

Holds Services Here On Sunday

Sunday the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church had the pleasure of having as guest minister, Rev. Paul Iverson, of Kenyon, W. Va., who with his family have been spending the summer here.

Rev. Iverson is a native son of Plattsmouth and it was a real pleasure to enjoy his veritable discourse at the morning services.

Head Start on Fall, Snow Sundaes and Company Manners

If you feel the urge for a new fall hat, you'll love a velvet... looks smart with summer cottons or sheers, and just as new with sheer woolen dresses next month.

Why Do We

... often save our "best" china and silver for only when company comes? Isn't it a good idea to teach our youngsters company manners and appreciation of fine possessions. Try having a "company-style" dinner often for your own family circle. It's fun!

Snow Balls for Sundae

That's no spelling error. It's a fabulous dessert idea from Marie Hueschle of Collegeville, Minn. Form balls of vanilla ice cream with a scoop. Roll 'em in shredded coconut and store in freezer. File 'em in a bowl and set in center of table, then pass small bowls of sundae topping: chocolate, butterscotch, or fruit.

Silent Servant

That's natural gas, serving you so many wonderful ways... silently, safely, economically, and oh, so clean. You never see this servant, just as you never see the label of Northern Natural Gas Company. Yet this pipeline supplier carries your miracle fuel hundreds of miles to your town, and your local gas company... the friends who bring your servant to you — constantly.

Corn Flake Cookies

Lemonade on a hot afternoon... and Mrs. Gilbert Jorve's favorite cookies! The St. Paul lady says you make 'em this way: Beat 2 egg whites till frothy. Add 1/4 tsp. salt and 1/4 tsp. cream of tartar and beat till stiff. Add 1 tsp. vanilla. Now gradually add 2 1/2 cup sugar, beating constantly. Fold in 2 1/2 cups frosted corn flakes and 1 cup shredded coconut. Drop by teaspoon on well-greased cookie sheet. Bake in 300 degree gas oven till firm and golden. (Mrs. Jorve says you may want to move your oven shelf up a notch.)

Former Resident Visits In City

Monday afternoon a former resident of Plattsmouth, for the past years a citizen of Washington, D. C., visited here for a few hours, enroute to Iowa to visit with relatives. This was Louis F. Trimpe, who back in the long ago of some forty years ago served as cashier at the Burlington passenger station in those days, passenger trains were operated on the railroad and made stops in this city.

Mr. Trimpe was accompanied by his son-in-law, Cecil Hernandez, also of Washington. In their short stay here they visited with Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Rosencrans.

Arnold Meisinger has been confined at home for the past two weeks with a leg infection, however, is showing improvement.

Mr. and Mrs. Clair Shellenbarger were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Furse at their summer home on Sandas Beach, Henning, Minn. Mr. and Mrs. Furse returned home Wednesday afternoon.

Mary Kay Henningson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Henningson, has returned home from St. Catherine's Hospital in Omaha after a nine day stay. She is recuperating at home and after 40 days will return to the hospital for observation.
