Potassium Chloride Substance Which Killed Elmwood Cows

Mrs. Dudley Leavitt Phone 4247
Elmwood Calendar
June 10, Monday, 7:30 p.m. Odd Fellows meet at IOOF Hall
June 11, Tuesday, 7:30 p.m. Rebekah Lodge meets at Odd Fellows Hall.
June 12, Wednesday, 2 p.m. O. E. B. Kensington meets, Masonic Temple.
Orville Lenz reports the substance which his cows were poisoned from was potassium chloride, which is used in weed spray. However, no further clue as to how it came to be on the fence line has been discovered. The loss of the five cows is a great financial loss and he suggests careful use of poisons with safeguards preventing animals or persons from contact.
Mrs. George Hall recently returned to her home after a visit of several months to her son, Sumner and family in Neligh. She is well enough to be alone in her home at present.

Twelve members of the Elmwood W. S. C. S. attended an officers sub-district training meeting at Palmyra, May 23.
Miss Grace Wood had the misfortune to trip over her garden hose early Saturday morning resulting in breaking her left wrist. She now has a cast on to her elbow and is practicing getting along with one hand. Her niece, Mrs. Lillian Cunningham, Lincoln, is staying with her for a few days.
Mary Fischer was gathering some flowers from a neighbor's garden on Memorial Day, and the owner's dog attacked her, biting her numerous times, which required a doctor's attention.

South Bend Bible School Ends Sessions

Mrs. Jess Fidler Phone 6043
A week Vacation Bible School closed Friday night with program for the parents. There were 16 pupils enrolled and four teachers. The teachers were Carol Yates of Chasco, Mary Ann Wegmuller of Omaha, a daughter of a Cuban missionary, and Mrs. Corbin Cox and daughter Marilyn. Miss Yates and Miss Wegmuller stayed with Mrs. F. J. Knecht during the week and were dinner guests each evening of Mrs. Amos Beck, Mrs. Esther Kuhn, Mrs. Corbin Cox and Mrs. Laverna Rhoades successively.
Mr. and Mrs. V. D. Livers and Mrs. Jennie Livers of Ashland were Thursday evening supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Livers and family in Ashland.
A Saturday afternoon visitor of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Parrish was Glenna Forcade of Omaha. Sunday supper guests of the Parrish family were Mr. and Mrs. Herman Fuerrer of Yutan.

Ladies Council

The Ladies Council of the Church of Christ, Elmwood, met recently at the home of Mrs. Bess Robb with 17 members and one visitor present.
Mrs. Dale Hall gave the devotions on 'Women in the Bible'. Shirley Wenzel gave the lesson, telling about missionary families in Africa. She emphasized the Nickolson and Davis families.
Plans were made for serving of the E. H. S. Alumni banquet, with Mrs. Skyle Miller, Jr., and Hazel Shelley as hostesses.
Refreshments were served with Dorothy Miller, and Hazel Shelley as assisting hostesses.
Lt. Gerry Stark, son of Eldon and Freeda Stark, was a visitor at the home of his aunt and uncle, Marjorie Stark-Miller and husband, Ed. He arrived Monday and left Tuesday night. He brought his grandmother, Mrs. Lucy B. Lyle, Lincoln, with him to see some of the Elmwood relatives. She is not very well so did not go with him to all the places he visited.
Elmwood relatives and friends attended the funeral services of Henry Backemeyer, 81, Murdock, held at Ebenezer Church, Friday.
Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Gerbeling, Nora, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gerbeling, Lincoln, called for and took the men's mother, Mrs. Cora Gerbeling, and their aunt, Mrs. Grace Plybon, to Nebraska City for Sunday dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. John McGinnis of Phillipsburg, Kans., Mrs. Mary Nannen, Weeping Water and Mrs. Dorothy Patton and daughter, Lincoln, called on friends in South Bend Wednesday.
Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. William Rosencrans and boys were Mr. and Mrs. John Gakemeler, David City. Afternoon callers were Mr. and Mrs. Lester Wunderlich, Murray. Mrs. Rosencrans and boys spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Grady at Greenwood.
Hugh O'Brien, Louisville, was a Sunday guest of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Carnicle and family.
Memorial Day visitors of Mrs. Jesse Fidler were Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Willis Miss Mary Jenny, Omaha, and Clark Bushnell of Ashland.
Mr. and Mrs. Chet Rhoades and family spent from Wednesday until Sunday in Calloway with relatives.
Sunday afternoon visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Glen Kuhn and family were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kuhn, Louisville.
Weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jason Streight were Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Davis to Perham, Minn., where they spent from Wednesday until Sunday fishing on Big Pine Lake.
Floyd Cox of San Angelo, Tex., spent Tuesday through Saturday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Corbin Cox. Mrs. Edwin Pharoah and Bill Pharoah of Peru spent Saturday with the Cox family.
Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Bolden spent Friday afternoon and were supper guests of Mrs. Elmer Dalstrom in Ashland. Pete and Duane Hall, Wahoo, were Sunday supper guests.
Mark Carnicle and Connie Bolden were among guests at a skating party in honor of Jack Ledabrand's 10th birthday Saturday afternoon in Ashland.
Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Dill, Janice and Bernie, Miss Carolyn Watland and Mrs. Jess Fidler visited Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Consey Thursday evening in Omaha.
Elaine Fidler spent the weekend in Alliance and attended the wedding of Charles Reed on Sunday afternoon.
Mrs. Dorothy Carnicle and Sandra spent Thursday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Morris of Ashland. Debby and Steve Morris were Thursday night supper guests of the Larry Carnicle family.
Sunday visitors with Mrs. Jess Fidler were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jenny of Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Davis and family of Lincoln and Clark Bushnell of Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. Wellington Dennis entertained the Dennis family for a reunion Sunday the first family gathering in their new homes. All brought specials for the dinner. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Rose and son, Larry, Bellevue; their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Gullett, Woodbine, Ia.; Mr. and Mrs. Loren Dennis and two daughters, Bellevue; and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Rase, Chicago. The two sons of Wellington were also there.
The Memorial Day program at the Elmwood Cemetery was well attended as usual. The speaker of the day was James Lake, Lincoln, who is a professor in the College of Law at the University of Nebraska. Being one of Elmwood's former citizens, many attended to hear him speak. He brought out how it was a tradition in Elmwood to observe Memorial Day.

Family Gathering
Mr. and Mrs. Ed James had a family gathering on Memorial Day. Each brought specials for the dinner and the family enjoyed eating at the outdoor grill or in the house, according to their choice.
Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ted McCartney and son, Sid; Mr. and Mrs. Doc McCartney and son, Jim, both from Lincoln; Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Peterson, Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. Don McKenna, Alvo; Mr. and Mrs. William Tirkenbolz, Lincoln; grandson, Don Bardreau, and son, James; grandson and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Gene McCartney, and son, Jerry, Great Lakes, Ill. Jerry is in the U. S. service and is being transferred to San Diego, Calif.
In all there were 29 present who enjoyed the day.
Donna May Miller, and her roommate at the University of Nebraska, Evelyn Sundquist, and another U. of N. student, Peggy Anderson, Potter, left Friday for Custer State Park, at Hermosa, S. D., where they expect to work for the summer vacation. Donna is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joy Miller.
