Virginia Balfour, Mr. Wintz Wed

Miss Virginia Dee Balfour, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Balfour, Union and Leonard Wintz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig Wintz, of Auburn were married in a morning service at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Nebraska City Saturday. The ceremony was performed by the Reverend Richard Steinemann, rector of the church. The church was decorated with pink snapdragons and pink gladioli.

Miss Patricia Meyers of Omaha was the maid of honor and Miss Carol Pike of Union was the bridesmaid.

Luverne Hamann of Auburn was the best man and Laurene Wintz of Falls City was the usher.

The bride wore a ballerina length gown of chantilly lace and nylon tulle over satin. The fitted lace bodice featured an illusion yoke edged with a lace applique accented by a Peter Pan collar. The bouffant nylon tulle skirt repeated the lace of the bodice in deep star points with a band of lace outlining the star points. She carried white gardenias and her attendants carried pink carnations.

A reception was held after the ceremony.

Mrs. Wintz was a graduate of the Union High School in 1955 and has been employed in Lincoln.

Mr. Wintz is a 1951 graduate of Auburn High School and is engaged in farming.

They will make their home in Auburn.

Mrs. Kenneth Winkelhake

Miss Jean Thimgan, Bride, Rites In Nebraska City Church

Blue iris and daisies decorated the altar of the Bethel Evangelical and Reformed Church in Nebraska City, April 7, for the wedding of Miss Jean Thimgan and Kenneth Winkelhake.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Leo W. Thimgan, Louisville and Mr. and Mrs. Orlan Winkelhake, Nebraska City.

Reverend A. F. Rinne officiated at the 7 o'clock ceremony. Mrs. Ralph Burkhardt accompanied Bud Rueter, soloist, who sang, "Because" and the "Lord's Prayer."

For her wedding, the bride chose a gown of white chantilly lace and tulle. The sculptured bodice of lace smoothed over satin was fashioned with a stand-up wing collar above a nylon tulle yoke and long lace sleeves that tapered to points at the wrists. Beneath the slim waist tulle ruffles trimmed with lace created an enormous powder-puff skirt. A queen's crown of sequins and pearls held her veil of imported bridal illusion.

Mrs. Calvin Stubbendeck, Unadilla, was her sister's matron of honor. Miss Mary Jo Reihard, Louisville, was bridesmaid, and Miss Carol Winkelhake, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Barbara Arends, Manley, cousin of the bridegroom, were candlelighters. Miss Pamela Hillman, Syracuse was flower girl.

The bride's attendants were gowned in ballerina length pale blue flopped nylon organdy over taffeta, and carried arm bouquets of blue iris. Their headpieces were of white daisies.

The bridegroom and his attendants were attired in navy blue. Best man for his cousin was Duane Arends of Manley. Groomsman was Dean Biere, Nebraska City. Ushers were Ervin Poehler, Syracuse, and Richard Kotas, Jr., Nebraska City. Darrell Hillman, Syracuse, was ringbearer.

A reception was held in the church parlors. Misses Betty and Mary Thimgan, Plattsmouth and Misses Darlene Jensen and Marg Peckham, of Peru State Teachers College served, assisted by the Church Guild. Mrs. Dale Hillman, Syracuse, was at the guest book.

The bride's mother chose inlaid pink with black accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore navy blue with beige accessories. Both wore rose corsages.

For her honeymoon, the bride chose a lavender duster ensemble and black patent accessories.

After a wedding trip to New Orleans, the couple will reside on a farm near Nebraska City.

University Students Discuss "College Career" At PTA Meet

WEEPING WATER (Special)—The Weeping Water Parent-Teacher Association met on Monday, at 8 p. m. Mrs. Truman Lytle, president, opened the meeting and introduced Dr. Edgar Hoover, registrar at the University of Nebraska. He in turn introduced the five young people from the University for the evening's program.

They were Marion Adler, Natalie Johnson, Sally Carter, Jim Johnson and Bill Johnson. Miss Carter and Jim Johnson showed colored slides of activities that took place at the University during the past year, such as Ivy Day, freshman day, homecoming day, etc. Following this the young people held a panel discussion on the topic, "College Career" and told what going to college means. They discussed various interesting and informative helps in going to college; the cost, the subjects that are offered, the ways that one can become acquainted and the chapels on the campus so all can attend church services. Dr. Hoover gave a short talk following the discussion.

Mrs. Lytle then conducted the business meeting. There had been no February meeting as the carnival was held that month and there was no March meeting due to the severe snowstorm.

Mrs. Lytle thanked the committee who had made plans for the polo clinic. They were Mrs. Henry Knaup, Mrs. Renos Anderson and Earl Cook. She also thanked Mrs. Stanley Wood, Mrs. Renos Anderson and Mrs. Wilson Bieckford for their help with the polo shots. Sixty-eight were given the first time by Dr. Kunkel.

The nominating committee which consisted of Mrs. Henry Noble and Mrs. William Finley presented the following for officers for the following year:

Mrs. Arnold Detmer, president. Mrs. Renos Anderson, vice-president. Mrs. Vern Harter, secretary. Edward Van Horn, treasurer. Mrs. Harry Potts, corresponding secretary.

Mrs. Lytle appointed a committee to look into the needs of the school that some of the P. T. A. money can be used for this. It was suggested by Superintendent Thomsen that perhaps the P. T. A. would like to purchase some books for the school library. The committee, Arthur Thomsen, Mrs. Arnold Detmer, Mrs. Harry Potts, Miss Maude Baldwin and Mrs. Earl Cook, will report at the next meeting.

Mrs. Lytle also thanked Mrs. Neil Fitzpatrick and Mrs. Clarence King, co-chairman of the carnival, for their help in making the carnival a success. She also showed the P. T. A. charter that was received.

The mothers of the second and ninth grade were hostesses and served a lunch of cookies and coffee.

The next meeting will be May 13 at 8 p. m. in the school auditorium with the installation of officers.

Mr. Lytle will present the dramatic club in a skit. The mothers of the fifth grade will be the hostesses.

Cass County Near Top On Home Extension Members

LINCOLN—Membership in Nebraska Home Extension clubs has more than doubled during the past 10 years.

Miss Florence J. Atwood, State Leader of Home Extension at the University of Nebraska, says the total state membership could reach 50,000 by 1967 if the current growth rate continues.

At present, total membership is 34,000. Ten years ago it was 14,000. Last year 500 members were added to Home Extension clubs throughout the state.

Clubs in Hall and Scotts Bluff counties showed the largest gains in 1956 with 100 new members each. The following counties added between 50 and 60 members each: Pierce, Dodge, Custer, Garfield, Douglas, Richardson, Sioux and Boone.

The three counties in the state with the most Home Extension club members are Scotts Bluff, Buffalo, and Lancaster, with 1,000 members each.

Other counties with high enrollments include: 800-900, Dawson, Douglas and Dodge; 700-800, Lincoln, Custer and Hall; 600-700, Cass, Platte, Saunders and Gage; 500-600, Sheridan, Fillmore, Burt, Washington, Knox, Red Willow, and Boone; 400-500, Hamilton, Holt, Otoe, Seward, Merrick, Dawes, Nuckolls, York, Webster, Clay and the Brown Rock and Keya Paha district.

Homemaking Class Has Style Revue

A Style Revue was held Tuesday at the Central School Auditorium with great success. The senior girls decorated the show-room setting with maypoles and flowers, also using a circus theme.

Participating in the show were the girls of the homemaking class of Plattsmouth High School. Each modeled the clothes she had made during the homemaking course.

Miss Van Nostrand is the Home Economics instructor. Mary Elizabeth Schmidt School Reporter
