Maxine Louise Meyer And John Edward Knabe Rites At Syracuse

NEHAWKA (Special)—Maxine Louise Meyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman A. Meyer of Syracuse and John Edward Knabe, son of Harry Knabe and the late Mrs. Harry Knabe of Nehawka were married May 19 at St. John's Evangelical and Reformed Church of Syracuse.

The Reverend Milo J. Phillips officiated at the wedding ceremony at seven in the evening in the presence of 250 guests.

Baskets of white gladioli decorated the church altar. Mrs. Gene Watermeier, Lincoln, organist, accompanied Mrs. Donald Marek of Omaha as she sang "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride wore a floor length gown of Alenecan lace and nylon tulle fashioned with a molded bodice, with petite lace collar and long tight sleeves that came to a point at the wrist. The full skirt was adorned with a lace motif. Her fingertip veil of imported illusion fell from a tiara with seed pearls and sequins.

The bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Donald Staples of Creighton was

Christ Lutheran Ladies Meet

The ladies of the Christ Lutheran Church, Plattsmouth and Louisville Road, met in the church parlors Wednesday instead of the last Wednesday of the month, due to Vacation Bible School starting on May 27.

A good attendance of members and visitors were present. Devotions were presented by Mrs. Elvin Davis, she chose: Psalm 95: 1-7 and Revelations 14: 6-7 as the topic and closed by reading an appropriate "Ladies Aid" poem.

At our business meeting, we decided and set the date for our Annual Community Sing and Supper to be held Sunday evening, July 21.

A program, announced by the Aid President, Mrs. Fred Wehrbein followed. First a song duet by Judy and Shirley Meisinger, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Meisinger, accompanied by their mother; Carol Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Davis and David Albert, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Albert, Jr., favored us with a piano accordion duet and a song by Joanne Scholting, accompanied by herself, closed the program.

White Bridal wreath, violet nightshade and colored ribbon decorated the parlors.

Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Luella Meisinger and Mrs. Irvin Meisinger.
