

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Duane Burgen

McGuire, Burgen Rites Held At Watertown, S. D. Church

On June 30th at 2 p. m. Miss Audrey Maye McGuire of Watertown, S. Dak., and Edgar Duane Burgen of Weeping Water, were married at the Church of Christ at Watertown.

Reverend Oral Morgan officiated at the wedding ceremony. The bride wore a ballerina lace with rounded neckline and puffed sleeves from the fitted bodice. The very full skirt featured tiers of nylon in the skirt back. Her fingertip veil fell from a sequin covered hat. She wore white mits and carried an arrangement of pink roses surrounded with white chrysanthemums and daisies.

Miss Dona Leonhardt of Brookings, S. D., was maid of honor. She wore a dress of white embroidered organza over pink tulle. The ballerina length dress featured a full skirt, wide pink cumberbund, round neckline and puff sleeves. She wore a headpiece of tiny pink roses. Robert Burgen, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Gene Burgen, brother of the bridegroom, and Darrell Drake of Watertown, S. D.

Flower girls were Peggy Salling of Denver, Colo., and Patty McGuire of Aberdeen, S. D., both nieces of the bride.

Candlelighters were Michael Salling of Denver, nephew of the bride, and Timothy Morgan of Watertown, S. D.

A reception was held in the Methodist Church parlors immediately following the wedding ceremony. Mrs. Wayne J. Nielson and Mrs. Anna Nicholson grandmother of the bridegroom both of Wabash, assisted others at the reception.

The bride is a graduate of Harding Academy and College at Seary, Ark., and was employed in the Watertown, S. D. Public Schools.

The bridegroom is a graduate of the Weeping Water High School and attended the University of Nebraska. He is employed at Northern Natural Gas Company at South Sioux City.

After July 8, the couple will be at home at 6620 Albion, Derby, Colo., after a wedding trip to the Black Hills.

LAUGHING LASSIES 4-H CLUB

The Laughing Lassies 4-H Club met June 25 with Barbara Schlieder. After the business meeting they practiced threading needles and basting. Mrs. Schlieder and Barbara served cookies and a drink.

The July 9th meeting was held at Fay Garringer home. We worked on our towels.

Eagle Auxiliary Holds Meeting

The regular meeting of the Eagles Auxiliary was held the past week with Madam President Marjorie Willis presiding. Communications were read by the secretary, approved and filed.

A motion was made that the Auxiliary would fry the chickens which the Aerie would furnish for the annual Eagle picnic.

A report was given by Irene Smith on the state convention which was held June 14, 15 and 16 at Kearney. Mrs. Smith was the delegate to the state convention. Plattsmouth did very well, with two state officers named, they were Irene Smith as state trustee and Dorothy Janacek as state membership director. Ann Schubeck was made alternate to the national convention which will be held in New York City, July 25, 26 and 27. Junior Past President Helen Jordan is the delegate.

Ida Reed and Hazel LaHoda were the recipients of the door prize. Marie O'Donnell and Honey Lou Cole were also in attendance.

The meeting was then adjourned according to ritual to meet again July 18th.

Family Visits In Southern States

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Krejci, son Jim, and granddaughter, Lyn Marie Munnah, returned Saturday morning from a visit with their son, Master Sergeant and Mrs. Bob Krejci and children at Fort Campbell, Ky.

On July 4th the Frank and Bob Krejci's visited in Clarksville, Tenn., with the Walter Smith family and went by motor boat from Clarksville to Cheatham Park on the Cumberland River.

The day was spent picnicking and boating. Jimmy also got in some fishing in Kentucky Lake at Hopkinsville, Ky.

Mrs. June Rikard Soon To Leave For Crete, Greece

Mrs. June Rikard, daughter of Mrs. Amanda Sattler Lohmann, of Omaha, niece of Mrs. Ella Wurga, Mrs. Sophia Mason, Mrs. Harley Burdick, and Mrs. Fred Herberster, Mrs. Dorothy Meisinger and John Sattler is leaving Omaha July 24, for Fort Hamilton, Brooklyn, from where she expects to sail for the island of Crete, off the coast of Greece.

Mrs. Rikard is joining her husband, M-Sgt. William C. Rikard, who has been stationed with the U. S. Air Force in Crete, since January 14th. M-Sgt. Rikard has fifteen years of service in the air force of the United States. The Rikards expect to be in Crete for a two year tour of duty.

Since Sgt. Rikard left for overseas, Mrs. Rikard has been living in Omaha with a sister. The daughter of the Rikard's, Geraldine and her family, reside in Omaha, at 4400 Verdon Avenue.

Service at distant points is no stranger to the Rikard family as their last tour of duty was at Anchorage, Alaska, for twenty seven months. Later stations have been in air force fields in Florida and Texas.

Sixteen members of the Junior Class of the Christian Church, enjoyed a picnic supper Monday evening at Riverview Park in Omaha. Mr. and Mrs. Emory Rozell and Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Taenzler were sponsors. Five guests were also present. Mrs. Rozell is teacher of the Bible Class.

Church Rites At Mynard Unites Popular Plattsmouth Couple

Mrs. Don Freeburg Nee Janice Wiles

Miss Janice E. Wiles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wiles and Mr. Donald R. Freeburg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Freeburg, were married June 30th at the Liberty Evangelical United Brethren Church in Mynard.

Baskets of lilies and roses and candelabra decorated the altar of the church.

Marjorie Grosshans, cousin of the bride, and Karen Tilson, were candlelighters. Their dresses were princess style of baby blue crystalline.

As the guests assembled and were seated, a prelude of nuptial music was played by the organist, Mrs. Roy Cole. Mrs. Wayne Schneider and Mrs. Hal McCaw sang, "At Dawning."

The double-ring marriage vows were solemnized by the Reverend Melvin Shafer. As the vows were concluded and the couple knelt, Mrs. McCaw sang, "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely, dressed in a floor length gown of chantilly lace and tulle. The lace bodice featured a jeweled sabrina neckline and short sleeves. Matching gauntlets of chantilly lace were worn. The tulle skirt featured lace and tulle ruffled cascades on each side sweeping in to a chapel train. Her fingertip veil, a flare of layered tulle, fell from the queen's crown which was trimmed with shimmering iridescent sequins. She carried a white Bible with a white orchid from which fell white streamers.

Miss Beverly Harris attended the bride as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Rose Mary Nelson and Nancy Painter. All were attired in identical styled dresses in shades of pink chiffon over tulle. Miss Harris wore a gown of a darker shade. The gowns featured a sabrina neckline and a deep V-bodice back with an empire sash of chiffon. The attendants' headpieces were crowns of pink with small veils of matching tulle. They wore pink mits and carried nosegays of red roses.

Serving the bridegroom as best man was Bill Albeiter. Groomsman were Alan Wiles, brother of the bride, and DeWayne Freeburg, brother of the groom, who also served as ushers with Herman Meisinger.

Julie Bashus, cousin of the bride, was ring bearer. She was dressed in a light pink organza dress.

The bride's mother chose a pink sheath dress of chantilly lace over tulle with white accessories for the wedding. She wore a pink carnation corsage.

The bridegroom's mother wore a blue nylon lace over tulle dress with pink accessories and a pink carnation corsage.

A reception was held in the church parlor immediately following the wedding. Mrs. D. L. Grove was in charge of the reception arrangements. Mrs. John Ahrens, Jr., served punch and Beverly Spreck served coffee. Sandra Young and Merry Jo Williams served the cake.

Lois Gopen tended the guest book. Joan French, Ruth Morse and Jo Ann White, roommates of the bride, at Peru College had charge of the gifts.

Mrs. Freeburg graduated from the Plattsmouth Schools, class of 1956 and has since attended Peru State Teacher's College. Mrs. Freeburg is a 1955 graduate of Plattsmouth High School and has this past year attended Tarkio College.

They will make their home in Plattsmouth.

Miss Sandra Burch To Wed July 14th

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Burch have announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter Sandra to Howard Heil of Louisville. Mr. Heil is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Heil, Plattsmouth.

The couple will be married by the Reverend Keith Delap at the First Presbyterian Church, Sunday, July 14, at 4 p. m., in the presence of only their immediate families.

Mr. Heil is on leave from the Army and is stationed at Fort Lewis, Wash., where the couple will live.

Miss Beulah Jochem of Omaha was a houseguest over the fourth of July weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Philpot.

J. C. Comstock Is Dinner Host

J. C. Comstock entertained Mr. and Mrs. John Mettlen from Lincoln at a one o'clock dinner Sunday. Mr. Mettlen is Superintendent of Schools at Nemaha, where Cecil Comstock is going to teach next year.

Before departing for their home in Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. Mettlen also called on Mrs. Hugh Stander who is a niece of Mrs. Mettlen's. Later in the evening Mr. and Mrs. James Comstock and children Charles and Mary Lois from Bellevue stopped in to have supper with Mr. Comstock and Cecil.

This climaxed the day for Mr. Comstock as his specialty is cooking and baking and needless to say he is one of the best.

Patsy Kay Schmidt Has 7th Birthday

Patsy Kay Schmidt was guest of honor July 9th when guests arrived at her home at 2:30 to help her celebrate her seventh birthday.

Patsy's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Schmidt, 301 Hillcrest.

Guests were Debbie Kimbrell, Pamela Brookhouser, Janis Wondra, Craig and Larry Smith, Peggy Aspedon, Scottie Keith, Mary Lou Porter and the honoree's brother, Tommy Schmidt. Mrs. Schmidt was assisted by Mrs. James Keith at refreshment time.

Patsy received birthday gifts from her little friends.

Louis Friedrich, Fred Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Tritsch and Mrs. Amelia Heldt were at Plainview Sunday to attend the funeral of an aunt, Mrs. John Volk.

Miss Valerie Uffelman Is Wed At The Home Of Her Parents

Miss Valerie Uffelman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Uffelman, became the bride of Roger W. Leudtke, son of Mrs. Thelma Leudtke, and Erwin W. Leudtke of Austin, Tex., June 25, at an 8 p. m. ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, with only the immediate members of the families attending the ceremony. The Rev. L. E. Thomas, minister of Trinity Methodist Church of Lincoln, solemnized the service before a background of summer flowers and candles.

Mrs. R. C. Dreamer, the matron of honor and only attendant, wore a frock of pink silk designed with a fitted bodice and bouffant skirt. Her corsage was fashioned of pink and white feathered carnations.

R. C. Dreamer, served Mr. Leudtke as best man and directed the guest to their places was Jean Uffelman, brother of the bride.

For her wedding, the bride chose a waltz-length gown of white nylon eylet over white net and ice blue tulle, designed in the princess style. A scoop neckline accented the bodice and a large bow and attached panel of ice blue nylon fashioned the back. She carried a white orchid and stephanotis on a white Bible.

The reception table was centered with a three tiered white cake with the traditional bride and groom on top of the cake. The cake was flanked on either side by three small white tapers in wrought iron holders. The table was covered with a crocheted table cloth, which was made especially for the wedding.

by the bride's paternal grandmother, Mrs. George Peterson, who came from Chicago to attend the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Leudtke will temporarily make their home at 4015 Everett Street in Lincoln. Mrs. Leudtke was a graduate of the Weeping Water High School and the Lincoln School of Commerce. The bridegroom graduated from Lincoln High School and is a junior in the College of Business Administration at the University of Nebraska.
