Legion Auxiliary Of Eagle Meets

The American Legion Auxiliary Unit 197 of Eagle held its regular monthly meeting Nov. 10.

President Elsie Althouse called the meeting to order with 12 members answering roll call. Members were asked to fill two assignments, one for "Tarlton Men" and the other for the "Yanks Who Gave." The rehabilitation chairman announced she had the gift shop assignment ready to send to the Veterans Hospital in Omaha.

Meeting closed with retirement of colors and refreshments served by the hostesses, Mildred and Florence Trumble.

The Legion boys joined in for lunch.

Mina Frohlich received the door prize.

The next meeting will be Dec. 2.

Eagles Auxiliary Has New Applicants

The regular meeting of the Eagles Auxiliary was held with president Marjorie Willis presiding.

Visiting committee reported Ida Reed was in the hospital and flowers would be sent her. Also Vlasta Land was to enter the hospital and flowers would be sent to her.

Two new applicants, Delores Doyle and Neva Newburn were balloted. They were initiated at Beatrice at their District meeting.

Invitations from Grand Island, Lexington and Nebraska City were read inviting all to attend their functions.

A letter of thanks was read from the public library thanking the Auxiliary for the Ten commandments picture which was presented to them.

The meeting was then adjourned according to ritual to meet again Nov. 21.

A dutch lunch was served after the meeting.

Engagement Is Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle E. Bohl of Howe, Neb., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Loraine Elaine, to Lorin F. Toman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Toman of this city.

Miss Bohl is a 1956 graduate of the Auburn high school and attended Peru State Teachers college. She is now employed with the Western Adjustment and Inspection company of Omaha.

Mr. Toman graduated from Plattsmouth high school in 1956 and has since been employed with the Western Electric company in Omaha.

A spring wedding is planned by the young people.

Observance Of World Community Day

The United Council of Church Women observed The World Community Day Nov. 1 at the Christian Church in Murray. The theme this year is "Emerging Peoples."

The meeting opened with an organ prelude by Mrs. Richard Sack.

Mrs. Joe Richter, first vice-president, had charge of the program she read for meditation from Laurens Van der Post's powerful book "The Dark Eye in Africa". Mrs. Cummins of Plattsmouth gave the devotions.

Other meditations were read by Mrs. Ralph Wehrlein, Mrs. John Parkening and Mrs. Clovis Day, and a play "New Horizons" was presented by Mrs. Ed Sprick, Mrs. Raymond Lancaster, Mrs. Rickter and Mrs. Gene Nolte.

Bundles of good weed clothing, new yardage and blankets were brought to the church to be sent to the needy in the Far East. The dedication of these and the collection was given by Mrs. Hendricks who also led in prayer.

All churches of the Council were asked to have some part in this program, these are The Presbyterian First Methodist, Christian, St. Paul's St. Luke's, Episcopal, Mynard E.U.B. and Murray Presbyterian, and Christian Churches.

The ladies of the Christian Church of Murray served refreshments in their new Sunday School rooms in the basement.

Mynard FB Unit Has Meeting

Regular meeting of the Mynard Farm Bureau Unit was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Royal Smith Friday.

Vice-President, Roy O. Cole, called the meeting to order at 8 o'clock.

Minutes of the October meeting were read by acting secretary, Mrs. Marjory Cole.

Roy Smith, County Unit Affairs Person, led an open discussion on school redistricting. He stated that every school board member in Cass County was invited to attend the election of the Cass County Committee for the Reorganization of School Districts, but that there was only a 10 per cent representation at the meeting.

Robert R. Cole, National Unit Affairs Person, reported briefly on the State Board meeting recently held in Lincoln. He emphasized that the annual State Farm Bureau Convention would be held in Lincoln starting Nov. 17, and ending Nov. 21. The main banquet will be held on Tuesday evening, Nov. 19.

The Dec. 13 unit meeting will be in the form of a Christmas party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kraeger. — Mrs. Richard O. Cole, reporter.
