Ava Marie Trautner Is Bride Of Mr. Elwood Umland, Sunday

EAGLE (Special)—Sunday evening at Trinity Lutheran Church at Walton, Miss Ava Marie Trautner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Trautner of Walton became the bride of Mr. Elwood Umland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Umland Eagle.

Maid of honor was Miss Dorothy Schultz of Gibson, Ia. Misses Beverly Tyschen and Rhoda Schultz of Lincoln were bridesmaids. Jolene Stillahn of Nebraska City was flowergirl and Robin May of Bennet carried the ring. Michael and Tommy May lighted the candles.

The bride's gown was of Alencon lace and tulle over satin. Jeweled lace trimmed the Sabrina neckline. The skirt of ruffled tulle was draped with lace. She wore a lace contour hat edged with pearls and sequins which held the illusion veil. The bride carried pink sweetheart roses and white-feathered carnations.

Attendants for the bride were Duane Umland, brother, as best man and ushers were Marvin Meyer and Donald Lohmeier of Lincoln.

After a trip to Colorado, the couple will reside at 1625 Washington, Lincoln.

Mrs. Umland attended Seward College and will be a member of the faculty at Calvary Lutheran School in Lincoln, this fall.

Mr. Umland is attending the University of Nebraska and is a graduate of Eagle Schools.

Reade Family Back Trip To The South

Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Reade and son have returned to their home following a business and pleasure trip.

Mrs. Reade is an instructor in the Nebraska School for the deaf in Omaha and attended a convention for teachers of the Deaf at Knoxville, Tenn., and a holiday in the Smoky Mountain region.

At Cincinnati, O., Mrs. Reade joined her husband and son, and they continued onto Washington, D. C., where Mr. Reade attended a four week course at the Gallaudet College, the only college for the deaf in the United States. Mr. Reade took a rehabilitation study at the college. He is a supervisor for the rehabilitation service for civilians in this area, where he has acted in this capacity for the past twelve years.

A great deal of the time was spent sightseeing of the Eastern States by the family, but the highlight of their trip was a trip to Jamestown and Williamsburg viewing with interest the early American History sites.

Church Circles Have Various Meetings

St. Pauls Evangelical and Reformed Church Circles held their August meetings as follows:

Circle one met at the church parlors for a family picnic in the evening about 6:30. Sixteen families were represented and enjoyed the fellowship.

A short business meeting was held following the meal, and the remainder of the time was spent visiting.

The September hostesses are Mrs. Wilbur Claus, Mrs. Ray Harold and Mrs. Louis Baumgart.

Circle two did not meet.
