Mynard Couple Have Pleasant Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Wiles of Mynard returned from an 1800 mile motor trip last Thursday, and report a very enjoyable vacation.

Enroute to the Black Hills in South Dakota, they visited the Nebraska National Forest near Halsey, where the headquarters of the forest supervisor is located. Here the species of pin most used are Ponderosa, jack, Austrian and Scotch, also eastern and red cedar.

In driving through the Badlands, viewing the colored stratification of the various formations, they took many pictures.

Four days were spent enjoying the scenery and many attractions that had been added during recent years and which they had not seen during other visits to the Black Hills.

Enroute home they visited at Carl R. Cole and E. V. Cole brothers of Mrs. Wiles.

They report the crops looked good throughout Nebraska, but looked much better in eastern Nebraska.
