Memories we treasure was the theme of the Mothers and Daughters Banquet held at the Methodist Church, Elmwood, Monday evening April 29th.

Weddings of yester years, and modern were featured, in the favors at the table, little miniature wedding bells, golden; and later a revue of wedding gowns. The Fellowship room was decorated with spring flowers, which also graced the tables. Mrs. Blanche Kuehn, gave the invocation; and the welcome was given by Mrs. Paul Eveland, the Toastmistress.

Memories of Mothers, was given by Mrs. Frank Buell. Songs to remember, was a medley of songs: Love's Old Sweet Song; Memories. Put on your old blue bonnet, etc. They sang an encore of: The Old Gray Mare ain't what she used to be. They were sung by a sextette composed of: Mrs. Opal Clements; Mrs. Amy Irons; Mrs. Clarice Krall; Mrs. Bess Robb; Miss C. Augusta Robb, and Mrs. Helen Schneider, with Mrs. Daisy Moore as accompanist.

A toast of modern brides, and modern mothers was given by Mrs. Glen Miller Lynne Whitmore played a variation of old time music, on the piano. One was, Walking With You.

A solo by Mrs. Eunice Stock, "Angels will watch over you," with her little daughter Janie standing on a chair beside her with her arms about her symbolizing, "Companions."

A salute to tomorrow's brides was given by Mrs. Paul Eveland, and High School Girl's Triple Trio sang songs to future brides.

Honors were given the following, and a corsage presented to them: For the oldest mother present, Mrs. Hannah Skiles-Keefer, 89, of Plattsmouth; the youngest mother present, Mrs. Lodge Coatman, Lincoln; four generations of daughters, Mrs. Frank Gustin, her daughter, Mrs. G. R. Eveland, and her daughter, Mrs. Howard Pool, and her daughter, Linda Poole.

In the revue of gowns, the oldest gown worn, was given to Mrs. Emmett Cook, who wore a gown over 100 years old. There were a number of wedding dresses worn, which showed the various styles of the different periods up to the modern wedding dress, worn by Rae Jean Bornemeier-Ziegelbein, who was a 56 bride.

The most recent bride was awarded to Mrs. William Atchison, who wore her wedding suit.

A very pleasant entertainment was reported by a number who attended. Mrs. G. R. Eveland, chairman of the local activities in the W. S. C. S., with the Social Activities committee, Mrs. Orest Cook, chairman, Mrs. Howard Miller, Mrs. Eric Charling, Miss Alma Clements, Mrs. Myrl Miller, Mrs. Helen Schneider, Mrs. Joy Miller, Mrs. Donald Hollenbeck, Mrs. Marion Wendt, and others also assisting were responsible for the success of the banquet.

Mrs. Eveland reports over 175 were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Clark, and son Robbie left Saturday for their home at Delta, Colo. They spent their vacation visiting Mrs. Clark's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Eldemiller.

Mr. and Mrs. George Eldemiller, left Thursday for Overton the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Gard, Jr., and family. The Gards are leaving for a vacation to California, and the grandparents are bringing their 14 month old grandson, David, home with them while the parents are on the California trip. They are taking Gregg, their other son with them. They will make the trip by train. The Eldemillers will return home the same day.

Mrs. George Coatman, invited as her guests at the Mothers and Daughters banquet at the Methodist Church, her daughter-in-law Mrs. Lodge Coatman, Lincoln and her daughter Judy. Mrs. Lodge Coatman was honored as the youngest mother present at the banquet.

The Fairview Extension Club of Elmwood attended the dinner, given in connection with the Homemakers Day by the Women's Division of the Chamber of Commerce of Plattsmouth. The following members attended: President, Mrs. Clarence Schlaner; Mrs. Will Straebel, Mrs. Howard Miller, Mrs. Lloyd Miller, Mrs. Skyle Miller, Sr., Mrs. Melvin Miller, and Mrs. Dale Miller. They report a very enjoyable day. Several other ladies from Elmwood also attended the program and exhibits.

Members of the William Johns family from out of town, who attended the father's funeral rites on Monday, and remained for a longer visit at the family home were daughters, Mrs. Vivian Trant, Tucson, Ariz., Mrs. Ruth Hafel, Springfield, Ill and son Major William E. John, 7th Air Division, S. A. C. London, England.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed James spent several days at the home of their daughter, staying with her while their son-in-law, E. P. Peterson attended the funeral of his father, R. P. Peterson, Long Pine, Nebr. He was a farmer for many years, and was retired, and living at the home of his daughter, in Long Pine.

Mrs. Blanche Kuehn has been entertaining Mrs. Hannah Skiles-Keefer, of Plattsmouth for several days. She arrived with a daughter and son-in-law who were enroute to Burwell, to attend a wedding. Mrs. Keefer had intended to stay with a daughter in Milford while they made the trip, but owing to the tornado they were unable to enter Milford. They did learn the daughter's family was not injured, but they did have property damage. While here Mrs. Keefer attended several social events with Mrs. Kuehn. She left for her home Wednesday.

Mrs. Harold Straebel reports the serious illness of an aunt, Mrs. Maud Rheinschild of Lincoln, who is in a hospital there. Mrs. Straebel has been going
