Weeping Water Garden Club Meets

WEEPING WATER (Special)
The Weeping Water Garden Club met Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Hanlan. The president, Mrs. S. H. Harmon, conducted the business meeting. A "Get Well" card was sent to Mrs. Lloyd Wolfcott, and each member signed a book which is to be given to Mr. and Mrs. Sigvald Jensen who are taking a trip to Denmark in June.

Don Rutledge had the program and spoke on "New Garden Tools" and "Get that Bug". Mrs. Sigvald Jensen had the regular monthly feature "Now's the Time" and told of things to be done in the month of May.

The June meeting will be a tour and Mrs. B. A. Olive, Mrs. H. C. Wilkinson and Mrs. Sigvald Jensen were appointed on a committee to make plans. Mr. and Mrs. Hanlan served refreshments.

Mrs. Helen Snodgrass is very sick with poison ivy, contacting the noxious plant while truffle hunting the past week.

Family Honors Mrs. John Porter On 81st Birthday

Mrs. John Porter was honored at her home Sunday when her family arrived with baskets of food to help her celebrate her 81st birthday.

Twenty-eight grandchildren and 27 great grandchildren were on hand to extend their greetings.

Two birthday cakes were baked by her granddaughter, Mrs. Bill Kahm, Omaha, and Mrs. Harry Porter, and presented to the honoree along with many lovely gifts brought by the guests.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Niday and family of Wyoming; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Oltver and family of Murdock; Mrs. Bob Payne and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Furchert, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Royer and Jeanne, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kahm, and Mrs. Cyril Kahm, of Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. William O'Donnell, Mr. and Mrs. Forest Porter and Cliff, Mrs. Nellie Dalton, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Porter and Leen and Mrs. Harry Porter and family.

Following the dinner at noon all enjoyed an afternoon of visiting.

Mrs. Robert Cole Hostess To WSWs

The Mynard Evangelical United Brethren Women's Society World Service met at the home of Mrs. Robert Cole May 2. Mrs. Wayne Hendrix opened the meeting by reading Prov. 31:1-31 and a short talk on "Mothers Hands." Roll call was answered by giving memories and showing pictures of their mothers.

Mrs. Hendrix and Mrs. Melvin Shafer sang a beautiful duet "That Wonderful Mother of Mine", accompanied by Mrs. Roy Cole, followed by a prayer that each one remember and try to live by the good precepts taught by our mothers.

A playlet, "The Sampler", was given with Mrs. C. A. Wetenkamp as director. Mrs. Myron Wiles as the mother, Esther Cole, the daughter and Lila Cole and Alice Grosshans as "voices from the past," ending by all having a part in finishing the sampler with Bible verses.

A business session followed with reports from the various secretaries. Mrs. Roy Cole stressed that prayer is the most effective work that the Christian can do and we should get a goal for our prayers.

Mrs. Myron Wiles read a letter illustrating the trials of conscientious parents and their methods of meeting them. Mrs. Shafer read a short excerpt from Upton's Sinclair's book, "The Cup of Fury," which is an expose of the disastrous effects of alcoholism on not only his own relatives but on many of the famous people that he has known, and the inroads on our present national life of this evil. It was voted to have a contest in reading this year. Plans were made for serving a mother-daughter banquet for the Golden Rod Study Club on May 9.

Mrs. Willis Cole assisted the hostess in serving refreshments.

ENGAGED — Mr. and Mrs. Faye C. Spidell of Plattsmouth announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Miss Anita Spidell, and John Morse, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin C. Morse of Omaha. Miss Spidell is a graduate of the Plattsmouth Schools and has since worked at an insurance company in Omaha. Mr. Morse will be a June graduate of Omaha University. The couple is planning a June 2 wedding.

Joyce Phillips-Robert Thompson Wedding Rites At Eagle Sunday

EAGLE (Special) — Miss Joyce Phillips, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Phillips of Eagle and Mr. Robert Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thompson of Palmyra were married at the Eagle Methodist Church Sunday evening.

The beautifully arranged altar and chancel was set with the seven candelabra and huge standing baskets of flowers and fern.

The Reverend Don Christensen and the Reverend Bert Story of Elmwood officiated at the wedding ceremony before the 150 guests. Faye Erskine, organist, accompanied the soloist, Louis Erskine. Candles were lighted by Myrna Richards and Kay Thompson.

The bride's gown of imported chintilly lace and nylon tulle and net featured a narrow waistline and natural modified neckline of lace and abbreviated lace sleeves. The skirt was waiz length with white lace panels of chintilly lace and sequins. Her bridal hat held a veil of imported nylon, shoulder length. Her ensemble was completed with lace mitts. She carried a colonial bouquet placed on a white Bible.

The Misses Sally Ballance and Marilyn Habel were bridesmaids wearing blue street length dresses and matching headpieces. They carried matching colonial bouquets.

Attending the bridegroom were Robert Biggs and Donald Witt. The bride's mother was attired in a light blue suit and white accessories and the bridegroom's mother in navy blue with white accessories.

A reception was held in the church parlors following the ceremony. Mrs. Harley Smith cut the wedding cake, assisted by Mrs. Elmer Frohlich. Mrs. Roy Sterner of Nebraska City, sister of the bride, poured coffee, assisted by Mrs. Clyde Wenzel. Mrs. Verna Habel and Mrs. Vincent Phillips were in charge of the gift table.

Mrs. Martha Phillips and son, Glen of Omaha and Mrs. Nellie Simmons of Weeping Water were the out-of-town guests, both aunts of the bride. The bridegroom's relatives came from Palmyra and Syracuse.

The couple will reside in an apartment in Lincoln where they both are employed, following a honeymoon trip to the Ozarks and southern states.

Gaines Couple Returns From Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gaines have returned home from a vacation trip to Reynolds, Ill., accompanied by their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Baguet and daughter, Martha. The Baguet family are enroute to New York where they will sail for Panama the 15th. They are returning to Panama after an assignment in the States in Charleston, S. C. for two years Mr. Baguet serving with the Navy.

The daughter, the former Ruth Gaines, and family visited in the Gaines home previous to the eastern trip. At Reynolds, they visited relatives of Mrs. Gaines. Mr. Gaines hopes to return to his work at Brex soon, following a back injury, suffered in December.

Mrs. Elizabeth Wright of Littleton, Colo., is here for a visit at the home of her daughters and their families for a few days.

Mrs. E. J. Ferrie was pleasantly surprised Monday when her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bohn of Berkeley, Calif., paid her a visit. Mr. and Mrs. Bohn departed Wednesday afternoon for Ames, Ia., where they will be guests of their son, Mr. Bohn, road equipment salesman, will locate in the mid-west, and the sisters are anticipating many visits.

St. John's Church Hold Crowning Of The May Queen

On Sunday evening, May 8th at 7:30 occurred the "Crowning of the May Queen" in St. John's Catholic Church. This event reflects the honor in which the Blessed Virgin Mary was held Christ.

The ceremony opened with the recitation of the rosary by the congregation led by Mr. Walter H. Smith. A corps of 44 altar boys in surplices and cassocks carrying lighted candles filled the Sanctuary. All the girls from the parochial school were dressed in white and preceded the Junior and Senior Sodality girls. These wore pastel colored gowns and carried wands of garden flowers to form the arch for the crown bearer, Cheryl Kostie, who had been chosen by the school children for this honor.

She is the daughter of Sgt. and Mrs. Andrew Kostie and is in the first grade.

After the crowning, Father Valery Duerr, gave a very fine sermon on "How we can honor the Mother of God by the way We Live Our Lives."

The Hymns, "O Salutaris" and "Tantum Ergo" sung by the congregation of more than 300 were most inspiring.

Mrs. Joseph Tupy of Holy Rosary parish gave the Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament, followed by the closing hymn, "Holy God We Praise Thy Name."

Son

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Haffke are the parents of a son, born May 4 at St. Joseph Hospital, Omaha, weighing 8 pounds, 5 ounces. Mrs. Haffke is the former Betty Jorgenson. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. William Jorgensen of Nehawka and Mrs. Alice Haffke of Plattsmouth.

Daughter Gives Mom 'Day Off'

Ask mother what she'd like better than any other gift. Ten to one she'll say, "The day off." Remember that, anytime you want to plan a special day for Mother. What could be nicer than Mothers' Day, Sunday May 12th, than prepare a meal? Sound difficult daughter? You can manage... with the help of frozen, prepared dinners. Any junior miss can ready a full course meal in a flash this way. Mom won't have to stir from her armchair. She can even have a choice of roast turkey with trimmings, crispy fried chicken with buttered vegetables and mashed potatoes, or beef pot roast with rich gravy, corn and green peas. These dinners are precooked; only require heat-

Mrs. Ervin Albert Represents County As Rural Homemaker

Mrs. Ervin Albert of Louisville represented Cass County as a rural homemaker at the Eleventh Annual Rural Homemakers Day held in Omaha, the past Thursday. Mrs. Albert was chosen at the county council of extension clubs in Weeping Water in January.

The Homemaker has been active in rural clubs for some time, serving as secretary of her own club, County Extension, Louisville, and as secretary of the council.

The Homemakers Day began with registration and breakfast, a luncheon, afternoon entertainment and a banquet in the evening, held at the Sheraton-Fontenelle, Athletic Club and the Chamber of Commerce.

Greetings were extended by John Rosenblatt, Mayor of the city of Omaha.

During the activities of the day certificates of merit and leadership pins were awarded.

Tau Chapter Of Delta Kappa Gamma Meets Here

Plattsmouth members of Tau Chapter, Delta Kappa Gamma, were hostesses to other members Wednesday evening at a smorgasbord.

Delta Kappa Gamma is a national honor society for women teachers. Tau chapter is composed of members from Cass and Otoe counties.

The meeting was presided over by Miss Katherine Ellis, fourth grade teacher from Weeping Water. She gave a report of the state convention held in Omaha in April.

The program was a candle-lighting service for Founder's Day. The chairman, Mrs. Harriett Anville was assisted by Mrs. Doris McGaffey, Miss Sara Jane Whitten and Miss Elizabeth Downey, all of Nebraska City. Miss Nita Capwell of this city was social chairman.
