Mrs. Ralph Wildrick — Phone 2511

The student Council meets every two weeks, with two members representing each class. Plans are being made for the school and the curriculum at the high school.

The first student council meeting was called to order by the president, Clayton Heard, on Oct. 10 with all the members present. Honor pins were discussed and it was decided a pin will be given to each class. One student will be chosen from each class each week. The pins will be passed from one student to another weekly; the one who has received the pin the most times during the year will have the privilege of keeping it at the end of the year.

The choice will be based on behavior in class and study hall, neatness of dress and cooperation. Honor pins will be given to honor roll students every six weeks. Three A and a B will rate a pin.

The student council also discussed making the bulletin board more attractive. Each class representative in turn will decorate the bulletin board each week for a month, beginning with the seniors. The Council also discussed a plaque in memory of Claude Twiss former late custodian.

At the past Pep Club meeting, it was decided that all skirt material that was left over, was to be kept until next year. It was voted to buy megaphones for the cheerleaders to be used by next year cheerleaders. The treasurer, Janet Albert, gave a report on the finances of the Pep Club. Bonnie McGrew, concessions chairman, reported on the concession money. Scarfs were also discussed. The meeting was adjourned by the Pep Club president, Judy Herbig.

Letter sweaters were received by the L Club Nov. 5 and immediately were adorned with letters and emblems. These sweaters are presented by the L Club through sport activities and L Club dues. Richard Stohmann, John Ahl, Clayton Heard, Leonard Bentley, Larry Luken, John Kahland, Orvel Robbins, Ron Hutchinson, Emmett Brown, Don Vogler, Ron Luttig, Eroll Meisinger and Frank Puls received sweaters this year.

Outfits in their final stages of sewing in Homemaking II vary from suits made of wool to cotton jumpers and skirts. Future plans include a style show to be presented to the mothers.

This semester the art class is trying to learn the hows and whys of art. A 5,000 word essay about art or a famous artist will be due in January. Next semester they will be working out of books and will take two field trips.

The Music Parents Organization met Thursday evening in a special session to consider the purchase of band uniforms. Mrs. Fern Hlavoc presided at the meeting.

A band uniform, made to the specification as decided by the uniform committee, was displayed. A representative from a Council Bluffs firm was present. It was unanimously agreed to purchase these uniforms. Only pants and coats will be purchased at this time. Each band member is to purchase his own "Louisville" identification patch, which will be 50 cents. Since there was not enough money to pay for the uniforms in full, it was voted to take advantage of the credit terms offered by this company. A motion was made and carried that parents of the band members will assume the responsibility for payment of this unpaid balance, if at the end of the school term sufficient funds are not available.

We Thank Thee, Oh Lord

"Praise God from Whom All Blessings Flow" is the prayerful hymn that keynotes the observance of Thanksgiving Day. For Divine Providence has blessed this land with an abundance of worldly goods—and Divine Guidance has led this nation through trial and tribulation to a unique position in world history. We thank Thee, Oh Lord, for our calling to the profession of Pharmacy; for the privilege of practicing our profession in this community, and for being able to serve Thee through our professional ministrations to the health and welfare of the lives which Thou hath created.
