

Dr. Albert Fricke Back At Old Home

Dr. and Mrs. Albert Fricke of Los Angeles, were here at the week end to visit here with his sister, Miss Dora Fricke, and to meet as many as possible of the old time friends and associates of Dr. Fricke. The visit was limited in the old home as Dr. Fricke and wife are leaving for the west coast. They also stopped for a short visit at Omaha with Mrs. Russell Harris, another sister, and at Ashland with a brother, E. A. Fricke.

Miss Joyce Fauquet Returns To Coast

Miss Joyce Fauquet who has been enjoying the Christmas holiday here with her parents, Attorney and Mrs. Paul E. Fauquet and brothers and sisters, has returned to San Jose, Calif. She is attending college at San Jose and will graduate there on January 31st with the mid-winter class of the school. She is expecting to make her home on the west coast.

January Meet Of Legion Post

Thursday evening the members of Hugh J. Kearns post of the American Legion held their January meeting at the Forty and Eight Club, the first session of 1938.

The members regretted to learn that one of the old and faithful members, Dean L. Patton, is a patient at the Veterans Hospital in Omaha. It was urged that members send cards to Ward 8, East, Veterans Hospital.

Members were more than delighted to have with them Edward G. Ofe, longtime member of the Legion post, now a resident of Tacoma, Wash., but still a paying member here. Ed was commander in the hectic days when the members were busy in paying off the mortgage on the building they now own on Avenue A.

John Thomsen, a new member, was presented and greeted by his new friends in the local Legion.

Joe Zastera, veteran member of the Legion, was present and thanked the members for their remembrances during his illness.

Adjutant Don Wurga reported that the membership for 1938 was now 174 with the campaign still moving on.

Bob Beverage departed Wednesday for Hamilton, N.Y., to return to his studies at Colgate University. Bob spent the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Beverage, and other family members.

Alaskan Visitor At The York Home

Mrs. Gussie York, formerly of Petersburg, Alaska, arrived New Years eve to spend New Years with the Don and Joe York families.

Mrs. York is widow of the late Russell York, formerly of this city. She has been traveling through the northern part of the United States, going up into Canada, visiting all the large cities and points of interest. Mrs. York also visited at Washington, D. C. down through Virginia and Carolina and across country to Oklahoma and Kansas before arriving in Nebraska for an extended visit.

Cars Collide At Road Intersection

A car driven by Ralph W. Rathbun, Plattsmouth, Route 2, and one driven by Lee Nittler, Omaha, collided at an open intersection 3 1/2 miles west and 2 north of Murray Sunday at 9:35 a.m.

The drivers told Deputy Sheriff Wayne Schneider who investigated that they were unable to bring their vehicles to a stop because of ice on the road.
