It takes time to grow...

A good farmer knows what his crop needs: sunlight, soil, enough rain . . . and time. Each contributes, each is important. In fact, any one of them can spell the difference between a good harvest and a meager one.

People have to grow, too . . . and the growing season lasts a lifetime. Like plants, we also need some outside help along the way: a family to grow up in . . . friends to grow up with . . . and Faith to guide and strengthen us.

Most of us take our Faith pretty much for granted. Like all familiar things, we just assume it will be there when needed. The point is, it's needed all the time . . . every day, every week, all our lives.

Begin now to make sure your Faith is strong enough to weather whatever storms may lie ahead. And help your children find that same strong Faith. Take them with you to your Church or Synagogue this week . . . and every week.

Find the strength for your life . . . worship together in 1958.
