Highway Problems Discussed By Commission Secretary

By OWE N.J. BOYLES
 Secretary, Nebraska State Highway Commission

Over the years the motor vehicle has evolved from being a luxury to one of absolute necessity and it has caused us to completely overhaul and replan our way of living. This is evidenced by the way that our cities have expanded over wide areas and by the fact that six million or more school children are transported over one million miles of rural roads each day to attend consolidated schools in our nation.

The rural resident or our "Country Cousin" now drives a modern automobile, sells his raw products to the market and consumes processed foods. He and his children have modern conveniences in their homes, they buy their clothes from the same places that the "City Cousins" buy theirs. There is little difference in the standard of living of the rural resident compared to the city resident and he is demanding
