automatic Gas water heating!

still THE BEST
still THE FASTEST
still THE MOST ECONOMICAL

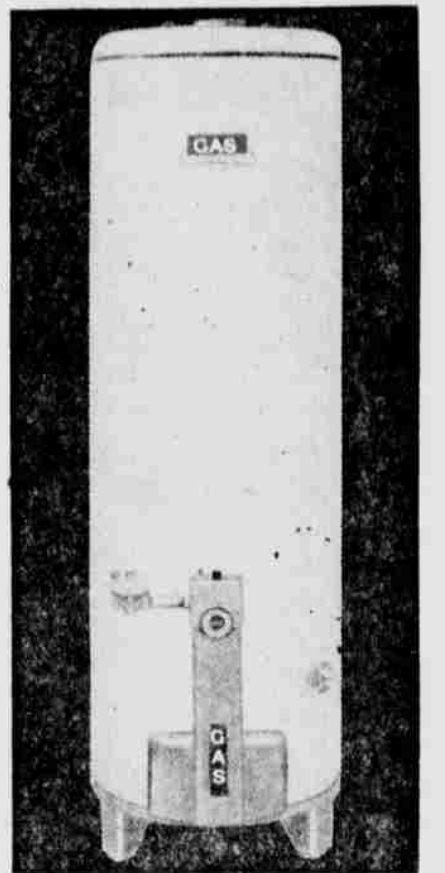

4/5's of all the water used in the average home is hot because hot water fills so many household needs. It takes hot water for dish-washing, laundry, baths, shaving and a score of other household jobs.

It's easy to see why it is so important to have an automatic gas water heater. A gas water heater gives you all the hot water you want . . . when you want it . . . and at just a fraction of the cost of the other automatic fuel.

You can depend on Gas to give you plenty of hot water . . . economically.

Stop at The Gas Company or your gas Appliance dealer for an automatic gas water heater sized for your household.

Only GAS does so much . . . yet costs so little
