City Scouters Return From Camping Trip

Scoutmaster Al Linder and 18 members of Plattsmouth Boy Scout Troop 369 returned recently from a week-long sojourn at Camp Cedars near Fremont. Linder said his charges again turned in an outstanding job including receiving the red ribbon of the week for camp inspection and taking third place in "Adventure Trail." This was a contest in which 30 troops of the Covered Wagon Council took part.

Two Plattsmouth scouts were called out for the Order of the Arrow national camping award. They were Brian Nelson and Allen Hanson.

Young Nelson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Nelson, and is an explorer scout. He is junior assistant scoutmaster and holds life rank. He has attended the summer session at Camp Cedars three years and has completed 21 merits.

Allen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Al Hanson and has attended camp for three years. He is a Star Scout and is interested in camping and outdoor life. Scoutmaster Linder said the Order of the Arrow is an exclusive award going to only 1 out of 100 scouts selected on a national level.

The local troop is sponsored by the Lions Club and its membership spans the city. This year the Lions Club and Hugh J. Kearns American Legion post sent three scouts to Camp Cedars. They were: Tom Smith, Smith; Brian Nelson and Ken Russell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Russell.

During the "hay fever season", many people resign themselves needlessly to months of suffering. Yes—needlessly—because modern medicine can give welcome relief from the irritating symptoms of this common allergy. But treatment should be started in advance of exposure. Treatments for hay fever are twice as effective when given before the start of the season than after. If you dread the coming of hay fever time, see your doctor now... and come to us for the medicines he prescribes and the accessories he recommends.
