BUSINESS PICKUP
A business-outlook session of the Commerce Department's Business Advisory Council, meeting recently in Hot Springs, Va., saw signs that the economy is gathering strength for a gradual rise in business activity for the rest of 1957. Total production of goods and services is seen to be rising slowly to a record rate of about $435,000,000,000 annually by the final quarter of 1957. That compares with $427,000,000,000 in the January-February - March quarter.
