

Sketch Of Life Of John B. Meisinger Pioneer Resident

John B. Meisinger, son of John B. and Eva Meisinger, was born in Pekin, Ill., December 6, 1869. He came to Nebraska with his parents when three years of age, they settled on a farm west of Plattsmouth.

He was married in 1889 in Plattsmouth to Nellis Antill, to whom was born one son, C. Lory, who passed away June 3, 1924.

Mr. Meisinger and family moved to Lincoln soon after their marriage, where he made his home.

Mr. Meisinger was employed in the state insurance department at the state capitol until failing health of Mrs. Meisinger forced his retirement. The wife passed away in 1954. Four brothers and two sisters have preceded him in death.

L. A. Meisinger of Plattsmouth is his only surviving brother.

How to buy "vitamins"

Door-to-door peddlers are around now, selling vitamin preparations and nutritional supplements. The talk is mighty convincing. But, remember, talk won't do a thing for you. There's only one way to be sure of what vitamin you need if any are needed at all. That is to see your family physician. He and he alone is qualified to prescribe for you. Always buy vitamins or nutritional supplements from a registered pharmacist. Then you'll know what you're getting—and you'll get your money's worth.
