Halloween Tradition, Hamburger Pie and trotting the little ones off to school with a big batch of Halloween goodies for their friends. Try your hand at sketching pumpkin faces on chocolatested cookies or cupcakes. The children get the credit. And you'll be their heroine,

Easier Washdays

Your washday friend, the new gas clothes dryer, doesn't rely on the weather! Before you're a washday older, see it yourself at your local gas company or gas appliance dealer.

Hamburger Pie ...

As Mrs. William Powell of Minneapolis makes it: Brown hamburger and chopped onions together. Toss in a can of green beans and tomato soup. Pour the mixture into a baking dish and spread mashed potatoes on top. Sprinkle paprika over all, and let it toast in a 350-degree gas oven for about half-an-hour.

A Lot in a Little Space

Just picture that tiny kitchen closet of yours with a pegboard wall on the back and the side walls lined with ladders of shelves. The shelves take beautifully to all your cleaners and polishes. And that dandy pegboard holds many, many tools on hooks.

Pilot on the Pipeline

Aren't you surprised to learn your local gas that a crew of aircompany supply you with clean, constant, economical natural gas?

These sharp-eyed pilots work for Northern Natural Gas Company, the pipeline company who supplies gas to your local company. The pilots, flying over 88,000 miles a year, constantly patrol the pipelines to see that all goes well with the flow of the natural gas that provides you with better
