at the home of Mrs. O.E. Underwood while the men folks attended lodge at Elmwood.

John Stolz of Elmwood, brother of Mrs. C. G. Anderson, Eagle underwent surgery at Lincoln hospital, on Monday morning.

The "OSC" Club members will meet next Thursday afternoon at Mrs. Charles Scattergood's home.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Adams entertained with a family dinner Sunday, celebrating the birthdays of Mr. Adams. Those present for the occasion were the honoree's mother, Mrs. Cassie Adams of Eagle, a sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Manners and three daughters of Palmyra; Mrs. Adam's mother, Mrs. Esther Clarke and sons, Carl Lee and Dick and Charles Rosenow, all of Alvo; Mrs. R. H. Norris and daughter Joan Anderson of Eagle, called in the afternoon.

Mrs. Floyd Althouse has been called to Lincoln schools at several different times recently, as a substitute teacher, in the elementary grades.

Leroy Folken has returned to Odessa, Tex., after enjoying a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Folken during a vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Plucknett, of Lincoln, visited their fellow comrades, while in the armed services in Honolulu. Rev. and Mrs. Donald Christensen. Both attended the Methodist Church on the islands. Mr. Plucknett is completing his University of Nebraska Agriculture college course and will be employed as an Agricultural engineer in Hawaii.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Scattergood and Mrs. Edward Porter of Eagle, and Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Sorensen and family of Ruskin, attended the wedding of a niece, Janet Axe at Omaha, Friday evening. The Sorensen family visited during the weekend at Mrs. Sorensen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Scattergood. The newly weds, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Dickens, will live in Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. John Beery are soon moving into their newly-built home at Bellevue. Mrs. Beery is the former Caroline Ronhoode, Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. John Williams of Hickman, visited their daughter and family Mr. and Mrs. John Ronhoode, Jr. Thursday. Mrs. Williams has recovered quite satisfactorily from major surgery of several months ago.

Gail Lanning spent the weekend at his parents home, the Orris Lannings. Due to the Milford tornado, the Trade School was closed Monday. His car was considerably damaged by the storm and has been taken to Lincoln for an estimate and repairs. He plans to ride to school with other students from Lincoln for a short time during the housing difficulties at Milford.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ronhoode and family and John Ronhoode Sr., visited the latter's daughter, and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Caskey at Omaha, Sunday afternoon. They also visited Jill Ronhoode, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ronhoode at the Children's hospital in Omaha, where she has been several weeks, recovering from polio.

She now can breathe more easily and is relieved of the iron lung during the daytime, however, it is used at night. The back muscles are very weak and therapy treatments are being given. It is thought she will be able to return to her home in Fremont in June.

The Annual Athletic Banquet was sponsored by the Eagle Pep Club at the Eagle High School auditorium Friday evening at 6:30 p. m., served by the Methodist Women's Society of Christian Service.

Toastmaster, Superintendent O. L. Schmieding; Medley of Songs, by Girls Trio, (Mary Weyers, Marilyn Bird and Lois Erskine); Address by Bob Taylor, news caster.

Presentation of Awards followed: Boy's Awards by Coach Doyle Gump; Girls' Awards by Mr. Rumbaugh; Music Awards by Mr. Gump. Seniors presented a program with the "Senior Class Poem," Kaye Umland; "Seniors Will," Gene Rodaway; "New Rules and Regulations," by Larry Walberg; Class Prophecy, by Kathryn Stubbendick.

Several Eagle friends and former neighbors enjoyed a basket dinner and get-together on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Denison near Cheney. Those present from Eagle were Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Earl, Mr. and Mrs. Orin Lanning, Mrs. Laura West, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Fischer, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Umland and Mr. and Mrs. John Fischer. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Scattergood were unable to be present. Former Eagle residents present were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rudolph and Mr. and Mrs. Orill Allen of Malcolm and Lincoln.

Rickie and Ronnie Anderson, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Anderson of Lincoln, spent the afternoon at the home of their

STOP THAT ITCH!
IN JUST 15 MINUTES.
If not pleased, your 40c back at any drug store. Try instant-drying ITCH-ME-NOT for itch of eczema, ringworm, insect bites, foot itch or other surface itch. Easy to use day or night. Now at SCHREINER DRUG STORE.

grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Anderson, Saturday.

Mrs. Vernon Vioux's sister of Palmyra, who was to undergo surgery on Friday was advised to return home and the surgery was postponed for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Bornemeier and family of Elmwood, spent Sunday at Mrs. Bornemeier's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Orris Lanning and sons, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. McKay and son, Ellis of Palmyra, called at the Lanning home in the afternoon and all enjoyed lunch together before the guests returned home.

Mrs. Casper Spohn of Beaver Crossing, spent a few days at the home of her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rudolph and family last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Fifer of Lincoln, visited at the home of Mr. Fifer's mother, Mrs. Anna Fifer, Sunday afternoon.

The Camp Creek Project Club members will meet next Thursday afternoon, May 9th, at Mrs. Glen Burge's home.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Muenchau visited their son-in-law's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Luebtke at Omaha, Sunday. The latter enjoyed hearing of the California trip by the Muenchhaus this winter, where they visited the Norris Luebtke family at San Diego and also other places in California.

Major Robeler and family of Lincoln, visited his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Muenchau Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Wall spent Sunday at the home of their son, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Wall and family a Lincoln.

William Buntin is considerably improved following his recent illness and able to be about again.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Muenchau spent Easter day at Mrs. Muenchau's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Meyers, at Stapelhurst. Her sisters and families, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Reinmiller and Dick, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kinnamon of Seward were also present for the family dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Laverne Griepentrost and family of Lincoln were dinner guests of Mrs. Griepentrost's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Youngquist, Sunday.

The Competition track meet was held at Eagle Wednesday afternoon. Alvo, Malcolm, and Nehawka teams were involved.

ONE MINUTE SPORTS QUIZ

1. Who won the recent Masters golf tournament?
2. What is Herb Score's salary?
3. Who is Billy Pierce?
4. What former tennis star is generally rated the all-time ace of U. S. competitors?

The Answers:
1. Doug Ford.
2. Reportedly about $20,000.
3. Star lefthander of the Chicago White Sox (AL).
4. Bill Tilden.

SAVE $100.00 While They Last!
ON $229.95
Name Brand SCANLAN BROS.
Air Conditioners
1 TON CAPACITY
CASS COUNTY MAYTAG
PLATTSMOUTH

SCANLANS' SMASHES PRICES ON FRIGIDAIRE

1957 "Sheer Look" Frigidaire guaranteed by Scanlans' Frigidaire and General Motors! PAY NOTHING DOWN and small monthly payments! Choose at Scanlans' today!

8.1 cu. ft. FRIGIDAIRE
NEW LOW PRICE $169

- WITH YOUR OLD REFRIGERATOR
- * Guaranteed by Scanlans' Frigidaire and General Motors
 - * No Down Payment, Monthly Payments as Low as $8
 - * Extra Large Freezer Compartment
 - * Big Storage Shelf-Door
 - * Doors Opens from Inside or Out
 - * Famous Frigidaire Meter Miser Means Lower Cost Operation

Big Family - Size Refrigerator

Scanlans' Gives Service

SERVICE." Buy with confidence Staff of experienced Servicemen "at YOUR SERVICE." Buy with confidence . . . know that a trained staff is at your beck and call . . . to service any appliance purchased at Scanlans.

ZERO FREEZER REFRIGERATOR

10.1 Cu. Ft. FRIGIDAIRE
Regular Price $339.95
NOW ONLY $279

With Your Old Refrigerator

SCANLAN BROTHERS

Cass County Maytag

345 Main Plattsmouth Phone 245

- To our knowledge the only 10.1 cu. ft. refrigerator food-freezer combination made.
- Food freezer maintain zero temperature (32 degrees below freezing) 44-lb. capacity (keeps ice cream hard.)
- Fully automatic defrosting (no trays to empty). Moisture control, temperature control (cyclamatic)
- No down payment, monthly terms as low as $14
- Guaranteed by Scanlans', Frigidaire and General Motors. Large Aluminum shelves (no chopped off corners . . . holds more food)

For a real vacation this year

Don't drive until you arrive!

Why fight traffic and the blazing sun? It's a vacation . . . relax on the EAGLES! And if you want to drive after you arrive, ask Mo-Pac to arrange for rent-a-car. Costs less than you think!

TICKETS • RESERVATIONS • INFORMATION
MISSOURI PACIFIC STATION

ZIP-CUP SWIVEL TOP
CLEANS ALL OVER FROM ONE POSITION

Save $30.07
THIS WEEK ONLY!

Brand New! Powerful!
EUREKA
Roto-Matic Model 805

$69.95 $39.88
VALUE FOR ONLY Complete With Tools

Now On Display At Your Nearest Office Of

CONSUMERS PUBLIC POWER DISTRICT