Bridal Shower Honors Miss Janice Wiles

Miss Janice Wiles was honored Friday at a miscellaneous shower at the Mynard Community Hall.

The hall was decorated with red roses and streamers of red and white. The centerpiece was fashioned of two hearts pierced with an arrow which was completely covered with red roses.

Patty and Sandra Toman presented two accordion duet numbers. Sandra Abel favored the group with a toe dance and Karen Tilson played an accordion solo. A skit entitled, "The Night Before the Wedding" was presented by the following cast:

Edna Jean Schneider, bridegroom; Edith McCaw, bride; Linda Range, Jill; Karen Tilson, Emily Sue; Rita Range, Mona; Marjorie Grosshans, Jane; Linda Abel, Polly; Sharon Range, Hazel and Mrs. Roy Cole, accompanist.

Each guest brought their favorite recipes to give to the guest of honor.

Winners of the two contests were Mrs. Howard Wiles and Mrs. Willis Cole.

The guest of honor received many lovely gifts from the many friends in the Mynard community.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Ray Abel, Mrs. Alvadore Tilson, and Mrs. Thomas Grosshans.

Siemoneit Family Enjoys Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Siemoneit and son Ervin Ray returned last weekend from a 14 day vacation trip through Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas and into Old Mexico.

While in Kansas, they visited with Erv's cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Peterit, who live in Wichita. Next stop was Dallas, Tex., where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Elkins. They also visited the Bob Pool's in McAllen, Tex.

They visited many beautiful and scenic places in Texas and in Mexico and sweltered a few days in 105 and over degrees heat. While in Mexico, they visited the Leather shops in Monterrey and brought home beautiful hand tooled leather articles.

On their way home they took another route and visited in Louisiana. In Shreveport, La., they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rice and family.

They went through Arkansas and Missouri. In Warrensburg, Mo., they visited with Mrs. A. Tetley, the latter being the grandmother of Mrs. Ervin Siemoneit. On their arrival here they stayed a few days with Erv's folks, Mr and Mrs. August Siemoneit and in Omaha, with Mr. and Mrs. Ray Modlin, Betty Lou's folks where they picked up their little daughter, Shirley Irene.

At the close of vacation, Erv reported at his job in Radio Station K. A. W. L. in York where he is Chief Engineer and News director.

In the wedding party were attended in formal dress.

Suzanne Eiting, sister of the bride, was flower girl dressed in identical to the bride, and carried a miniature bouquet as the bride.

Mrs. Eiting chose a navy child-form dress and white accessories for her daughter's wedding. She wore a white rose corsage.

The bridegroom's mother wore a blue ace dress with white accessories and a white rose corsage.

A breakfast served in the St. John's Auditorium, immediately followed the ceremony. Only members of the immediate families and the bride party attended. The Catholic Daughters served.

At eight o'clock in the evening a reception and dance was held at the auditorium where he couple received their guests. Mrs. D. L. Grove was in charge of the reception arrangements. Janice Wiles and Nancy Painter served punch, Rosemary Nelson served coffee. Connie Cutting, of Omaha, cousin of the bride and Sharon Harbaugh served the cake.

Mrs. Jack Todd of Union and Deanna Huton tended the guest book. Joan Mason Trudy Murphy and Mrs. John Carper of Omaha had charge of the gifts.

The bride chose a white cotton pique dress with very bouffant skirt and roya blue accessories for their wedding trip to Colorado Springs and Pikes Peak.

Mrs. Ahrens graduated from the Plattsmouth Schools, class of 1956 and is working in Omaha as a secretary. Mr. Ahrens is a 1953 graduate of Plattsmouth High School and is employed at Aled Chemicals and Dye Corp. They will make her home in Plattsmouth.

Eiting-Ahrens Wedding Vows Repeated In Double Ring Rites

Miss Margaret M. Eiting, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. G. Eiting, and Mr. John J. Ahrens, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Ahrens, Sr., were married June 22 at high noon.

The double ring marriage vows were solemnized by Rt. Rev. Msg. Przdutik at the Saint John The Baptist Church of Plattsmouth in the presence of 300 guests.

Ivory colored lilies and pink rosebuds, baskets of orchid foliage and candelabra decorated the altar of the church.

Sister Mary Ivo of Nebraska City organist, and Miss Mary

Ann Ryan, vocalist, provided the wedding music. Miss Ryan sang "Ave Maria", "Panis Angelicus", and "O Maa Sine Laude Concepta".

The bride, given a marriage by her father, was lovely, dressed in a Priscilla of Boston gown all over embroidered eyelid over bluish antique slipper satin. The figure molded bodice featured a sabrina neckline; the above the elbow puffed sleeves were edged in inserts of eyelid and antique colored net. The floor length modified sheath gown swept in to a wide skirted effect at either side, cascading in to a sweeping chapel train. Her fingertip veil, a flare of layered tulle fell from a crown of pearls and flowers. She wore white mitts and a single strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. She carried a cascade arrangement of Johanna Hill roses.

Mrs. Jack W. Raffensperger of Chicago, cousin of the bride, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Sally Amato, Beverly Harris, Jeanine Newton and Brenda Ofe. All were attired in orchid with matching picture hats of organdy. The lace over organdy bodice featured elbow length puffed sleeves of organdy and a sabrina neckline. The deep V-bodice back was interlaced with ribbon trim n huge bows with streamers falling to he hemline. Mrs. Raffensperger's gown was a dark shade of orchid organdy, while the bridesmaids organdy gowns were of lighter orchid contrast. They wore white mitts and carried bouquets of matching gladioli.

Duane Ahrens, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Keenan Eiting was head usher. Barney Eiting, John Carper, Dennis Ptak and John Blotzer seated the guests and were groomsmen. The ringbearer was Lee Spitzer of Norfolk. The men

Local People Louis Visit In St. Louis

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Lohnes have returned home from a very enjoyable visit at St. Louis, Mo., where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lohnes and family and with the Louis Smetana family.

They enjoyed seeing the many places of interest in that section of Missouri with the added feature of the great flood that visited that portion of Missouri two weeks ago. They were able to see a great deal of the flood swept district before returning home.
